EXTRAORDINARY DIAGNOSIS—REMARKABLE CURES.

All Chronic and Obscure Diseases Detected Located and Described Accurately.

When sick is the time we need the best advice. Dr. Grady gives a most wonderful diagnosis of disease. He will surprise you by not only locating your disease, giving every symptom of the case, pointing out every ache, pain and disagreeable feeling, telling precisely how you feel and have been handled better than you can tell yourself.

He will tell you whether the disease is curable or not, and if curable what course must be pursued.

No person should doctor any further or take any more medicine before consulting him. A visit to him is sure to save endless trouble, expense and suffering.

Read his late report of people actually cured. Look at the figures and see what has been achieved in Rochester and vicinity. Note the enormity of his experience, and—then doubt, if you can, the true secret of his success. The following is but a brief synopsis of the different diseases treated and the number of cures made:

Table listing various ailments such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, etc., with corresponding numerical counts.

Partial paralysis, 659 cases have been cured, and of total paralysis, 208 cases greatly relieved, and most of them enabled to attend to ordinary business. Consumption in its first and second stage, 630 cases treated and 403 cured.

Special diseases not classified on account of being of a private nature, 1,480 have been cured.

Dr. Grady is no traveling physician. This city is his home. He is permanently located here for life. All patients receive honorable treatment at the lowest possible cost. He only charges for medicines used while under treatment. If your case is incurable he will tell you so and advise you not to doctor. Dr. Grady has the largest practice of any physician in this country. His offices are always crowded. Hundreds weekly turned away unable to wait their turn. A strange fact about Dr. Grady's practice is that fully one-half of all patients that are under his care have been sent by former patients or their friends, who have been helped or cured. Write or call on his patients and investigate for yourself. Call on Mrs. C. Prince, Old Ladies' home. She will tell you she was cured of Catarrh, Creeping Paralysis and Deafness; Mr. John Lee, Powers hotel; Miss O'Laughlin, 88 Campbell street; Mr. Horn, 55 Hollister street; Miss Jennie Schaefer, 35 Concord avenue; Mrs. Burke, 4 Central park, and hundreds of others.

Patients at a distance successfully treated by mail. All letters promptly answered, in-enclose stamp.

Consult the European specialist on all nervous and chronic diseases. Those suffering from rheumatism, sores, ulcers, tumors, cancers, or any form of skin or scalp disease, should visit Dr. Grady at once. Remember consultation, advice, services and surgical treatment absolutely free until cured.

Office hours, 10 to 12, 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 P. M. Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays only.

Coming

All church-going men will hail with delight the opinion of the pastor of St. Mary's in regard to obligations which politeness imposes upon them while in church. The Reverend Father says, with characteristic directness that there is not in any manual of etiquette any rule which obliges three or four men to swarm out to the aisle after the manner of an ill managed flying wedge, and thereby effectively halt passers by, in order that a large hat, and incidentally a young woman, may float into the inmost recesses of the seat. It is proper, perhaps, for a gentleman to step into the aisle and make way for a lady, but beyond that politeness becomes extreme and therefore ridiculous.

Miss Clara Kelly spent Thursday of last week in Elmira.

The first snow storm of the year here came Monday night.

On Thanksgiving Day the Knights of Columbus became no longer a fancy, but an established fact, in Corning.

Dr. Francis Ely of this city, was in Watkin Tuesday, where he went to conduct the examination of candidates for membership in the Knights of Columbus.

"Puddin'head Wilson" the dramatization of Mark Twain's story of the same name will appear at Corning on Tuesday evening of next week.

Michael Murphy, an old resident of Painted Post died Monday night at his home. He was much esteemed as an honest, hard working man. He leaves a wife and three children. The funeral took place Thursday at 10 o'clock. The body was taken to Hornellville for burial.

East Bloomfield.

The new ceiling of St. Bridget's church is completed and is a very nice piece of work as well as an improvement to the church.

The C. M. B. A. will hold their fifth annual ball Wednesday evening in Braden's hall.

The devotion of the Forty Hours will begin here next Sunday.

Mrs. Reed entertained friends from out of town Sunday.

Thursday occurred the marriage of Miss Jennie O'Neill and Mr. Albert Curran of Ovid. Miss O'Neill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael of Millers Corners, but has lived in Ovid for some time. The ceremony was performed by Father Garvey at St. Bridget's church here.

Geneseo

RISE OF PAGANISM.

REV. FATHER DUCHEY OF NEW YORK, WARNS HIS PEOPLE.

He Claims That Society Violates the Law. "Woe to the Nation Where Men Are Forged to Feel That Justice Is a Mockery!"—Demands of Christian Society.

Father Ducey, in St. Leo's church, New York, recently preached a powerful sermon from the text, "Master, we know that thou art a true speaker, nei ther carest thou for any man."

The stirring passages of the eloquent priest's sermon follow: "Almighty God created man and endowed him with certain gifts; consequently God has assumed man that as a child of God man shall be amply provided for by a wise, loving and eternal Father.

"The great God, our Creator, who gave us life, holds us in conscience-bound to the faithful observance of his laws, and as a just God and eternal Father he has promised us, his children, to provide for our comfort and our wants. He has told us that our Heavenly Father knows we have need of all these things.

"Hence if society is paganizing in many things and not Christianizing; if God's will is not realized in the society of our day, men and society—the individual and the collection of individuals—are the criminal cause of the nonfulfillment of God's promise. If men and society put themselves in antagonism to the carrying out of God's law of love and justice to his creatures, men and society must take the consequences for opposing the justice and charity of God toward the great multitude of the people.

"The greatest revolution which has ever occurred in the history of mankind was inaugurated by Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God, who came into this world to redeem humanity and establish the brotherhood of man and create the kingdom of our common Father, the God of humanity. What Jesus Christ has done as our Redeemer and Savior for the brotherhood of man he expects the priests of his church to continue to do at all times and under all circumstances.

"Society in its arrogance, selfishness and luxury loses sight of the fact that the failure of nations and all forms of civilization have followed because nations, society and civilization have neglected God's laws and violated the rights of men.

"The fundamental laws of God's kingdom on earth have two basic principles. 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart and with thy whole soul and with thy whole mind,' and 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' In the sacred volume the Holy Spirit tells us that no man can be believed to love God, whom he sees not, if he love not his brother who is before him.

"Now, when individuals, society, civilizations and nations pile up the substances of this world's goods, neglect the cry of distress, see their brethren in need and have the means to relieve suffering and practice justice and love of God and man and do not fulfill the mission of brotherly love they violate the laws of God and do wrong to the rights of men.

"The more prosperous element in society must never be allowed to forget the fundamental and natural rights of man by the natural opportunities which God gives his creatures and which no will never consent shall be denied to his creatures. The tyrannies of the world have as their basic principle the denial by the few powerful and successful of the equal use to the larger number of their fellow men of God's free gifts and natural opportunities.

"Woe to the nation where men are forced to feel that justice is a mockery and that wrong and oppression overpower them in the use and enjoyment of God's gifts to his creatures, and omd it as we may it cannot be denied that this feeling exists today in these United States from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast.

"It is on record. Only a short time ago nearly 7,000,000 men said so in their act as citizens of this mighty republic, and since that day the number has not lessened, but has increased.

"I say today that in America, in our great cities, which give the example, radiating from a great center, the masses of the people feel that society is becoming criminal by its un-Christian practices against the law of God. It is becoming pagan in its avarice, luxury and covetousness.

"Selfish indulgence opposes itself to the law of God and the brotherhood of man, and this is a sin which nature, high heaven and the masses of the people have never failed to punish, and vengeance is sure, though it is sometimes long delayed.

"Degeneration must follow in the wake of these un-Christian vices. If society becomes unnatural, unjust and hideous before angels and men, it is preparing itself for destruction by God's avenging hand.

"The condition of Christian society today demands above all things the voice of a fearless pulpit. When the rights of the multitude of God's people are threatened, the church cannot and must not remain inert. She is bound to take the first place and stimulate the zeal of her clergy in behalf of the working classes.

"Truly has the head of the Catholic church, Leo XIII, recognized that this is the great question before the world today. The cause of the people is the cause of God."—New York World.

FATHER HECKER.

This Thinker Saw the Wisdom and Grandeur of Our Constitution.

In no country is the Catholic church so untrammelled to carry its divine mission of the saving of souls as in America, the land of democracy, with its constitution recognizing the rights of the conscience of all men. This is brought forcibly to the Catholic reader's mind by a paper read at the International Catholic scientific congress, held at Friburg, Switzerland, Aug. 20, 1907, by the Right Rev. D. J. O'Connell, D. D. and domestic prelate to his holiness. In his paper Dr. O'Connell, once a well known Boston priest, writes of the distinguished Paganist Father Hecker.

"The thinker saw the wisdom and grandeur of our constitution as compared with the laws of the Roman empire, in which, as he says, 'the individual was merged into the state in such a way that the state has no obligations to consider his individual right as against itself.' Father Hecker, seeing this and comparing it to our opposing system, in which the citizen gives to the state its life, rather than the state gives to him his, saw in this country unbounded usefulness and a glorious future for the church. The essayist speaks of the deep joy of the sovereign pontiff in receiving from his (the writer's) hands a copy of the constitution of the United States, and that he accepted, praised and blessed it, and of the address of Cardinal Satolli, who, while delegate in America, recommended in an address in the city of Chicago 'the gospels and the American constitution taken together as the complete charter of human life.' All this tells the place where the church stands, from its best minds here to its head in the Eternal City, upon America and Americans.—Weekly Bouquet.

Begin Well.

It is a great point for young men to begin well, for it is in the beginning of life that that system of conduct is adopted which soon assumes the force of habit. Begin well, and the habit of doing well will become quite as easy as the habit of doing badly. "Well begun is half ended," says the proverb, and a good beginning is half the battle. Many promising young men have irretrievably injured themselves by a first false step at the commencement of life, while others of much less promising talents have succeeded simply by beginning well and going onward. The good practical beginning is to a certain extent a pledge, a promise, and an assurance of the ultimate prosperous issue. There is many a poor creature, now crawling through life, miserable himself and the cause of sorrow to others, who might have lifted up his head and prospered if instead of merely satisfying himself with resolutions of well doing he had actually gone to work and made a good practical beginning.—Weekly Bouquet.
