The many friends of Mrs. Abbey Sullivan were surprised and pained to learn of her death, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Patrick Hanion of Chapel street, on Sunday last at 10 o'clock, after an illness of one day. Mrs. Sullivan has long been a resident of Auburn and was well known and beloved by a host of friends. She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her daughter. • sister, Mrs Keeler, of Oswego, N. Y. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at St. Mary's church and was largely attended by sorrowing friends Forty Hours' Devotion opened in Holy Family church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock mass. The church was profusely decorated with flowers and ferns, the large marble altar being especially beautiful. In the evening Rev. Father Hickey delivered brother. his sermon on "General Judgment," in a most impressive and convincing manner. The large church was thronged to the very doors. He Repented. A story comes from New Haven about a black spaniel that abstracted a feather duster from his owner's house and while playing with it tore out all the feathers. The dog, after being shown the featherless handle, was given a whipping. He then disappeared and about a year afterward walked bravely into the house with a bran new duster in his mouth. He walked up to his mistress and meekly deposited the new brush at her feet. By the
