

"She can't" said Virginia, who,

like many others, having been reared

Vol. IX, No. 26.

Rochester, N.Y. Saturday, March 26, 1898,

$1.00 per Year. 80 per

AROUND THE GLOBE. THE TWO COUSINS.

WHAT THE CHURCH IS DOING IN THIS AND OTHER CONTINENTS.

Many Items of General Interest That Will

Oregon prelate's silver jubilee.

in Newark in 1868.

Lady of the Valley, Orange Valley, recently. Father O'Neill was born

It is asserted that during the episcopacy of the late Archbishop Cleary, of Kingston, almost $700,000 was spent in building and improving charches and presbyteries. St. Mary' cathedral stands as a monument of his business capacity. He took great pains to improve it exteriorly and in-teriorly. The magnificent tower is a piece of architecture unequaled in Canada. It is estimated that the Archbishop gave away over $75,000 to the building funds of new schools, charitable institutions and churches.

In Parison a recent Sunday Mgr. Geraigiry was elected (Ecumenical BY MARY ROWENA COTTER.

CHAPTER V. [Continued from last week.]

be Appreciated by Our Readers. forbear the formality of addressing having entered: and only think how her as Miss Grey, - "I hope you will sad it is to think of our dear Alexia Most Rev. Archbishop Riordan, of San Francisco, has, at the invitation final answer."

"I have," she said. "my first answer of Archbishop Gross, consented to dewas final.' liver the sermon at the Solemn Pon-No more was said until Mr. Sumtifical Mass on the occasion of the mers' home was reached; then as he helped her to alight he said again, his arm around her, I do not like to see language and so clearly stated -so there was about a quarter of a century CATHOLIC SOCIETIES Bishop Wigger, has appointed Rev. George Doane O'Neill, vice president have made and I shall hope for a of young ladies leaving the convent shrinks away. His last sermon (M Ponder well on the decision you my wife feeling so badly, I have heard logically established that denial ago. the Newark Diocese, to succeed Rev. Thomas A. Wallace, who was ap pointed rector of the Church of Our vourneen" in a voice filled with plain- a letter in the top drawer of your dres- council "There was much disputing." bers. These are thus divided: Car. 1876, and incorporation ber tive sweetness which had thrilled his ser. Shall I get it?"

Pretending not to hear his last words, she said "Good night Mr. Hurley," and as if forgetting that anyone was a letter, the other a legal document. near, she hurried up the walk singing.

" It may be for years, it may be forever."

only of the Catholics, but also of the selves to him again and again not only Armenians and Greeks. His election on his way home, but in after years, wearing that horrible dress which will wearing that horrible dress which will in this series of series of

These words sank deep into Andrew in an atmosphere of bigotry was too blind to be convinced that all who de-THE TRIBUNAL OF REASON. sire to join religious orders are given a time of probation during which there Boy. Father Pardow, 8 J., on th are at liberty to return to the world. "Alexia," he said, he would still "no one is allowed to come out after Nocessity of an Infailible Interproter.

ponder well on this ere you give your being shut up there all her life and [Special Correspondence of Catholic Tournal]

Series of Gara

more favorable answer at our next meeting." He looked at her face which had never seemed so beautiful as it did now in the light of the full summer's moon. There was such a sweet sadness in those bright eyes which would not meet his, but seemed looking far away in some unknown space. It reminded him of the expression he had noticed when early in the evening she had

WASHINGTON LETTER GOVERN THE CHURCH

How her hand trembled as she broke He only promises to be with them so and prelates nullius diocessos, the seal and withdrew two papers, one that they teach nething but what is total, 1,208. true in matter of faith and morals.

"What can this be? she thought as But listen to the decision, as we read it she held latter, then unfolding it she in the acts: "It bath seemed good saw that it was a deed which made her to the Holy Spirit and to us." Does the owner of Alexia's beautiful home not this sound like presumption! the Temporal Dominiens of and the furniture thereof. Virginia How do these faw uneducated men every former occasion. Was but human, and a thrill of pride dare to pronounce on what the Holy took possession of her at the thought Ghost thinks? It is only because to the Pore

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH BEFORE OVER 1.100 PERLATERNON CONSTI-TUTE THE MIREARCEY. 40.4.5 P. 7. 9. 9 20 11 7 941 X 140

The antual condition of the Catho- the Italian cardinale, but the w lie shurch, so far as the snumber and the case.

"Come now," said Robert putting cal knowledge clothed in the chastest our prelates and bishops from what

At the opening of the Vatican counmore favorable answer at our next after having entered, so our Alexia His last sermon (March 18), was on cil nearly 800 bishops and arch-

when early in the evening she had stood under the brilliant gas light in the parlor and sung "Kathleen Ma-"Let us nope so," said Virginia, cil the church came. Those who at-the brilliant gas light in the parlor and sung "Kathleen Ma-"Yes," said Mrs. Summer, "she left vet the Bible tells us that at this the Catholic hierarchy on December indulged in when the "Yes," said Mrs. Summer, "she left yet the Bible tells us that at this 16, 1897, as no less than 1,298 mem. | was organized, which was in tive sweetness which had thrilled his heart, but at the same time had seemed to whisper to him that the singer lived in a world far above him, where he could never reach her. The disappointed lover tried to hold her hand, but she drew it away as woon as her feet touched the ground. Pretending not to hear his last words,

> The Pope is the head of all, and his fraternity. The has titles and claims as Bishop of Rome, Vicar of Christ and "Boversign of the Temporal Dominicas of the Hely Roman church," are repeated as on guanting, The ourdinals come next in dignity

Another feather which this Gerarchia 3s the property foreign or non-linking cardinals at present in the more lege. It has been and dramine Tear the foreign empaned in a

What he Transpiring In Trateralities -- Oursel

PICKINGS FOR THE

3Y J. J. K.

In anticipation wadm Stone has been m menting such next loave with you as book. Owr formers las

īnđ ile

ter

on

Ð.

ng

5c

Patriarch of all the Eastern churches in Union with Rome. Mgr. Geraigiry, who was born at Blois in 1840. became a priest at the age of twentytwo, and has spent the greater part of his life in Asia Minor, where he en. joys great popularity and respect, not Hurley's heart and repeated them-

re. ng

• 🖇

is much approved of by the Armenians of both rites.

pilgrimage from Mexico. This body last time that evening. of pilgrims is under the care and diection of Mgr. Amezquita, Bishop of rested on something in the seat which Puebla de Los Angeles, and Mgr. he at first thought was a necklace, or Campos, Apostolic Administrator of closes examination he found that i the Diocese of Tamaulipas. These was a little pearl rosary, which Alexia Mexican pilgrims-many of them, by had evidently dropped. His first imthe way, are reputed to be farmer. pulse was to call her back and give it millionaires and rich hidalgos-are, after seeing Rome, to proceed to Palestine and the Holv Land.

One of the most interesing spots in the history of Norse Christianity is the ancient town of Trondhjen, once the seat of a Catholic archbishopric and a famous place of pilgrimage, as concient cathedral still remains, though, welcome me." of course, in Protestant hands. The small handful of Catholics, nearly all sadly. poor people, have hitherto had to worship in a little chapel attached to the hospital. The energetic and zealous Vicar Apostolic, Bishop Fallize, is now taking steps to erect at last a Father Timmers, to raise the necessary in A----. When did she go?" funds for the purpose. Trondhien is yearly visited by hundreds of Eng- reply. lish tourists on their Norwegian cruises. aud no doubt the many Catholics worthy place of Catholic worship next and receive the sacraments.

It seems now finally settled that a consistory will be held in the second half of Lent. The intelligence has been communicated to Cardinals Coullie, Archbishop of Lyons; Laboure, Archbishop of Rennes; Sourrieu. Archbishop of Rouen, and Herrera, Archbishop of Compostella. These four Cardinals were created in the last consistory, on April 19, 1897, and have still to receive the scarlet Numerous vacancies existing hat. in Italian and foreign sees will be filled up. It is not yet clear whether the Holy Father will proclaim any new Cardinals. Persons in the immediate surrounding of the Pope declare that he will. At any rate, it is but also a public consistory will be of age we could not keep her." held. The motives for the long postponement of the consistory were various, but perhaps the principal one was the dissension with Russia regarding the nomination of new bishops. It will be remembered that Mgr. Sy mon, coadjutor to the Bishop of Mohilow, and at present in a species of exile at Odessa, was one of those chosen by the Holy See for the government of a new diocese.

Hood's Pills are the only pills to take with Hood's Saraparilia. Easy and yet efficient.

when ever he heard that beautiful ballad there came with it a vision of Rome is expecting the arrival of a the young girl whom he saw for the

On re-entering the carriage his hand never go there."

to her, but, thinking that it would serve as an excuse to call on her soon. he put it in his pocket.

taining the shrine of the national her two weeks wedding tour. "I ex- meditated and she was so happy in leavpatron, St. Olaf, the King. Its an- pected she would be the first one to ing home that she feared it would be

The united efforts of her husband

CHAPTER VII.

It was a bright October day when xia." sighed the young woman, her to-morrow and try to bring her "Gone. mother," said Virginia, home.

where has she gone?' "To the convent." was the reply.

and parents however, proved effectual "What, mother, gone to visit the in preventing our young friend from sisters again," said Virginia, "and it starting on what they insisted would Catholic church in this ancient see is only a little over a month since she be a useless journey, and the autumn and has appointed one of his priests spent three whole days at the convent leaves were beginning to fall ere she went to Hilton. She had at first "Two days after you left." was the firmly refused to live in the home that had been given to her, but when "And has not yet returned;" inter- Robert told her that it would be much rupted Virginia before her mother better to go there for the present than among them will be gratified to find a could proceed with an explanation, to remain home with her parents, as "I almost fear at times that the sisters | she had intended doing for a time, she summer at which they can hear Mass will be trying to coax my cousin consented, but it was to be only until from us entirely. How I wish that Alexia should come.

she would not visit them so often." "And that they have already done," said Mrs. Summers sadly, "for our Alexia has not gone to A-----this time, but to the Mercy convent in Hilton the carriage which had brought Vir where she intends to join the order." ginia from the station stopped in front

"Mother, said Virginia, "oh mother, of the Mercy Convent. "Poor Alexit cannot be true." "It is so," said Mrs. Summers.

glancing at the high board fence on "Oh mother." exclaimed the girl, either side of the convent grounds, and sinking into a chair," how could you the thorn hedge in front, how can she permit it. Why didn't you keep her content herself shut up in such 's gloomy place as this. I am sorry that I at home."

"We did all we could to prevent it," | did not come before to take her home." almost certain that not only a secret she has a strong will, and being you get inside, but Alexia must go home for this is no place for her." "This is dreadful, mother," moaned Virginia had never realized until Virginia, "and poor Andrew, how her cousin was gone how much she does he bear it." had been to her; but living where

"I do not know," said her mother, they had spent so many happy hours "as I have not seen him since the together, and being alone much of the evening of your marriage; but it was time while her husband was at his doubtless sad news to him." office, she had learned the value of

"And well it might be," said Vir- the companionship she had lost, and ginia "for we all know how dear she separation instead of decreasing, had was to him, wasn't she Robert?" increased her love for the absent one. turning to her husband, who in his But now in a few minutes she would surprise had been unable to speak." see her Alexia, whom she hoped to

"Yes," said Mr. Hurley" the one find unchanged, and how her heart ambition of my brother's life was to beat with joy at the happy anticipa-marry your cousin but. let us hope tion marry your cousin but, let us hope tion. that she may return." (To be continued.)

that the home she had almost envied they remember the words of the divine her cousin, and had lamented to see charter of the church: "Go and teach closed after the death of her uncle, all things whatsoever I have comclosed after the death of her uncle, all things whatsoever a may both 121 members of the Beared College of Cardinals pass away, the latest being control to it. When she remembered that the tion of the world." They thus pro-pleasant rooms might never again be nounce judgment on a very weighty in September last. brightened by the face she loved, she matter and all discussion is at an threw down the paper saving, "I can | end."

said:

the New Testament solely on the an-thority of the church. Now, the church is either infallible or also is not. If she is not, then she may have admitted into the Bible what is not really the word of God, but only human words, and so the divine au-thority of the Bible disappears. If she is infallible, and can be fully the work as the fully served. The office he holds leads by other books tell me to do or to believe, to change. I may do or not do, believe or not Besides all this, every new cardinal other books tell me to do or to believe, I may do or not do, believe or not believe, and no great harm will come created in curis, or for the work of Yet it must be

It is seldom that any one has more have been.

proof that man's infallible reason - Regarding the second name re-

During the period of nearly twenty years of his reign Leo XIII has seen 20 121 members of the Beared College of and

At the procent time the college con.

The father then showed how the sifed: Five still live who were even to friends and ible was made. He said some near that Five still live who were even The letter in which Alexis bade her farewell and asked her to accept for her wedding gift the home where she hoped she would take up her abode as soon as her return, was a long and affectionate one. While in almost in

And then the distinguished father ing nine vacancies must be filled up. lines of prefetere id: It is rare, indeed, that there is even brighten there is

"Our separated Protestant brethren a full college; nevertheless, specula- in mes refuse to admit the infallibility of the tion as to possible appointments to the paris of bre church, and yet they unhesitatingly nine vacant hats are rife. Our only feetion we admit all the writings now found in is naturally awakened regarding the and been the New Testament solely on the an-

of it, but what the Bible tells me to the Roman congregations or bureaux "We did all we could to prevent it," said her mother," but it was to no avail for she turned a deaf ear to all that they were studded with pretty our entreaties. You know, Virginia, that as mild as your cousin appears she has a strong will, and being of age we could not keep her." did not come before to take her heme." did not come before to take her heme." As she entered the grounds and saw that they were studded with pretty fower-beds and shrubbery, her mental that as mild as your cousin appears she has a strong will, and being of age we could not keep her." the necessity of an infallible interpre- XIII, as the contributions of the ter of the Bible."

clearly demonstrated the necessity of The efforts made by the Pope to inan infallible interpreter, than was duce French Catholics to cast in their on last an infallible interpreter, then was done by Father Pardow. The fact that outside of this doctrine—that is among those that admit the Bible as the word of God but deny the right of the church to interpret it there are several hundred differing interpretations of that country so generously sent bin der almost every sentence—is the strongest former years.

served and many sense likely and she is infallible, and can be fully trusted, for so all-important a work as the selection of the real word of God, how inconsistent it is not to trust her for the other things the teaches. If the Bible were simply a good book to read, if its principal use were to occupy a conspicuous place on the center table in a drawing room, it would matter so much whether merely human words crept into it or not. But the difference between the Bible and all other books is this. That what other books tell me to do or to believe.

member selfe there are some of the

