AMERICAN VALOR

Another instance of the heroism and valor of our American seamen is found in the exploit of Lieut. R. P. Hobson, who ran the collier Merrimack into the harbor of Santiago amid almost numberless torpedo mines and in face of the guns of the forts. The ship was scuttled across the channel. The bravery of the men in risking almost certain death to perform the feat is remarkable.

DEWEY'S RELIGION

The question of Admiral Dewey's religion has recently come up for discussion. The regular newspaper sketches refer to him as a Protestant.
The Cleveland Universe asserts that the hero was a Catholic, while the Mithican Catholic stated that he was not a member of any church. The following letter, which appeared in the Buffalo Commercial, is correct:

"MONTPELIER, Vt., May 23, '98.
"My Dear Sir—I am authorized by the Hon. Charles Dewey of this city to state that Rear Admiral Dewey is a loyal communicant of the Protestant Episcopal church.
"He is not a Roman Catholic.
"I hope you will contradict the story. You are welcome to use my name with Mr. Dewey's if you wish.
"Yours truly,
"A. N. LEWIS,
"Rector of Christ church."

The Providence Visitor in a recent issue says very truthfully: "The truth is that 'Catholic news,' such as is rarely given to Catholic papers by those who could give it, who, however much they have the cause of Catholic journalism at heart, usually prefer to 'favor' the secular papers when their favor would be worth dollars and cents, and better still, authority to their own papers. We have grown used to discovering the affairs of the church discussed and set forth in the daily papers, side by side, as it often happens, with slanders and lies and libels about the church and her ministers. Sometimes, as in this case, one is 'taken in' by believing what he reads; oftentimes he would be left behind if he did not believe it."

Our congratulations are tendered to Rev. Thomas Hendrick, pastor of St. Bridget's Church, Rochester, and Rev. William Mulhern, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Auburn, on the completion of their twenty-fifth anniversaries. May God's choicest blessings be theirs.

THE WAR.

According to the latest dispatches Santiago has been captured by the Americans, and the probabilities are that Cervera's fleet is included in the capture. Havana and Porto Rico will be the next points of attack.
After these places are taken it will be time for the Spanish government to sue for peace if they do not want us to go right up to Madrid. This war can be settled and settled quick by the Spanish government acceding to the requests of the United States in granting to the starving Cubans the liberty they desire and paying us for the trouble we have been to. But nations, as well as people, are sometimes bullheaded. Sagasta says that it is for the United States to say when the war shall end, as it was commenced by this country. Well, when Spain sues for peace we are ready and willing to let them have it on conditions.

Alderman Ford, who is acting as police justice for a few days during Judge Ernst's absence, is dealing out justice with a strong hand.

Dewey would like to play Camara at Philippine.

What has become of that great blusterer, Weyler?

Evidently David B. Hill intends to take a hand in the Democratic state convention. He has been elected a delegate.

By all means let us have a rousing Independence Day. Make it one that will be remembered.

We Appeal to Our Friends and Patrons To join with us and thousands of patriotic citizens throughout the country in raising at once a war relief fund.
$1,000,000 needed in 30 days to care for sick and wounded soldiers and starving Cubans. We with other business houses throughout the country are volunteering to take subscriptions for this national relief fund, to be expended by the Red Cross society and the Cuban Relief committee appointed by President McKinley.
Every subscriber who gives at least $1 will be presented with a copy of the beautiful picture, "The Acclada," now on exhibition at this office. Call and see it. This picture will be a beautiful historical souvenir of this great uprising of the American people to defend and set free outraged Cuba.
Every patriotic American should subscribe at once. Your help is needed!
Our boys are at the front! Let us stand by them! We do not receive any commission of any kind, and no profit is made by any persons from this fund. Subscriptions received at this office.

BIBLIOGRAPHY.

The House of the Angel Guardian, founded, as our readers know, for the maintenance of poor, orphan and abandoned children, has just addressed us a copy of its latest publication, "The Month of the Sacred Heart." It is an honor to the establishment, both as regards the subject matter, and the general get-up. This little book is illustrated and has about 150 pages containing exercises for each day of the month of June. They are very proper to increase devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus; each of them is followed by an example, setting forth the advantages to be derived from devotion to the Sacred Heart. It likewise contains a Novena to the adorable Heart of Jesus in the Eucharist, as well as several other exercises and prayers suitable for this devotion. At the end of the book, we remark the Chaplet or Crown of the Blessed Sacrament, being a beautiful act of adoration to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Although this publication is more complete than the others of the same kind, already published by this Institution, and so much appreciated by our readers, yet the Brothers of Charity are not willing to raise the price (10 cents postpaid.)

Knowing the good that can be done in helping this Home, we make it our duty to recommend this new book to our readers, which will be forwarded to them on the remittance of 10 cents.

THE GOSPELS

GOSPEL: St. Luke, xiv. 16-24.— At that time, Jesus spoke to the Pharisees this parable: "A certain man made a great supper and invited many. And he sent his servant at the hour of supper to say to them that were invited that they should come, for all things are ready. And they began all at once to make excuse. The first said to him: I have bought a farm and I must needs go out and see it; I pray thee hold me excused. An another said: I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to try them; I pray thee hold me excused. And another said: I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come. And the servant returning told these things to his lord. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant: Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and the feeble and the blind and the lame. And the servant said: Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.
And the lord said to the servant: Go out into the highways and hedges; and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. But I say unto you, that none of those men that were invited shall taste of my supper."

A good appetite
Is essential to good health.
Hood's Sarsaparilla creates an Appetite, tones and Strengthens the stomach, And builds up the whole system.
It relieves that tired feeling, and by purifying and enriching the blood, it promptly and permanently cures all scrofula eruptions, boils, humors, pimples and sores; strengthens the nerves, and gives sweet, refreshing sleep. No other medicine has taken such hold upon the confidence of the people as Hood's Sarsaparilla, and its record of great cures is unequalled by any other preparation. You may take Hood's Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that it will do you good.

THE BISHOP'S PICTURE.

Every Catholic Family in the Diocese Should Have One.

As this year marks the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid as a priest and his thirtieth as a bishop, every Catholic family in the diocese should be in possession of our beautiful large photograph (not lithograph), 11x14 inches of the Rt. Rev. Bishop. The picture will be given to every subscriber of THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL, who, until further notice pays a full year's subscription for 1898 in advance, and send us fifty cents extra to cover part of the cost of framing. The photograph is a reproduction of the picture of the Bishop which hangs in St. Bernard's Seminary and is certainly a work of art. It was made by Mr. E. E. Nier, the celebrated artist of Powers Block. The photograph will be handsomely framed with an elegant gold bordered white frame, glass and back. Those who have received the premium are more than satisfied, and say that they do not see how we can give so much for so little money. Now is the time to send in your orders.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE BY REV. J. P. KIERNAN.

An illustrated lecture on the Catholic Summer School at Cliff Haven, Lake Champlain, was given by the Rev. J. P. Kiernan, rector of St. Mary's Church, at Cathedral hall Friday evening. About fifty views of scenes at the summer school and of the surrounding country were given.

The Rochester Cottages at Cliff Haven is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for the Rochester party, which will leave this city on July 9th.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West Show will be in Rochester June 17 and 18, pitching its tents on Culver Park. Of the show The Detroit Daily News says:
The Pawnee Bill Historical Wild West, Grand Mexican Hippodrome and Exposition of Trained Animals gave two performances yesterday, and gave entire satisfaction. Miss May Lillie, the champion rifle shot of the world; Mexican Ross, the charming seniorite, the most daring and reckless horsewoman in the world; the Indians and cowboys, and the museum of strange wonders, the wild buffaloes, are all supremely good and wonderful.
The whole show is one of rare merit, and we cordially recommend it to the people.

PICKINGS FOR THE GOOD OF THE
C. M. B. A.

BY J. J. H. B. S.

CHAPTER V. SERIES III

As the writer promised you in the columns of the JOURNAL of last week my version of the brotherhood of man is that all passion of the human heart which, when unbridled and uncontrolled, tend to create heart-burnings and separation between men, are in direct opposition to the virtues which adorn the true man and whose exercise by men in the various walks of life—brotherhood in fact as well as in theory, it is the true object of all fraternal associations to foster and practice.
It tends toward a true and lasting effect and to root out the first—selfishness, envy, hatred, ingratitude!" How many sorrows, how many heart-aches, how many tears have they not occasioned. Oh, how they sour their possession! How they shade and dwarf the real growth of the being who submits to them. Did you ever stop to think about these passions?
Selfishness is the mother of envy and hatred. Envy scowls and frowns if another enjoys what he has not.
Hatred carries out the dark thoughts and wishes of envy. Envy plans the crimes, by the commission of which he seeks to avenge the wrongs and slights he imagines himself to have received from those about him, who have been more successful through greater industry or better forethought, and hatred, stronger and more desperate, carries out the plans and commits the crimes; but, dear brother, ingratitude is even meaner than either of the others, for she will receive good gifts and rich blessings from those about her, and in return will rend and destroy the generous giver. Do you hear a member of the C. M. B. A. abusing another? If so you may be sure he has not yet begun to know the word "fraternity." He may have taken the obligation, but not as an honest, earnest member. He may be a good member when all is well and as he would have it, but when the time comes which tries the heart and puts to test the truest and noblest attributes of our nature, he falls down and shows the world that he has taken an obligation of the nature of which he had little, if any conception. The writer has done his best, and asks you, dear reader, to please read it over just once more.

A. O. H.

A call has been issued for the national convention of the A. O. H., to be held in Trenton, N. J., June 27.
The convention will be one of the most important ever held in the history of the organization. On the morning of June 27 the delegates will attend Pontifical Mass, to be celebrated in St. Mary's cathedral by Bishop McFaul. The convention will open at 2 p. m. in Taylor's Opera house.
There will be an address by the bishop and the mayor of the city, Hon. W.
G. Sickel, will formerly welcome the delegates. There will also be addresses by the national officers. In the evening Bishop McFaul will receive the delegates in the Opera house. On Tuesday, June 28, the convention will be permanently organized and committees appointed. On Wednesday morning there will be a parade of state and visiting organizations. The remaining days will be devoted to the regular work of the convention.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN CONVENTION.

The Knights of St. John of America, will hold its convention and prize drill at Detroit, June 23rd. The Knights of St. Boniface had unanimously decided that it would send a company to compete for the prizes.
Three prizes have been offered of $500, $250 and $100 for the best drilled and finest appearing companies present. The local knights have a well drilled company, and feel confident of carrying off one of the prizes.

For Summer Tourists.

A neat pamphlet "Summer Outings," has just been issued by the passenger department of the Nickel Plate R. R. The book is a valuable one for the summer tourists, giving as it does explicit information of the beautiful and desirable places along the Nickel Plate road, where one can find every comfort when taking rest and recreation. A feature is a long list of hotels and boarding houses, giving rate by day or week, postoffices, addresses, etc. By this means the seeker after a summer resort who finds it difficult to make up his or her mind just where to go, can suit the purse to personal inclination and find many an ideal spot for nominal charges. Copies of "Summer Outing" can be had on application to any Nickel Plate office, or of Passenger Department Nickel Plate R. R., Cleveland, O.
