IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

The pupils of the Immaculate Conception School held "flag-raising exercises on the school grounds Friday afternoon of last week. The pole, 87 feet long, and an elegant new flag are the gift of the Alumni. Many patriotic songs such as "Flag of the Free," "Star Spangled Banner" and "Old Glory," were sung with much enthusiasm. An address by the Rev. Father Gommininger completed an appropriate programme.

The Alumni and graduates of this school are rehearsing the operetta, "Queen Esther" to be rendered June 30th. The children will present the operetta "Fairies."

Mr. Frank Rielly, of Columbia college, has returned to spend the summer with his parents on Tremont street.

The Father Meagher Council, C. W. B. L., 105, entertained their friends most enjoyably with cards in their rooms in the school hall, Edinburgh street, Thursday evening.

Miss Alice Donnelly, of Atkinson street, will graduate from the Albany Normal college this week.

Miss Gertrude Hughes, of Adams street, is in the graduating class of Loretta Abbey, Canada.

The Rev. Father William Rielly, of Brooklyn, is visiting his parents at their home on Tremont street.

The students of St. Bernard's Seminary are having a retreat this week. This will close the school year.

Miss Elizabeth Willet was called home from the Adirondacks because of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Willet, of South Washington street.

The two weeks mission which has been conducted by the Augustinian Fathers in this Church was brought to a most successful close Sunday evening by the Rev. Father Garrity, about 3,500 having attended. The renewal of baptism vows, papal blessing and benediction were bestowed upon about 1,500 men, who during the ceremony held lighted candles, making the ceremony a most impressive and awe-inspiring sight. The Rev. Father Sullivan preached an earnest and eloquent sermon.

The Rev. Father Connors will say first solemn high mass at the Immaculate Conception Church Sunday.

CATHEDRAL.

Sister M Quirk died at Nazareth Convent on Jay street Tuesday, June 7th. The funeral was held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock from Nazareth chapel.

Workmen are engaged in laying cement walks in front of the Cathedral on Frank street. The plots between the sidewalks and Cathedral are to be sodded.

The closing exercises of St. Patrick's Cathedral school this year will be in the form of two interesting entertainments, which will be given on Tuesday evening, June 21st, and Friday evening, July 1st. Two separate programmes have been arranged, thus giving better opportunity for presenting the large number of children who have prepared for the different parts, without protracting the entertainments too late into the night.

At the first entertainment a pretty drama, entitled "The Violet Sellers," will be presented, and at the second the operetta "Cinderella" will be given. In addition to the leading parts, there will be recitations, chorus singing and drills.

At the close of the second entertainment, July 1st, the graduates of the school will receive their diplomas from Bishop McQuaid.

Catherine O'Brien died last Sunday at the family residence, No. 19 Saxton street, aged 66 years. The funeral was held Tuesday morning at 8:30 from the house and at 9 o'clock from the Cathedral, and was largely attended. Rev. Andrew Hughes celebrated requiem high mass. Mrs. O'Brien was born in Rathvilly, County Carlow, Ireland, and came to this city eleven years ago. Six children survive her, John, William, Edward and Dennis and Mrs. Henry Doyle and Miss Rose O'Brien. Deceased leaves one sister, Mrs. Mary McQuirk, of Rochester, and one brother, Edward Proctor, of Moravia. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

ST. MARY'S.

Mrs. Amanda McBride, formerly of this city, died Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. W. Spencer, at Hay Bay, Ontario. Deceased leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. W. Butler, of No. 8 Comfort street.

Antoine C. Reche, son of the late Vital Reche, died at San Bernardino, Cal., May 27th. Mr. Reche left Rochester for California in 1854 and had resided there since. He leaves his wife, four sons and four daughters, all of California, and four sisters of this city.

Plans for an addition to St. Mary's school building have just been completed by Architect W. Foster Kelly The contract was let for $8,950. The extension measures 64x30 feet on the inside and will more than double the size of the present building. The addition will be in the same general style as the old building. Both the old and new buildings will have the latest improvements in ventilation and heating. The building will be in the same general style as the old one. There will be rooms for the Rosary and Scapular society, C. M. B. A., C. L. B. A., Children of Mary and other societies.

ST BONIFACE

George F. Fritchie, of 9 Wilder street, died last Sunday afternoon, aged 76 years. He leaves besides his wife two daughters, Mrs. Frank Grule of this city and Sister Constancia of Hagerstown, N. Y. Funeral was held Wednesday at 7:30 from the house and at 8 o'clock from the Church.

On Sunday, June 5th, the feast of St. Boniface, patron saint of this Church, was properly celebrated at 7:30 mass. St. Boniface Benevolent Society received communion in a body at 9:30. St. Boniface Union of the Knights of St. John, headed by the Fifty-fourth Regiment band, paraded the principal streets of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth wards, arriving at the Church at 10 o'clock, attended mass, when Father Rauber, assisted by Rev. H. Meckel and Rev. M. Hargarther, celebrated mass. When Rev. Father Meckel, of Canisius college, of Buffalo, preached an interesting and instructive sermon on the life and labor and worth of St. Boniface. After high mass St. Boniface Union appeared in front of the Church where the entire congregation enjoyed the drilling and difficult movements of the knights, perfectly executed, and lasting some time, when the union marched to their headquarters, where the entire organization were photographed.

Mr. F. Ritter and Miss C. Yagon were married at 5 o'clock on Wednesday at the residence of Father Rauber.

ST BRIDGET'S

The school children enjoyed a holi day Tuesday.

The Rochester seminarians who will be ordained priests are the first to have made the full course of philosphy and theology in St. Bernard's Seminary.

TO ERECT A NEW BUILDING

Nazareth Convent and Academy to Have New and Commodious Quarters.

Ground has been broken for a new building for the Nazareth Convent and Academy, which is now located at the corner of Jay and Frank streets. The institution, which besides the mother house of the Sisters of St. Joseph in this diocese, has also its Normal School and its Boys' Academy, has for a long time been in need of more room.

The site chosen for the new building is on Dewey avenue, the new boulevard off Lake Avenue, and work has already been commenced. The new structure will be built of stone and wood with a center wing 72 feet by 50 and two side wings each measuring 35 by 87 feet. The whole frontage will be 142 feet. All these wings will be three stories high.

The building will be set up on a high elevation in the center of a lot measuring 900 feet front and 1,600 feet deep, which will be graded and laid out in lawns, walks and drives.

There will be large school rooms, both for summer school and permanent school sessions, large dormitories, reading rooms and assembly halls. The building will have the best modern apparatus as to plumbing, hot water heating and ventilation. The lighting of the building both by day and artificially at night has been provided for.

The building will be in colonial style and when completed will be one of the finest structures in this part of the country. It is stated that the cost will be $30,000.
