The Rev. E. M. Taylor, D. D., Methodist Episcopal, is reported to have said in a sermon on the enemies of our country that he hoped the outcry against the Roman Catholics would be forever silenced by the patriotic words and actions of those high in authority in the Church and by the laity in the present crisis.

The present superior general of the Congregation of the Immaculate Heart of Mary the Very Rev. Father Jerom Van Aertselaer, has been nominated Vicar Apostolic of Central Mongolia.

Mrs. Anna Trakall, of Vienna, was recently received into the Catholic church, and abjured the errors of Protestantism in the church of the Salesians, Turin. She received con ditional baptism from the Right Mgr. Giovanni Volpi, who also administered confirmation and gave her holy communion.

The death is recorded of a wellknown ecclesiastic, Father Simpliciano, of the Nativity of the Order of St. Francis. He was another Don Busco, and was the founder of the Hospice of St. Margaret. His loss will be keenly felt by those who had an opportunity of knowing and admiring his self sacrificing zeal in the foundation and direction of the institute in Rome and its offshoots in Capua, Sorrento, Tursi, in Basilicata, and Castel d'Alife for young offenders and abandoned orphans.

The Catholics of Wales will be greatly pleased to learn that a brief has been received by Rt. Rev. Dr. Mostyn, the vicar Apostolic, raising the Welsh vicariate to the position of a diocese, under the name of Menevia. One of the inscriptions placed in the corner stone of St. Peter's parochial school, Jersey City, N. J., at the ceremonies recently, read as follows: "During the happy reign of Pope Leo XIII., Sovereign Pontiff, Very Rev. Winand M. Wigger, D. D., being bishop of Newark, while His Excellency William McKinley was president of the United States of North America, with Hon. Foster M.
