NEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES OF IRELAND.

What is Being Done by the People Home-Various Items From Every Section of the Emerald Isla.

CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.

Mr. Thomas Finney of Brisbane, one of the merchant; rinces of Queensland, accompanied by his two daughters, visited Tuam a few days ago. Mr-Finney 86 years ago left Curraghcree, six miles of Tuam. He is member for Toowong in the Legislative Assembly and his mammoth emporium in Brisbane is one of the sights and the largest of its kind in all Australia.

After a brief illness Mr. George Forde, Lower Abbeygate street, Galway, died on Sunday, deeply regretted. The deceased was well liked by all with whom he came in contact. Engaged since the death of his father in the cabinet-making and upholstering business, he worked with great energy for the welfare of his family.

LEITRIM.

The national cause is having the generous and continuous support of the good men and true in the county. Quite a number of branches of the L N. F., exist, and many other patriotic associations also.

MATO.

The patriotic people of Castlebar celebrated with great enthusiasm the anniversary of the first rising of the United Irishmen in 1798 by parading the town with the band playing national airs and having in regular array of four deep a large number of lighted torches. An immense crowd accompanied the procession, and after marching through all the various streets the immense concourse proceeded to the residence of Dr. D'Exeter Jordan, from the steps of whose house the large procession, after repeated calls, was addressed in eloquent terms by Mr. James Daly, president for Connaught '98 Centenary celebration, and by Dr. D'Exeter Jordan, peacably to their homes

We regret to chronicle the death of Dr. Horkan, M. D., Ballycroy, which took place at the residence of his brother in-law, Mr. James Henehan, of the Square, Claremorris, on Monday, May 23. The high mass of requiem was celebrated on Wednesday at the parish church, Claremorris, Archdeacon Kilkenny, celebrant.

Mr. Michael Davitt, M. P., for South Mayo, recently visited Mr. William O'Brien at Mallow cottage, Westport, ROSCOMMON.

Most Rev. Dr. Clancy, Lord Bishop of Elphin, May 30 and 31 was engaged in the Catholic church, Ballymoe, ex. amining in the Christian Doctrine and administering the Sacrament of Confirmation to 800 children. On Tuesday he delivered a very elequent discourse and dwelt emphatically on the evils of intoxication. He recommended all present to join the temperance movement. A great many took the total abstinence pledge. The Bishop congratulated the priests of the parish of Ballintubber and Ballymoe on the great knowledge the children possessed of the Christian Doctrine. This was a source of satisfaction to the parish priests, the Rev. M. Hanly and Rev. James Martin. The clergy of the deanery of Castlerea attended.

On May 29 died Mrs. Maria Finnerty of Coolderry, aged 73. Deeply and widely regretted.

The death of Mrs. Rose Reilly. Dooslatta, occurred May 16, at the age of 61 years.

On Saturday Mr. Patrick Nellan, a respected merchant of Castlerea, di. d. at the age of 83 years. On Sunday evening the people, marching in processional order, bore the remains to the new church, where they remained during the night. On Monday morn. ing a solemn requiem mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of the deceased.

SLIGO.

A meeting of the Socey branch of the L. N. F. was held on Sunday. Mr. Patrick Clerkic, president, in the chair. A meeting was held on Sunday in Ballyrush for the purpose of celebratling the eve of the insurrection of 1798. After last mass Rev. Father Fallon introduced Father Galleny from Australia, who was cheered to the echo. He dwelt on the merits of the martyre 796 and urged the beoble to obpoly and to trample under disconsion. A pro-Markey tormed, hearted by the bands discoursing national airs, The members of '98 club and I. N. F. (wearing '98 emblems) to the number of 300 strong, marched four men deep, making a most impressive spectacle. Rev. Father Fallon entertained the members of the band. On Monday evening, after the surrounding district were illuminated with bonfires, a procession of 500 torch bearers, headed by the band, paraded the roads, and then marched to the Corrawn at Greyfort, where a bonfire was set ablazs.

LEINSTER.

CARLOW.

Died, May 15, at the Post office, Graigue, Ellen Bramrick, Bagnalstown, at an advanced age.

On May 15, at Castle street, Carlow died Michael Patterson, at the early age of 29 years. Interment was in John's Well cemetery; funeral was numerously attended.

DUBLIN.

The reception into religion of Miss Janie Ellis, daughter of Mr. J. Eilis, T. C., Oldcourt, Haroldscross, took place May 24, in the Presentation convent, Clondalkin. The Rt Rev. Dean Walsh, Kingstown, assisted by Very R v Father Baxter, Clondalkin, and the Rev. J. O'Byrne officiated. In religion Miss Ellis received the name of Sister Mary Conception.

Mr. William Field, M. P., presided at a recent meeting of the Independent party in Dublin, Mr. John Redmond was present, a. d said in connection with the Local Government bill, that its importance was that it enabled all classes in Ireland to join together in the government of the country for the common good.

Bridget Doherty of Swords, who had been on the outdoor relief list for a couple of years, died the other day. After her death £21 6s. 5 i. was found days is in ruins in the old graveyard concealed in her bed. The money has been impounded by the relieving officer of generations. The parish chapel with a view to the repayment to the now in use was a thatched building in to a man named Chambers, son-in-law guardians of the money paid deceased as outdoor relief.

at 142 Upper Abbey street, George than ±3,000 have been expended on it, Lawlor. May 28, at the Hospice for and ±3,000 more are required to fluish the Dying, Haroldscross, Mary Brophy, it, and R.v. Father Segrave, the rested down by a horse in Castle street, at an advanced age. May 30, at 101 spected pastor of Faughart, earnestry Macroom, last week, and sustained after which the large crowd retired Francis street, Philip Molloy, late 41 appeals to the public for assistance. fatal injuries. James street, aged 40 years. May 30, The prizes include many valuable ar- With much regret we record the O'Connell street, Clonmel, and Miss at 10 Upper Exchange street, Katio ticles, among them being the Pope's death, in the prime of life, of Mr. Pat- Agnes Mulqueen, Bank place, Tipper-Tierney, Parliament street. June 1, prize, a very valuable work of art, rick O'Shea, one of the most promilery, aged 17 years. at 2 Sandwich street, Mrs. Catherine solid silver casting, in honor of the nent and popular of Newmarket men. Deegan, June 1, at 35 Newmarket, Vatican Council. Joseph King, Cuffe street. June 1, at the Hospice for the Dying, Haroidecross, John Kinsella, late member of the Operative Plumbers' society, aged | meeting of the Kells Board of Guard-40 years. At 18 Henrietta street, Mrs. lans. On the board are G. Radeliffs, Eliza Bartley, for 27 years principal Samuel Hill, John Folliott, Farrell teacher, Abbeylaria, county Longford, Tully, Luke Lynch, Philip Reilly, B. May 29, at 10 Portobello harbor, William O'Dwyer, formerly of Cloumel. May 29, at 1 Hardwicke arch, John Quigley, aged 19 years. At Miltownpass, Peter Whelehan.

A most self sacrificing young Dublin priest, Father Michael Wade, passed away to his well-merited reward at les were availed of, and bands attendthe Gold coast, Africa, after laboring | ed from Maynooth, Drogheda, Athboy, successfully for some years in the Kilcock and Navan. African Mission society, inaugurated by the late Pope Pius IX., and which is represented in Ireland in the wellknown college of Wilton, near Cork city. The deceased was ordained for the home mission, but volunteered to carry the light of faith to this people Father Wade proved a zealous worker during life was most popular and his in the missionary field. He was only love of faith and of fatherland was 34 years of age, ten of which he had intense. He was father of Rev. J. been priest. The deceased was the Beauchamp, P. P., Borris, county Carvoungest son of Mr. C Wade, Lanne's low, and Rev. P. H. Beauchamp, pasat Belvidere college, Dublin. Having | ville, New York finished his theological course at Lyons, he went to Dahomey, next to the Gold coast, where he accomplished great works. Thence he went to Sierra Leone, Cape coast, Lagos, Elmina, Kivitta and lastly to Saltpond. His sole ambition was to extend the faith among the neglected of peoples. He was appointed chaplain to the English army in the recent Ashantee expedition, and was the first Catholic priest that ever entered Coomassie or celebrated mass in that land. He recently returned home on a collecting tour, and again left for his distant mission last August. His death was peaceful and happy.

KILDARE.

To commemorate the centenary of the '98 insurrection in Wexford, a torchlight procession and band parade was held through Leixlip. Rev. Father Flood acknowledged the compliment paid him by a visit from the band and procession by expressing sympathy with the very orderly celebrations, and counselled them to show their respect for the heroes of '98 by dispersing peaceably to their homes.

A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH

KILKENNY.

On Sunday the Leinster '98 championships were opened at Carlow under the most favorable conditions and before a large gathering of spectators.

The recent football match for the Leinster championship was played in Carlow, and resulted in victory for the Dublin team.

KINGS.

The dead body of Anna Anderson of Bracklone was found in the Grand canal near Lea castle, by some boys who were fishing. No explanation of the accident has been given.

LONGFORD.

F117a Bartley, principal teacher of Aboeylara, dled at 13 Henrietta street. Dublin, recently. Interment was in Glasnevin cemetery. Funeral was numerously attended. During 27 years deceased had been teacher in Abbeylara.

Died -At Riverstown, May 17, Annie Gurhy, R. L. C., Longford, at the early age of 25 years.

LOUTH.

Died May 31, at the R I. C Barrack, Stabannon, Sarah Anne Lally, April 30, at Sunnyside, Drogheda, Mary Josephine Simington. By drowning, through the sluking of steamship Benholm off Point Lyaus, on the night of May 14, John Shells, third engineer, aged 28 years.

A grand bazaar and drawing of prizes with the sanction of Cardinal Logue, will be held at Kilcurry, Dundalk, on September 25, 26, and 27 next to raise £3,000 to finish St. Bridgid's new church in the parish where she was born, Faughart, county Louth. Faughart, in the archdioceso of Armagh, is St. Brigid's birthplace, and the Archbishop has felt it a reproach to the parish and diocese that no fitting memorial marks such a spot. Her church of the reformation on Faughart Hill, guarding the dust penal days. It has since been reroofed and often repaired, but yet it is not a Recent deaths in Dublin.—May 31, worthy offering to St. Brigid. More hir. Chaloner presided at a recent Smith, Patrick Farrelly, T. P. Me-Kenna and Bryan Smith.

MEATH.

Sunday a great demonstration in celebration of the centenary of '98, took place on the historic Hill of Tara-Several special trains on the Midland and Great Northern Railway compan-

QUEEN'S.

death of Mr. Henry Beauchamp, Brittas, Mountmellick, formerly of Drummond House, Rosenallis, at the Wigmore. patriarchal age of 93 years. Deceased Water, Balbriggan, and was educated tor of St. Mary's church, Baldwins-

WESTMEATH.

During a procession in the church named Gaynor, of Ballinalack, somehow got her clother on fire, and would | Wynne, aged 18 years. On May 26, have suffered serious, if not fatal in-Father Skelly, who extinguished the hill Honora O'Driscoll. On May 22,

WEXFORD.

Sunday, May 22, a large and imposing meeting was held on Vinegar Hill in connection with the '98 center- May 25, at 5 Winter's hill, Patrick nial celebrations. The meeting was held in celebration of the capture of Enniscorthy and the fixing of their On May 19, at Crush, William Cashchief encampment on Vinegar Hill by the victorious insurgents on May 28,

The Enniscorthy Guardians last week passed this resolution: "That it is with extreme sorrow we have to express our deep regret for the unex-

The tenants of the Howlin estate Bantry. May 28, at St. Patrick's hosare about to purchase their holdings. pital, Wellington road, John Keating

The holdings are situated in Billygoman. Ballygerohigan. Taghmon. Knockmullen, Ballyminan, Cleariestown. The total amount of the affer i- £33,885 in land stock, equivalent at 1101/2 to £87,303 in cash.

WICKLOW.

On Sunday an enthusiastic demonstration took place on the Green of Duplavin, in commemoration of the men who fell in 98 on that historic spot. Dunlaven was the scene of two great incidents in the insurrection-The attack on Dunlavin barracks where the insurgents, poorly armed were driven back after several attempts to capture it, and second, the murder of 36 Catholic yeomen on the spot where the meeting was held. These men were sacrificed purely to religious bigotry. Two thousand persons were present, contingents being headed by the Crookstown, Cryhelp, Inchaquire and Brumal bands, playing patriotic tunes and bearing green banners.

MUNSTER.

CLARE.

On Monday nig t a meeting was held in Broadford to celebrate the centenary of the insurrection of '98. Five hundred persons took part in a torchlight procession, headed by the local fife and drum band. When the Fair Green was reached Mr. Martin Kennedy delivered an address. He stated he was a grandson to a pike-maker in '98. The sub-sheriff of Clare, Major F. G Cullinau lately carried out an eviction under unusual circumstances. The scene of operation was Deer Island. an island on the Lower Fergus, part | Was very active and in full possession of Lord Leconfield's estate. In order to reach the spot large boats were requisitioned which conveyed the sheriff and his staff of police. It had been anticipated there would be opposition, but the party landed without obstruction, and the eviction was quietly effected. The tenant di possessed was named Flynn. Possession was given of Flynn's, between whom and Flynn there had been litigation.

CORK.

Daniel Ring, Clondrohld, was knock-was celebrated in Militown lately, and | triots who "rose in dark and evil was characterized by the spirit of uationality for which the people have have taken the initiative in a movebeen remarkable. After the procession the people assembled in front of O'Callaghan's hotel, when Mr. O'Callaghan of Altamoust said: "We are here to celebrate the glorious anniversary of the historic movement of '98, when an unarmed peasantry rose against the might of England and almost smashed it."

Rt. Rev. Dr. Kelly, bishop of Killaloe, visited Clonakilty during the week and administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a great number of children from the districts of the town and Darrara,

On Sunday Most Rev. Dr. Browne, With deep regret we chronicie the bishop of Cloyne, visited Mallow, to hold his triennial visitation. He was accompanied by the Very Rev. Canon

Recent deaths in Cork.—On May 15, at 1 Glenbrook place, Thomas Somerville Murray. May 27, at Horsemount, John Kelleher, Carriguilla. On May 27, at 98 Barrack street, Mary Ellen Murphy, aged 40 years. May 26, at St. Patrick's hospital. Wellington road, John Keating, of Nile attest, aged 47 years. On May 31, at Lackmore, Macroom, Cornelius, son of Patrick O'Connell. May of Multyfarmham lately, a little girl 25, at 40 Quaker road, Mary Fennell, On May 19, at Drimoleague, Anne at 6 George's quay, Teresa Ann iuries, but for the prompt action of Reidy, Bandon. May 25, at Dublin at 41 Douglas street, Cork, Catherine Walsh, late of Fisher strect, Kinsale. On May 27, at 7 Lady's Well place, Honorah Forrest. May 26, at Ballymakea, Killeagh, John Ahern, On Twomey. On May 23, Francis Cottrell. Pouladuff road, aged 74 vea: man. On Map 31, at Kilcolman, Mary Orange. May 31, at Evergreen street. Rebecca Dowling. On May 25, at Mill street, Clonakilty, D. O'Learn, aged 71. On May 25, at Coolculatha. Ballinhassig, Julia Buckley. On May 25, at the South Fever hospital pected departure from among us, by Michael Wall, aged 67 years. May death, of a highly respected member 30, Mary Bartle, 6 Dublin hill, Blackof this board-Mr. John Daly-Dever- pool. On May 28, John Carroll, Ba!lincollig. May 28, Mary Henegan, of Nile street, aged 47 years. On May 26, Catherine Wallace,

KERRY.

The mackeral fisting along the coast of Kerry in Cahereween has progressed very favorably. The local yawls which and at the Glen and Portmagee had good hauls. The bulk of the fishing, however, has been confined to the deep-sea boats, which call at Valantia. The takes were abnormally heavy and not less than 2,000 per boat each night.

Dr. Paul Dillon, Killarney, died of fever May 31, deeply regretted. The Marquis of Lansdowne has been requested by the Committee for the andler of the Distress in Cahiroween to grant an abatement of rent What he will do is problematical Landsdowne has in his possession over 94,000 acres of land in this county, which were robbed from the laish people.

LIMERICK.

Patrick O'Connor, a respectable and industrious native of Ardagh, aged 65 years, fell from his cart when returning from Ballingarry, May 28. During 36 years he had carted turf into the town, and was well known. His death is much regretted.

John Donohue, Ballycullane, near Kilmallock, died suddenly recently While at work.

John O'Donnell, a workman employed by Mr. James Butler levers, Glenduff Castle, died May 30 at Newcastle West, at the patriarchal age of 101 years. Up to this year he ineleted on working with the men, and took part in saving the hay and corn. He of his faculties to the end, and never suffered from iliness of any kind. The day previous to his death he was at his usual employment. The interment took place at Kildysart. A large number attended the funeral.

On Monday last at Dunfoylan, Kills colman West, Mr. James O'Connor passed away after a rather brief illness. The remains were conveyed to the parish church, Kilcolman. A nutherous body of friends accompanied the relatives to testify their respect for the deceased.

TIPPELARY.

Among the recent deaths in the county were Mrs. Joseph Fagan,

Now, when the people of Ireland The centenary of the rising of 1798 are honoring the memory of the padays," the Nationalists of Clogheen ment to commemorate the virtues and patriotism of the Rev. Nicholas Sheehy, 'he patriot martyr of the penal days, by erecting a monument to transmit to future generations how brutal were the methods of "British civilization" in those evil days.

Most Rev. Dr. Croke was in Cashel last week, the guest of Very Rev. Dean Kinane. He is in the enjoyment of good health. He visited Rockwell sollege, accompanied by the Very Rev. Dean Kinane, and on appearing on the college grounds he received a nearty greeting. On Thursday he made his triennial visitation to the united parishes of New Inn and Knockgraffone, where he received a great ovation from the people, who or many miles crowded into the vilage of New Inn. He was the guest there of Father Power. During the lay he administered the sacrament of confirmation to four hundred children. He left in the evening for Cashel where he was the guest of the Very Rev. Dean until Sunday, when he visted Bansha to administered the sacrament of confirmation. He remained in Bansha over night with the Rev. Father Hayes, and visited Golden on

WATERFORD.

Very Rev. Thomas McGrath, P. P. V. F., Carrick-on-Suir, will succeed the ate Mgr. Byrne, P. P., V. G., as paster of Lismore. Father McGrath recently accompanied the bishop of Waterford to Rome and returned to Tipperary a lew days ago. The Rev. Father Power, P. P., Abbeyside, Dungarvan, will take Father McGrath's place as P. P. of Carriek-on-Suir.

Thomas Powers, aged 19 years, of Framdre, was drowned last week while bathing in the sea at Garrasur Strand.

ULSTER.

ANTRIM.

The Lord Edward Fitzgerald Band left their rooms in North Queen street to parade. The procession was most orderly and everything passed off in the most peaceable manner until Mil. field was reached. Here police were drawn up, and immediately the proc. selonists came along they drew their batons and, seemingly without any provocation, charged the crowd, which scattered in all directions.

The funeral of the late Mr. John McKenna, Cullingtree road, Belfast, took place last week and was numerously attended. Interment was in Miltown cemetery. The funeral of Mr. James MacCarthy, principal teacher of Hardinge street, National School, Belfast, took place on Sunday. Interment was in Milltown Cemetery. Behind the hearse walked pupils of Aardinge Street National School

ARMAGH.

On Monday a record congregation crowded St. Patrick's Cathedral, Armagh, the occasion being special devotion to Our Blessed Lady and the consecration of the parish to her. The Rosrry of the Blessed Virgin having been recited by Very Rev. Dominic O'Neill, C. P., and the congregation, the Very Rev. Mark Gavin, C. P. preach da special sermon on the dignity of the Mother of God and her great power of intercession with her Divine Son. The devotions concluded with Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The mission being conducted in the Cathedral by Fathers of the Passionate Order will

Mr. Robert Hamilton, Dowra, died May 31, aged 79 years, deeply and widely regretted.

DERRY

Mr. Rodger Connery presided at the recent meeting of the Lavery branch, I. N. F. The following resolutions were proposed by Mr. William John Convery, seconded by Mr. William Milliken and paseed unanimously. "First—That we renew our unabated allegiance and confidence in the Irish party as led by Mr. John Dillon. An Irish Parliament in College Green will alone satisfy Irishmen. Third-That we protest against any alliance between the United States and England until Ireland be restored her stolen l'arliament, and that we call on our friends and relatives in the American army to use their influence for the Jam : object. Fourth-That we wish to join in sympathy with the rest of the world towards Mrs. Gladstone and her sorrowing family on the death of her beloved husband, for the services he rendered to Ireland." Daniel Murphy. William Convery and John Convery delivered short, but eloquent and forcible addresses.

DONEGAL '

The Nationalists of Bundoran a few days ago commemorated the centenary of the heroic and historic effort to sunder the yoke of England on Ireland. From Gorman's, up Summerhill, all the houses were illuminated. To a late hour promenading, patriotic music and national songs were the order, and this was indulged in as far as the West End.

FERMANAGH.

Patrick Treacy, who left Aughoo about 1864, for Australia, and who is supposed to be somewhere on the Pacific slope, is sought after by his friends in Ireland. His cousin, Peter Cosgrove would be pleased to learn of his whereabouts.

MONAGHAN.

Under the auspices of the Monaghan national school teachers' association a public meeting was held in the Town hall, Monaghan, to protest against the treasury withholding £95,-000 arrears of free grant due, and also against the new pension rules,

Monday night a great demonstration was held in Monaghan to commemorate the centenary of the Irish rising of 1798. At an early hour the members of the Monaghan Dhearing McKenna '98 club and friends assembled in Glasslough street.

TYRONE.

Mrs. Smith of the wooien mills, Caledon, died May 81.

A tenants' defense association meeting was held on Sunday, May 22. It was thoroughly representative of all creeds and classes. The school grounds at Carrickmore was the scene of action. The chair was occupied by the Rev. Father McDonnell, who dwelt on the necessity of such an organization. He was followed by the Rev. Father Donnelly, who forcibly impressed upon the people the benefit arrising from defensive combination to check the systematic exaction of rent, and the necessity of securing the right of purchasing their holdings, which alone can put an end to the land war.

A magnificent open air meeting of the Nationalists of Tyrone, Antrim and Armagh, in commemoration of the '98 martyrs, was held Sunday in Cookstown. In point of numbers and enthusiasm the demonstration was one of the best ever held in Uister.

a sai migh the r that the t of th

votic

abou

deed

they side

again

Swit

hand

Fren

visio

quer

Fran

can i coun

in b

the I

burn

upon woma but al Dec. 1 ances from she v four y more weekl

broke societ:

circula She m vision broug id sol time : work; the re could short : she re her pl ·and is and be

The :

selves

on In to esta The cl the me histori tribe. offered mond Austria of all during picture name. subject taking Lady Drume bought braver; populai The pi ish boy are not requiri Que The (al disti admira rank in pointm the late

the ran Mme. the age victims Nepole twentyeach in