Vol. IX, No. 46,

Rochester, N. Y. Saturday, August 13, 1898.

SLOC per Year 30 per Col

HEROINE OF CHARITY AROUND THE GLOBE.

WHAT THE CHURCH IS DOING IN THIS AND OTHER CONTINENTS.

Many items of General Interest That Will be Appreciated by Our Readers.

Cardinal Moran has stated that he will probably visit Rome next year.

olic Church in Paris, his sister, Mrs. must atone for his crime." Walter Shields, of New York, also A low cry broke from the lips of embraced the faith.

Corrigan was present.

Here is another evidence, we sup-Church, as its enemies assert, opposes priests and people. A new annotated edition of the whole Bible is being prepared by one of the professors of the Catholic Institute of Paris. This edition will present the Old Testament in unknown book in Catholic France.

It is not generally known that in

[Continued from last week.] 'Never mind,'' said the sheriff in a tone of impatience, "I know what you have come for, but it is of no use, for A Paris correspondent states that ten the evidence is so strong against that days previous to the reception of Rev. youthful assassin that we all know Joseph Spencer Turner into the Cath- him to be guilty, and to-morrow he

BY MARY ROWENA COTTER.

Anthor of ' The Two Cousins,"

CHAPTER II.

Inez' companion whom the sheriff had

It is proposed to honor in a twofold not noticed before. "The man whom way the late Father Anthony Kes. you call the assassin," she exclaimed. seler, who met his death in the Bour. "is my brother. He shall not die, for gogne disaster on July 4. The plan is he is innocent of the crime you accuse to erect two marble statutes of the him of, and I have come to prove it." brave priest, one to be placed in St. The sheriff looked up in amaze-Joseph's Church, at One Hundred and ment and said: "You his sister? Twenty-fifth street and Columbus ave- who are you, and whence did you nue, New York, where he labored so come? Tell me why your brother has faithfully for more than thirty years, acted so strangely in refusing to anand the other in the adjoining school swer any questions about himself. I house. In addition, a memorial serv. shall be glad if you can prove that he ice was held in St. Joseph's on Thurs. is not guilty, for no one regrets to see day, August 4, at which Archbishop him executed more than I, but bear in mind it will be a very difficult thing made about her.

for you to do, as the evidence against pose, of the fact that the Catholic him is verystrong, and we do not want you meddling with the case unless you and set about once more to find the murthe study of the Scriptures by its have the strongest proofs. Now let derer, and after working for some me hear your story."

The girleaid that she and two brothers were the only children of a once wealthy family, but her father had recently lost the greater part of his propthe Hebrew, Septuagint, Vulgate and erty and died leaving them almost French text, and give the New Testa- penniless, but his poverty was not derer captured and punished to the and also for a delegation from St. ment and the deutero canonical books known to the world. Her elder full extent of the law; then remember. Bridget's parish where Dr. O'Hare in Greek, Latin and French, and the brother had joined the British army ing her promise to the dying that she formerly officiated as rootor. The Pope has, moreover, given the enter. and only the younger one was left to would forgive him, and never appear family included Dr. Thomas A: prise his special sanction. Carry the support her. Since her father's death against him, she would pray that he O'Hare and family of this city, John This part of Father O'Hare's carreer, tidings to the MoAll Mission, which so often declares that the Bible is an Town of Hare of Cil City Pa, and Mission How which the bible is an Town of the How which and the How which the bound of the Cilico Cil City Pa, and Mission to the bound of the Cilico Cil the world and to support himself and see the murderer captured in order to Portugal St. Anthony of Padua enjoys help his sister whom he did not wish more fully prove the innocence of him military honors and has enjoyed them for almost two centuries. In 1706, aunt, had gone to Torrence to work villagers still hung. on the eve of battle, John V., in order where he was unknown and where he to encourage his troops, enrolled St. where ne was unknown and where ne the same honors which were paid to about a quarter of a mile from the vil- have justice done, and wished to re mas eve he met his aunt's coachman Sarsdale, who seemed very anxious to Catholic Benevolent Association, the the flag to be also paid to his statute, lage and drove to her home where he main near Torrence until that wish tion and the Ladies' Catholic Benev. which was borne aloft amid the con-intended spending Christmas and was could be gratified; but to his great re-A few min to return to Torrence the week after. gret he was called to the continent a very curious document John VI., On Christmas eve he was taken se- quite unexpectedly, and did not re- priests began the chant of the office of the document for the observers wars Rev. verely ill and was not able to leave turn for three years. His last words the dead. The chanters were Rev. his room until a few days before his in bidding Lord Ashleigh good-bye return to Torrence. He had heard were that he hoped soon to hear that and Rev. Dr. Emil Gefell of the nothing of the murder until he was the mystery had been solved, and the Cathedral. The solemn words of the arrested for it. His sister did not crime avenged. His Eminence Cardinal Rampolia learn of his imprisonment until this When he returned the mystery was sung by the choristers and responded presented the Vatican Basilica with afternoon when Inez drove to her still as deep as when he went away; what may well be described as a aunt's home, and after breaking to but it had almost passed into oblivion, princely gift. It consists of a sum of her as gently as she could the news of now being seldom thought of, exceptone hundred thousand lire, £4,000, her brother's sad misfortune that ing by those most interested in it, and there were many wet eyes before which His Eminence sent to the two brought her to Torrence, but refrained even they had little or nothing to say the last "amen" was chanted. camerlenghi of the basilica, Mgr. Co- from telling her that he had been con- concerning it. stantini and Mgr. Misciatelli, together demned to die until they reached the village. The young man had resolved at sion as unexpectedly as he had gone first to keep his identity from every away three years before. He received mass. should be spent in the acquisition and one but would have told who he was a warm welcome from Lord Ashleigh, restoration of sacred vestments and when he received his sentence had not who told him he hoped he had come precious ornaments for the basilica. the evidence been so strong against to make them a long visit after so long The whole Vatican Chapter waited on him that he felt it would be of an absence; but as he had not yet seen the Cardinal last week to thank him no use now, and if he must die his mother, who was away from home for one of the most generous gifts that he would die unknown. When Inez when he stopped in London, he rehas ever been made to the basilica, came to him she with the others mained only two days but promised to where Kings and Emperors have thought him guilty, and she wished, return after a short visit to his home. brought their offerings through so by telling him of Walter's forgiveness, to draw him to repentance. She, the met at the mansion on his arrival, and Preparations are being made to en- one above all others who should have he was greatly surprised to find how occupied a throne at the side of the large the Church of St. Benedict the despised him, was the first one to show changed she was. No longer the altar and was attended by Rev. J. J. the Moor, in West Fifty-third street, him any kindness, so after denying happy, light-hearted society belle of between Eighth and Ninth avenues, the charge to her, he told her his story, three years ago, but a broken hearted and Rev. J. Bloomer of Elmira. New York, one of the few churches and so earnest was he in the recital of woman whom he soon learned lived for colored Catholics in the country. it that he at once excited her sym- no more for herself, but for the good The congregation under Father J. E. pathy and she begged him to tell the she could do for those around her. Burke, formerly worshiped in the authorities, but he refused, saying he Her friends were the poor and the but finding most of its number ousted "If they knew who your friends for the company of those in better cir. a glowing eulogy of Father O'Hare: Sacred Heart' by Mr. Predmore, in August, 18 by the Hebrews and Italians, followed were, and where to find them," she cumstances. She spent more time now the major portion to the Fifty-third argued, "I am certain they would in their cottages than in her own street locotion. Its present edifice was visit them, and learn from them that home, helping the peasants in their purchased from the Second Church of the Evangelical association of America (German) for $30,000, and was taken possession of by St. Benedict's on May 31. Father Burke estimates the col-to drive such a distance on that ored population of the neighborhood stormy night, and reach home before relieving for a few hours the tired at about three thousand. He said midnight. I believe we were the only watchers who had been with them all has but gone to his reward, the reward members of Immaculate Conception descon, Bey, Pather recently that he was so confident of ones who were out in the country that day. It was from her lips that many of fifty odd years of blameless life, the congregation. They were John Jagan mire as antidence the growth of his congregation that he night, for but few would have dared an afflicted one received sweet words reward due to such whole souled serv. William McDonald, Thomas Branni- Kiernall, as many bad ordered plans by which the seat to from the the seat of the the seat of the had ordered plans by which the seat- to face the storm. You see if I tell of consolation when death or sorrow ice for the Master. The loss is ours, gan, Michael Howe, Bernard Logan Very Rev ing capacity of the present building who I am there is little chance of my entered their homes, and they always The loss to his relatives is great. The and Dennis Sullivan will be doubled. Work will begin at being saved; and if I die, it will be to accepted them with gratitude, know. loss to me is beyond the power of exonce and finished in the fall, and this leave a stain upon my family name. ing that they came from a sympathiz. pression. His loss to this diocease is down the main sisle of the church. in spite of the fact that there are three No, it is better that I should remain ing and contrite heart. How eagerly almost a calamity. His loss to his and Father O'Hare left for the last His is the northernmost of the two churches of its kind in this country, the next being at Philadelphia, and there are no others north of Washing-the mater after he was dead, and told there are no others north of Washingher the way to her sunt's home. He superior to them in education, wealth, handed heraletter, charging her not to and all worldly goods. let anyone know she had it, and not to Easy to take, easy to operate; reliable, deliver it until after his death. She hurried from the prison, and going home, ordered the coachman to see REV. O'HARE AT REST. that her favorite pony was ready for her directly after noon, as she wished to drive out alone in the country. She took the road laid out to her by the prisoner, and after what seemed to her a very long drive, at last reached his aunt's home, and it was from there she had just now returned. The prisoner sat alone in his cell in the morning awaiting his summons to the executioner's block, when he heard people began to gather at the church footsteps in the hall. For the first to pay their tast months been their feeling of dread came over him, for he now felt that the time had come for him to die alone and he would never again see his dear sister, but soon his dread was turned to happiness by the announcement that he was to have a new trial in a few days. The result of the trial was that his innocence was proved, and after thanking Inez for the venerable Bishop McQuaid, who saving his life he returned with his sister to his aunt's home. Inez was now pronounced the he roine of the village, and those who had scorned her only a short time before now honored her for her nobility in saving the life of the accused, and it was with a feeling of shame that they and the hands clasping in silent death recalled the bitter remarks they had

Catholic

London were again recalled to Torrence chausable, embroidered in gold with and set about once more to find the murtime without finding any clues, at last gave up search as fruitless. Inez. from the first, had been kept in a state of fear and anxiety as she silently watched the work of the officers. She almost longed at times, to see the mur-

FUNERAL SERVICES AT INMACU LATE CONCEPTION OF URCH.

Eulogy by Bishop McQuaid-As Immen Concourse of People Present +

At an early hour Tuesday morning father and friend in all their troubles. By 7 o'clock there was a large number there and by 8 o'clock the large edifice was completely filled. The church, with its heavy trimmings of black and white, the assembled priests and bishops of the Catholic church from this and other dioceses, sat upon his throne bowed down with grief, and the vast concourse of people who chanted the responses with sobbroken voices, all bore eloquent witness to the general sorrow. The casket rested in front of the sanctuary, the head toward the altar me not to send him there. It is my discus. the crucifix. The body was arrayed own parish where I was brought up. in full priestly vestments, black cas-The detectives who had returned to sack, velvet stole and purple velvet he said; the people know me and have no confidence in me." But when I commanded he obeyed instantly and intense pain which Father O'Hare the church and had performed a won-derful work there, I told my people had experienced in his brief illness, Seats were reserved in the forward of the Cathedral from the pulpit, that portion of the church for the family of there was nothing in the diocess of the deceased priest, the Sisters of Rochester that Father O' Hare would Charity, Sisters de Notre Dame, Siscommand that I would not give." ters of St. Joseph and Sisters of Meroy O'Hare's going to the Immaculate Conception parish and of his insistence of the necessity of ample school room for every t scholic obild in the period, amail village about inteen miles from Torrence. Her younger brother wishing to hide their poverty from lease of the accused man she hoped to get's included M. Angelo Stupp, Al-the of mind. He preised his ability is it further descent the second man she hoped to get's included M. Angelo Stupp, Al-brethren. The loss of Father O'Hare King, assisted by the detail of pal to the cause of Christian education was in charge of Lieutewant Forthe great. His aim was to give a Christian managed the great or and admirably education to every Christian child. The cortege, which was a very he Bishop McQuaid told an incident one, proceeded down Plymouth which illustrated this phase of Father nue through West Main streat O'Hare's character. He was visiting Fitzhugh street, to Church, to Sa a brother priest and had been shown to Lake avenue, to Holy Sepula through a magnificent church free Cemetery. Many people book the line from debt. The parochial residence of special cars which were waiting a was large and elegantly furnished, the corner of Edinburg and Exchange The grounds surrounding the church streets and proceeded that way in and house were spacious and well rematory. Here the body was laid kept. After being shown all these rest beside Dr. O'Hare's father, the and learning that they were practically late Michael O'Hare of this city, in free from debt, he asked where the the family lot near the antrance of the school was. On being told that there beautiful "Acre of God."

omrail.

was none he boldly told the prices. Among those present at the funeral that he would be afraid to go down in services wares. Rt. Rev. James Gate his grave with the stain of having a ley, Buffalo: Rf. Rev. P. A. Ludden. Christian parish and no Christian Syracuse: Rt. Rev. T. M. A. Burkes. school. Resuming the Bishop said: Albany; Chancellor O'Laughlin a "Ordained pricet, he was a pricet the archdiopens of Philadelphia; Bat in every sense of the word from that Father Swift of Trov, Vicar General day 29 years ago until the day he of the Diocese of Albany; Monsignor-died. My hardest work was given to Mooney, Vicar Ganeral of the Armie him. He had built the Church of St. discuss of New York; Very Rev. In Bridget's across the river and I wanted P. McHale, Rector of the Niagner him to take up the work at the 1 athe-University; Very Rev. Deen Parnyie dral. He objected at first, begging Newburg, and all the pricess

IN MERICORYAN.

At a special meating of Pather Ma Council, No. 105, Cathelic Waman's B when he had lifted the entire debt from cleat Legion, the solid > Whereas, Divine Provid his pleasure to remove fr eleved and reverad percer. Rev. O'Hant. D. D. V. G.; and

Whereas, By this beener lost one whose afforts more The speaker here told of Father interests of religion, a in meeline, a trown Wei Resolved, They will of Mins, "Who has already been told, and the Bishop we will a star to but added to its praise. 'He spoke of manufactor of ble a tenant colonel of infantry and decreed that his salary be distributed among the poor.

On the feast of SS. Peter and Paul with a letter in which the donor ex. pressed the wish that the interest of bhat sum, viz., 5,000 lire a year, many centuries.

church at Bleeker and Downing streets knew it would be useless. the same street and within two blocks.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills. sure. - 25c.

It was early in the month of March that Sir Edward arrived at the man-Inez was one of the first persons he needy, while she seemed to care not

To be continued.]

Subscribe for THE JOURNAL

Lennon, Robert J. Lennon, John O. Fee, John Nelligan and Mr. Holihan. There were delegations from Roches-

Leopold Hofschneider of St. Michael's to by the priests was impressive. The words seemed to come to the people

The full choir of the Immeculate Conception Church, assisted by many singers from the other Catholic choirs of the city, rendered Lutz's requien

Then followed the solemn requiem mass, Very Rev. Mgr. H. De Regge of the Cathedral, Chancellor of the diocese, being celebrant. Rev. James P. Kiernan of St. Mary's was deapon did not need them no good work could and Rev. William F. Glesson of the goastray. He expressed his sympathy Immaculate Conception Church as ised to send them a successor to Pather the novice in was Rev. A. A. Hughes of St. Patrick's Cathedral. Bishop McQuaid steps.

being the prop of the father's old age. . The bearers then advanced and look school of that size

"His death is no loss to him. He and specially his judgment, to which he himself had often deferred. He had done his whole duty as he may it and that was all

"Once," continued the Binh when I had failed to follow his ad rice and had come out all right he came to me and said, Well, after all, you were right. He did not seem to feel just right until he had soknowl. edged that I had seen further abend lowing rea than he had. At other times I yielded to his judgment and was glad." It was during this portion of his address that the Bishop was more partionlarly affected. And priests and people wept with him. There was hardly a dry eye in the whole memorylage. It was one of the most affecting scenes over witnessed in this city.

In conclusion the Bishop spoke of In conclusion the Bishop spoke of Resolved, Tase the his own sorrow, saying he was almost O'Har the comment of ready to give up his work. But the knowledge that there was work to do and that it would be to desert his work to do and that it would be to desert his rask he would continue. His confidence in his priesthood, most of them reared under his own eye, was great and helped him. He called upon priceis, and nums to remember the dead in their prayers, saying that if she dead O'Hare who would walk in his foot-

After the Bishop had pronounced dent of the the words of absolution, the hymn sity where h "Liberers me Dominie" was sung by Margares Of the choir under the direction of Wil- was a graduate Bishops Ludden, Burke and Quigley also occupied sents in the sanctuary, After mass Bishop McQuaid slowly advanced to the altar rail, and in a voice stirred with emotion pronounced Stapleton. "A Message from the Bister Agneta "I feel like an old man whose son The Polyhymnians also sang Cardinal year Sister Agn gone to death had given promise of Newman's "Lead Kindly Light." At Elmina in S did these poor people look for her brother priests who could always find time the sanctuary which was so of Charit That day he received his sentence, visits, which seemed to bring a ray of in him a just and true counsellor is in dear to him, and in which he had won hospital in hood: He spoke of Father O'Hare's and was followed by the friends and reluctance to disseminate scandal by relating stories of the difficulties of dington, John Connors, Charles brother priests. The broad mantie Maloy, J. P. Henry, Frank Comm of charity covered the failings of Bernard D. Holloran and anime I.

English. The honorary bearers were mass with Rev. Thomas

midet by death our Resolved, That mission bo the will in calling to su many years of la and because to the

----A PLACE BOX

died on Saturday

oonvent.

