Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters

ST BRIDGET'S

The members of the congregation had the pleasure last Sunday of listening to a sermon from Rt. Rev. Bishop Haid, who gave such a successful mission at the church one year ago. Bishop Haid is always a welcome visitor to St. Bridget's. He will conduct the retreat for the priests of the diocese at St. Bernard's during the coming week.

A requiem high mass was celebrated last Monday for Mrs. Anna Kane.

Rev. Father Hendrick was the happy recipient of a check for five hundred dollars to be applied towards the decorating of the interior of the church. The generous donor, in his modesty, wishes his name withheld. He is entitled to the appreciation of pastor and people.

The work on the improvement of the church is rapidly progressing. The steam heating apparatus is about completed and the painting of the exterior will be finished this week. The electric wires will be strung through the church before the interior work is commenced.

Rev. Father Bresnahan has met with great success in his canvas of the parish. Sixteen hundred dollars have been subscribed and there are still one hundred and twenty-five families to be called upon. It is expected that the amount of two thousand will be reached. The improvements are necessary and the congregation is requested to make an extreme effort to place the church and its surroundings in a perfect condition.

Next Sunday evening, Aug. 28th, at 7.45, Rt. Rev. Bishop Haid will bless the new altar and statue of St. Anthony. He will also bless, with great indulgence, the medal of St. Anthony. After the services they will be distributed to all present. The choir, under the direction of Miss Moran, will render some special music for the occasion.

Miss Anna E. Hogan is spending this week in New York.

Miss Mary Clancy has returned from a two week's visit to Warsaw.

Master Fred Rauber is enjoying a two weeks outing at Cayuga lake.

Mrs. M. Clancy and daughter Nellie of Hand street, and Misses Mary and Celia Ryan of Charlotte street, spent last Sunday at Warsaw.

There will be no week-day masses during the coming week on account of the priest's retreat. Sick calls will be attended from St. Mary's church.

Misses M. and R. Watson of N. St. Paul street, and their cousins the Misses Watson of New York, have returned from a visit to Niagara Falls.

Miss Elizabeth Nolan and her sister, Charlotte spent two weeks with their sister, Mrs. C. E. Harned, at Conesus lake.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McMahon of 600 Plymouth avenue, spent Saturday in New York and viewed Admiral Sampson's warships steam over the Hudson. They passed as follows, viz.: First, the New York; second, Brooklyn; third, Iowa; fourth, Massachusetts; fifth, Indiana; sixth, Oregon; seventh, Texas. From the moment the pennant of Admiral Sampson moved past Forts Hamilton and Wadsworth until the warships reached Grant's tomb the shores smoked and roared with double salutes, for both forts and field batteries fired national salutes. After the ceremonies at Grant's tomb the ships were returned to anchorage at Tomkinsville. A navy tug ran alongside Admiral Sampson's flagship as it halted off Tompkinsville, and the president's cabinet, who were on board, as soon as the gangway was lowered, went aboard the flagship to greet Admiral Sampson, as President McKinley was not able to attend. Secretary Alger was the first to go on board. He not only shook Admiral Sampson's hand but embraced him. Secretary of the Treasury Gage, Secretary of the Interior Bliss, Postmaster General Smith, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and Attorney General Griggs then surrounded the admiral and showered congratulations upon him. Then Mayor Van Wyck of New York and a special committee went aboard and extended the freedom of the city to the heroes of the war. A tug followed bearing the brother of our president, Abner McKinley. The crowds on the New York shore were beyond enumeration. Men, women and children stood on the pier heads, on scows, on canal boats, rafts, boat houses, steamers at wharf, ferry houses, oyster boats, tugs, railroad floats, cat boats, tenders—everything that would bear human weight.

It was a magnificent spectacle. The voyage from Cuban waters had ended. The North Atlantic squadron had come to place its wreath of victory on Grant's tomb—the homage of the living to the dead.
