Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters

ST. ANDREW'S

Archbishop Williams of Boston, will be the guest of Father Hendrick during our Right Rev. Bishop's jubilee.

Beginning with next Sunday the first mass will be at 7.30 until further notice.

A Month's Mind mass was offered last Monday morning for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Canty.

Father Hendrick is one of a committee of five to prepare a programme for a fitting celebration of our Bishop's jubilee. Extensive preparation are being made to have everything worthy of the occasion.

The choir is being re-organized. Any young lady or gentleman capable of being a member and desiring to join the choir will please report to the directress, Miss Fannie Moran. Those whom the Lord has blessed with good voices should be desirous of using them in singing His praises.

Miss Lillian Dowling, former member of the choir, has accepted a position in kindergarten work at Syracuse. We wish her success in her undertaking.

Mrs. Mertz of Martin street, mother of C. F. Mertz, is seriously ill.

Miss Christine Galvin of Evergreen street, is a pupil of the Sacred Heart convent this year.

Daniel O'Rourke, for many years a member of the choir, has gone to New York to accept a position there.

We are grieved to announce the serious illness of Mrs. E. B. McGowan of Buffalo, Sup. Pres. L. C. B. A. Her speedy recovery is anxiously looked for.

Mr. P. J. Kenney, member of our choir, is a member of the local opera recently started here.

The preliminary meeting of the Cardinal Newman Reading Circle will be held Monday evening Oct. 3rd. A program for the coming winter will be discussed. All the members are requested to attend.

The meetings of the pedro club "Sixteen," will be resumed early in October. The first meeting will be held at the residence of the president, Mrs. W. F. Rampe, Almiria street.

The donation of an altar for St. Joseph's new statue is being seriously considered by two lady members of the congregation.

CORPUS CHRISTI

The many friends of Brother Geo. F. Poinan will be surprised as well as pleased to know that he has again entered college at Cincinnati, Ohio, for the purpose of finishing a course of study preparatory to entering the priesthood. Brother Poinan has for many years held the office of recording secretary in Branch 139 C. M. B. A., and by his untiring efforts the business of that office was always conducted in a manner that reflected great credit on the incumbent. The Brothers of Branch 139 will feel the loss of Brother Poinan as an officer and a congenial companion but every member wishes him every success in his calling.

Miss Ella N. Corbett died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Hicks, No. 134 Scio street, on the 25th inst. The funeral took place Tuesday morning at 8.30 o'clock from the house and 9 o'clock from Corpus Christi church, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends.

Miss Catherine T. Eagan and James McGuire were married at this church Thursday evening by Rev. Father Leary. Miss Anna A. Eagan, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and William McParney was best man. Mr. and Mrs. McGuire will reside at No. 9 Lawrence street.

HOLY FAMILY.

A pretty wedding ceremony took place Wednesday morning at the church of the Holy Family, corner Jay and Ames streets. The contracting parties Miss Lanora Kircher and Mr. Joseph Bertsch. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Dietrich Laurens before a large assemblage of friends and relatives. Mr. Jos. Kircher acted as best man and Miss Kittie Bertsch attended the bride. The ushers were Messrs. Frank Kook and Jacob Collet. The flower girls were Misses Marie Stephany and Genevieve Albrecht. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the residence of the bride.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Ella, daughter of John S. Burns, has left for Clearfield, Pa., where she will take up her studies with her aunt, Sister M. Hilda, at St. Francis Convent.

A requiem high mass was sung in this church Tuesday, for the repose of the soul of Rev. Father O'Hare, late member of the Rosary Society.

The school children who have not yet received their first communion, went to confession Tuesday and Wednesday morning.

J. M. Reddington of 57 Waverly place, spent this week visiting the coal mines of Pennsylvania.

Among the Normal Teacher's training class of this city are enrolled as students Misses Lois Dowling, Mary Donnelly, and Marie R. Connor.

MARRIED IN CANADICE.

At St. Michael's church in Canadice Wednesday took place the marriage of Walter F. Ashe, of West Bloomfield, formerly an instructor in the State Industrial school, of Rochester, to Miss Jennie E. Ross, of Canadice. Rev. Father Garvey performed the ceremony. Miss Fannie Leason, of Honeoye Falls, was bridesmaid and S. Mahaney, of Rochester, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashe left immediately after the ceremony for New York city. Mr. Ashe is traveling salesman for a Baltimore house.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Ernest Roebler, the Champion Wrestler of the World will be the attraction at the Academy on Monday for three nights.

"Finnigan's Ball" is the title of the uproarious farce which will appear at the Academy of Music Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

COOK'S.

In offering Miss Laura Burt as the feature card of the splendid Vaudeville at Cook Opera House the coming week, Manager J. H. More is proving his promise to give the Rochester people the very best of high class vaudeville. Laura Burt has been and is today, one of the recognized leading actresses of America. She has been classed with "Lotta," Annie P. Key and Fannie Ross, and her work as "June" in Blue Jeans, and "Madge" in "Old Kentucky" certainly warrants the comparison. Miss Burt will present a unique specialty, giving imitations of Balva Lookwood in addition to her banjo solos, songs and dances. The Biograph will have a lot of new pictures, and one especially is of extra interest. A panoramic view of Conway, England—showing old ruins, castles, etc., all of historical importance. The picture of Company H. will be run one more week, and friends of the soldiers can easily recognize them as they pass on the mimic battle-field. Howells and Bowers, Travesty comedians, "Goldwin" the magician, Scott and Wilson, acrobats, LaBorte Sisters, vocalists and Enoch the water expert, go to make up a very attractive array of Vaudeville entertainers. Matinees every afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m.

SOCIETY NEWS.

WHEN—THEN—AND NOW.

When the golden sun is sinking,
When time steals our years away,
When we of the past are thinking,
When youth's smiles have passed away—
When every joy that heaven may send,
When wealth and kind of pleasure,
When health and love to thee, my friend,
When happiness without a measure—

Then in old age you'll recall—
Then think of days long past;
Then think of joyous hours and all,
Then see how all have passed.
Then with comfort and contented mind,
Then you can smile and bless the day—
That for yours the protection did find,
Then you will appreciate the C. M. B. A.

Now is the time—not to-morrow;
Now, not later on, my friend;
Now, for time you cannot borrow—
Now, and not at the end.
Now, and don't take any chances;
Now, if you want memory to stay;
Now, before old age advances—
Now you should join the C. M. B. A.

Fraternally, J. J. H., B. 31.

Council 25, C. R. & B. A., will give a progressive pedro party Monday evening Oct 10th in their rooms in the immaculate school hall, Edinburg street. They extend a cordial invitation to all the members and their friends of other sister councils, and promises them a most enjoyable time. It is hoped that every member who can, will be present on that occasion, for each one should try to take an active interest by attending the parties in order that success may attend the efforts of the committee in charge.

KNIGHTS OF ST. GEORGE.

The anniversary exercises of the Knights of St. George will be held tomorrow and will include a parade by the uniformed branch of the order at 10 a. m. under command of Colonel Fehlick. They will then proceed to St. Michael's church, where high mass will be celebrated.

PAY THE COLLECTOR.

Our city subscribers are receiving the annual call from our collectors. Kindly have the amount due ready when they call. Agents or collectors have no authority to stop the paper unless the amount due is paid up.

SOME THINGS TO KNOW.

Even the hardened locomotive has its tender part.

People who sit upon forms are apt to stand upon ceremonies.

A talkative person seldom fails to make one pneumatically tired.

Snuffing a candle increases the effect and diminishes the cause.

Men are like chickens—they always want to get on the highest roost.

How little man knows of his fellow-man—unless he lives in a village.

When some men bury the hatchet after quarrelling they go right out and dig up an ax.

Scorching is injurious physically—also financially if the policeman catches you.

The ball player who hits the most "balls" at night always hits the fewest in the next day's game.

The liquid voice of a woman would probably be more appreciated if she would occasionally turn off the flow.

It is always a severe strain on the angelic qualities of a woman when she has to use her wings to dust the furniture.

CULLED FROM ALL SIDES.

Savages, on the whole, live longer than civilized people.

Forty years ago the first missionary was eaten on the Fiji Islands.

Swallows have been met at sea more than 1,000 miles from any land.

In Costa Rica canary birds, bullfinches, and paroquets are special table dainties.

According to a German authority the human brain is composed of 300,000,000 nerve cells.

In the orange fields of New Zealand the crop has been known to net as high as $1,000 an acre.

Eight million pounds are computed to change hands in England yearly through betting on races.

Over 400 diamonds are known to have been recovered from the ruins of Babylon. Many are uncut, but most are polished on one or two sides.

Probably few people who visit London are aware that one of the most novel sights of the great city is that of the pigeons around the public buildings.

The British soldier has not always worn a red uniform. White was the prevailing color under Henry VIII., and dark green or russet in the time of Elizabeth.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The queen of Greece is the only woman admiral in the world.

When tea was first brought to England the leaves were eaten.

The Polar currents are said to contain less salt than those from the equator.

Britain requires a yearly supply of breadstuffs of about 30,000,000 quarters of wheat. She produces about 6,000,000 quarters.

The custom of keeping birthdays is many thousand years old. Pharaoh's birthday festivities are mentioned in the Pentateuch.

Berlin is one of the most cosmopolitan of European cities. Though it is the capital of Germany, only 37 per cent. of its inhabitants are Germans by birth.

The broad-headed horses are the cleverest. In the British household cavalry horses with broad foreheads learn their drill more rapidly than the others.

In Russia the proportionate number of births is nearly double that of France, while the German population increases faster than that of any other country.

TOLD BY FIGURES.

A caterpillar in the course of a month will devour 600 times its own weight in food.

There are found in both books of the bible 3,589,483 letters and 772,693 words.

Since the birth of Christ 4,000,000,000 men have been slain in battle.

If kept continuously running a watch will tick 160,144,000 times in a year.

Some scientists now hold that above the altitude of 12,000 feet from the sea level the temperature decreases about one degree for every rise of 350 feet.

The British government is the owner of over 25,000 camels. Several thousands are used in India to carry stores and equipment when companies are changing quarters by line of march.

The largest proportion of single persons is found in Ireland and Scotland and the smallest in the United States. In Ireland 67 per cent., in Scotland 65 per cent., but in the United States only 59 per cent. are in that condition.

METHODS OF AUTHORS.

Mrs. Browning generally wrote in bed.

Whittier and Longfellow were very methodical, always had their desks in perfect order and demanded utter quiet.

George Eliot generally wrote doubled up on a sofa, her feet curled under her, sofa pillows and a pad of paper on her lap.

Harriet Prescott Spofford writes anywhere—on her lap—meanwhile taking an animated part in the conversation going on about her.

Anthony Trollope always wrote standing up very straight at a high desk, with his watch before him, timing himself to a certain length of duty.

Walt Whitman could write anywhere. He has been seen writing on the edge of a newspaper in an omnibus, his elbow all the time joggled by the driver, quite serene and comfortable.
