Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters

ST. BRIDGET'S

Miss Mame Maloney of Woodbury street, has returned home after two month's visit with Miss Margaret Sweeney of Elmira.

Mr. Arthur Ennis of Hope street, was buried from this church Monday morning.

Miss Emily Stanton of North Clinton street, was buried Friday morning.

Mrs. Margaret Ragan, mother of Mrs. A. Powers of Woodward avenue, is dangerously ill.

The new St. Joseph's altar is erected and will be blessed, together with the statues next Sunday evening.

Mr. Hurtle has repainted the Stations of the Cross. They are greatly improved.

Mr. Meyers of Hand street has beautifully painted the adoring angels on the high altar.

A gentleman member of the congregation has kindly donated the stained glass window over the altar of the Sacred Heart.

The funeral of Morris Mulqueen of McDonald avenue, took place Wednesday morning.

Miss May Stupp and Miss Katherine Watson are soliciting subscription for St. Joseph's altar.

Miss May Fitzgerald has been assigned to the Kindergarten at No. 26 school.

Rev. James Kelly of Ovid celebrated mass at this church Tuesday morning.

The white antependium embroidered by the Sisters of the Visitation at Wellington, Del., has been received. It is exquisite in design, and embroidered in gold and purple.

The members of the Cardinal Newman Reading Circle have been successful in obtaining the promise of a lecture during the course this winter, from the Hon. J. M. E. O'Grady.

At the meeting of the Fort-nightly club, held at the home of Mrs. Thos. Galvin of Evergreen street, the first prize was won by Miss Jennie McShea, the second by Mrs. W. F. Kelly.

The new room that is being fitted up in the school house is more commodious than the one formerly occupied by the Reading Circle. It will be well ventilated, lighted by electricity, heated by steam and a door leading to the room will be opened on the west side of the school house. Those attending the lecture course will find better accommodations than heretofore. The room will be completed in November.

The Cardinal Newman Reading Circle will meet next Monday evening. The tickets for the course will be ready for distribution. They are one dollar for admittance to ten lectures and two fine musicals. Also entitling the holder to use of library. The first is a musical for the evening of Nov. 21st. Single admission of 15 cents will be charged at the door.

The souvenir, that was to have been distributed next Sunday evening, will be withheld till the statues of St. Bridget and St. Monica have been erected, as it will contain a picture of the interior of the church completed. The statues are expected to arrive from Munich before Christmas.

The formal opening of the church will take place to-morrow, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Although the improvements are not completed as the statues of St. Bridget and St. Monica have not been received and some alterations will be made when they will be placed over the side altars in the sanctuary. Solemn vespers will be sung by the choir under the directions of Miss Fannie Moran, who has prepared special music for the occasion. Our Right Rev. Bishop will deliver a sermon, followed by benediction of the most Blessed Sacrament. The Bishop will bless the altar and statues of St. Joseph. Tickets will be issued to all pew holders and subscribers to the improvement fund. Seatings will be reserved for those holding tickets till 7.45, after that time seats will be free to all who desire to come. The church has been completely renovated exteriorly and interiorly. The exterior has received three coats of red paint with light gray trimmings. The interior has been calomined and the walls beautifully decorated, steam heat has been added with improved railing and confessionals have been highly varnished, the floor oiled and covered with new matting, the steps leading to the sanctuary carpeted. The arches over the side altars have been improved and stained glass windows placed over the statues of the Sacred Heart and the Blessed Virgin, while the statues have been repainted and greatly improved. The church is lighted by electricity, the arches over each of the five altars being brilliantly lighted. A calvary scene has been erected over the high altar the cross being eight feet in height and the corpus six feet, with a view of the hill of Calvary in the rear. The adoring angels have been repainted, the sanctuary lamp regilded and the altars retouched. Many of the improvements and decorations are donations and have been mentioned heretofore. The idea of the improvement was suggested by the Silver Jubilee of Father Hendrick and great credit is due to Father Bresnahan for the amount realized. The congregation are to be congratulated upon the success of the undertaking. The work has not been accomplished without a great deal of forethought and arduous labor. We pray God's blessing may descend an hundred fold upon the parish and that priests and people may be spared to enjoy the fruits of their labor.

CATHEDRAL

Miss Mary Ellen Quinn and Francis E. Osiar were married at St. Patrick's cathedral Monday morning, by Rev. George Burns. Miss J. McNulty acted as bridesmaid and L. Wilson was best man. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. E. A. Osiar, No. 91 South Washington street. Mr. and Mrs. Osiar will reside at No. 221 Allen street.

Next Tuesday, the feast of All Saints, will be observed with the usual solemnity at the cathedral. The hours for masses will be 5.30, 7, and a solemn high mass at 9 o'clock. In the evening the regular vespers of the feast will be followed by the vespers for the dead and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The exercises will begin at 7.30 o'clock.

On Wednesday, the feast of "All Souls," there will be besides the regular morning masses a solemn requiem mass at 9 o'clock.

The executive committee of the Rochester Catholic Reading Circle are engaged in preparing a course of study for the winter's work. The date for the opening meeting of the circle will be announced in this column.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mahon of Glenwood avenue have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the loss of their little son, Norman Augustine, whose death occurred on the 25th inst.

ST. JOSEPH'S

Miss Agnes Klem, daughter of the late Bernard Klem, was united in marriage to Joseph H. Oberlies at this church Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock by Rev. C. J. O'Boyle, C. S. R. As the bride party entered the church the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Prof. Bauer. Mrs. Cecelia Meyerling Rampe sang several selections. The ushers were William Wiley of Albany, Alphonse Klem, jr., a brother of the bride, John W. Oberlies, a brother of the groom, and Eugene T. Fitzgibbon.

After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, No. 116 University avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Oberlies left on a wedding tour in the east. They will reside in a new home on University avenue on their return.

OUR LADY OF VICTORY.

The death of Mrs. Emma Hudon occurred suddenly Tuesday evening at the family residence, 64 West Main street, aged 58 years. Mrs. Hudon was apparently in good health until evening, when she became ill. A physician was summoned, but she was beyond assistance before he reached her. The cause of her death was Bright's disease. A large circle of friends will hear of her death with sincere regret. She is survived by her husband, Clement Hudon, and one son, Charles A. Hudon. The funeral was held Friday morning at 9 o'clock and was largely attended by relatives and friends.

The annual fair and bazaar will be held Thanksgiving week.

MR. PETER AND PAUL.

Jacob Webber died Monday at Belle Isle. His funeral took place Thursday morning from the residence of his brother, Officer Charles Webber, No. 22 Campbell street, and at 8.30 o'clock from the church.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Philip Furlong died Wednesday at Buffalo, aged 36 years. The remains were brought to this city and taken to his former home, 132 Frost avenue. The funeral took place from the house Friday morning at 8.30, and from the church at 9 o'clock.

ST. MONICA.

The fair given by the people of the Immaculate Conception parish to the people of St. Monica's parish will be held Thanksgiving week at Immaculate Conception school hall. Matrons will be held on Thanksgiving and Saturday afternoon for the children. Mrs. Judge Murphy will have charge of the K. of C. table, Mrs. O'Hara of the A. O. H. Table, Mrs. Jno. Lee of St. Monica's, Mrs. Brannigan, Mrs. Caring and Miss Kavanaugh of the Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. Powell and Miss Curran of the Father Meagher council of the C. W. B. L. table. A number of contests have been arranged for among which are the following: The first is for a set of ornaments donated by James Reynolds between Rev. Father Payne of Charlotte, and Rev. J. P. Brophy. Rev. Father Payne of Charlotte is having a fair the same week as Father Brophy and the money collected by the friends of each reverend gentleman will resort to their own fair. Jno. P. Smith and Wm. H. McDonald are contestants for a gold headed cane, Miss Miss Kane and Miss McMahon for a crayon picture of Rev. J. P. Brophy donated by E. Nier, and several of the boys are making an earnest effort to capture a bicycle. Other contests will be added later.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

William W. Sours and Miss Mary McDonough were married Tuesday afternoon at Corpus Christi church. Albert Sours was best man and Miss Lizzie McDonough was bridesmaid. Irene Brown and Edna Sours were flower girls. A reception followed the ceremony at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Sours.

Jacob Gerling.

A PROMINENT GERMAN-AMERICAN THE CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR.

JACOB GERLING, the Democratic nominee for Senator from the 4th District needs no introduction to the thousands of German speaking citizens of Rochester.

More than a quarter of a century he has been a well-known and respected business man, a heavy taxpayer and a man who assumed his share of the duties and privileges of a citizen.

Time and again he has been chosen by his neighbors to hold office in his own ward and the city at large.

As a member of the Executive Board, City Assessor and Alderman of the Eleventh Ward, his honesty, integrity and industry won for him the praise of his constituents.

Now, when the Democracy needs a standard bearer of more than ordinary ability, a man who is zealous for personal liberty and untrammeled elections, the name of JACOB GERLING is proposed for Senator.

The Raloes law with the many evils justly denounced as an immoral and unjust measure which seeks to dictate to the conscience of every man must be repealed.

Mr. Gerling is bitterly opposed to the Raloes law and if elected will work and vote for its repeal. This odious law which seeks to restrain every German from using his natural beverage except at such times and seasons as the leader directed, is a blow on the statute books and a direct insult to every German speaking citizen.

Let every man who believes in personal liberty go to the polls on November 5th and cast his ballot for Jacob Gerling and thus insure the election of a consistent Democrat, fearless, able and intelligent, who will devote his energies to properly guarding the interests of his district and those of the State at large.

The 44th District includes all the wards and towns of Monroe county west of the river and also the Eleventh Ward. Do not forget to see that your ballot bears the name of JACOB GERLING for State Senator.

AMUSEMENTS.

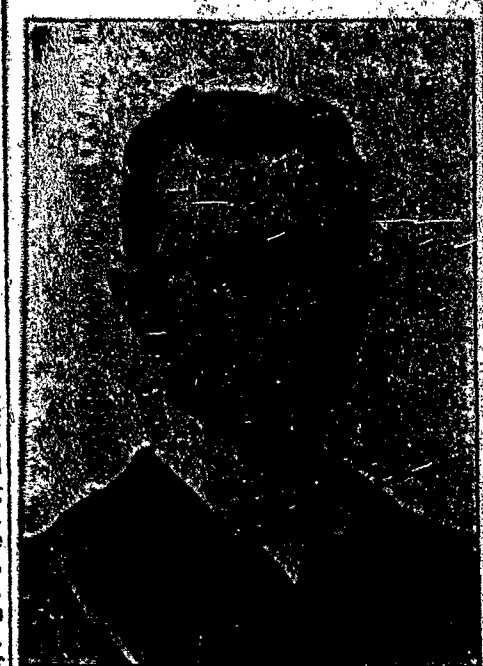

OOOK's. In the show which Manager J. H. Moore offers his patrons the coming week, it is difficult to pick out which is really the star, as they are all top notch vaudeville features, and any one of them could be easily taken as a star-act for many traveling companies charging as much as four times the price of admission asked at Oook's.

With such a bill it is hard to say all you care to about each act, so we just give their names and style of works in this space. Elida Thomas assisted by Frank Barry in imitations, character songs, etc. Wills and Loretto presenting their laughing suit the "The Tramp and the Gay Soubrette." Millie Eulalie, the clever dancer on her first American tour since her long engagement in London and Berlin. Pauline and Lewis made such a hit at Manager Moore's Wonderland last season that they were not production Prof. V. P. Wormwood with his wonderful trained animals and the great Zorros in their novel electric novelties complete the vaudeville portion of the bill. Of course there are lots of new and interesting Biograph pictures including a view of the Naval Parade showing all of Sampson's fleet on North river. Red Cross nurses at work on the battle field, Detroit Commandery Knight Templars during the Pittsburgh concert, General Alger, Joe Wheeler and others of great interest. Ladies can do their shopping and be in time for the second show in the afternoon. Children can be in plenty of time after school hours to see the full show.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

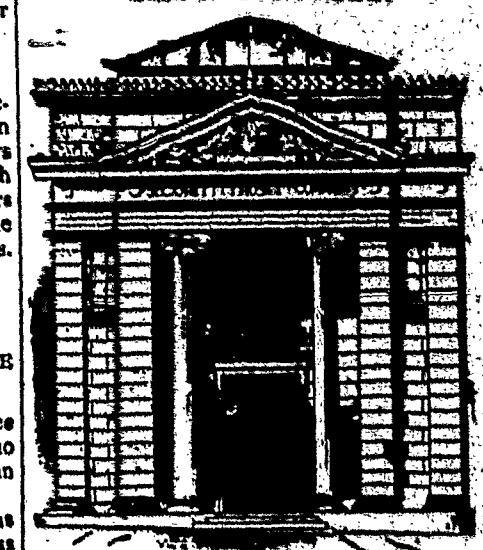

In this progressive age, when audiences are more critical and more conversant with theatrical performances, the comedians who possess the magic and power of forcing their audiences to laughter are few indeed. In Clifford and Hurtle's face scene, "High Born Lady" by Herbert Hall, a master, farcical situations and witty dialogue combined with the ability of Billy S. Clifford, Fisher & Carroll, Sam J. Adams, and others make the cast of compelling smiles a comparatively easy one, as will be seen by attending a performance of the above named play at Academy of Music during the first half of next week.

Herbert E. Denton, "broth of a boy" will appear at the Academy Thursday for three nights, with Thursday and Saturday matinees as "Garry Owen," the star is a good boy and bids fair for high honors. The prison scene and the escape of Garry Owen is unlike any ever seen, inasmuch as the prisoner in order to escape makes a hairpin leap through a window about seven feet high, catching a rope on the other side as he goes. Thursday and Saturday matinees he is coming down and rope to the roof of a ruined abbey and thus effects his escape, making one of the most heroic and daring escapes ever witnessed. This is only one of the many thrilling scenes in "Garry Owen."
