It is said that in some of the farming districts of China pigs are harnessed to small wagons and made to draw them.

SOME WISE REMARKS.

Some men's only bad habit is boastng of their good habits.

Once a hero, al ways a hero-especially to the hero himself. The man who admits he is in the wrong is usually in the right. Whenever a man becomes wise he is the first one to discover his wisdom. A girl loves to be loved by a man whom she knows some other girl loves. Some machines have automatic attachments and some have sheriff's attachments. It's harder for a young man to question her pop than it is to pop the question.

One way to keep on friendly terms with your neighbor is to keep off his premises. The wise man counts the cost of his pleasure after the doctor has sent in his bill. Some people are never satisfied until they find out something that makes them dissatisfied. We know some men who would be perfectly happy if they had necks like a giraffe for beer to filter through.

TWELVE BUSINESS MAXIMS.

1. Have a definite aim.

Go straight for it. 3. Master all details;

4. Always know more than you are expected to know. 5. Remember the difficulties are only made to overcome.

6. Treat failures as stepping-stones to further efforts. 7. Never put your hand out farther han you can draw it back. 8. At times be bold; always prudent 9. The minority often heats the majority in the end.

10. Make good use of other men's brains. 11. Listen well; answer cautiously: decide promptly.

12. Preserve, by all means in your nower. "a sound mind in a sound body."

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

Marriage may not be a fallure, but a good many married neuple are.

The more trust a good woman puts in a man the more she will generally find in him to trust. Lots of men would be considered braver if they didn't have sense enough to get scared.

It is a good thing for a man to be dissatisfied with himself in everything but his marriage. If the women get to working in

Christian Science on love affairs there won't be any hope for the men. Women are better than men are. Men very seldom love their enemies, but women most always kiss them.

If the average man were as brave and handsome as his wife believes he is, he would probably have married some other-better-looking-woman. You can always tell from the outside of a house which is the spare bedroom by the way the window curtains are fixed un. The mission-school habit is probably the strongest while it lasts, but the sachet habit makes a girl's family a lot more uncomfortable.

A woman has to have a lot more patience to let the cat in and out than she has for her husband, because if she didn't it would leave her.

A FEW PLAIN TRUTHS

As an ear trumpet the average woman is not a success.

When a girl is up in arms the young man in the case seems to enjoy it. Happy are they who look before they marry, and overlook afterward. Nothing so enhances the value of a clone because he is carried away with thing as the difficulty in obtaining it. Some men stand on principle and some others probably would if they had it to stand on. Every woman knows that she talks too much, but what she doesn't know is a remedy for it.

Sharper than the tooth of a serpent is the sarcasm of one who has no sympathy with human vanity.

Sooner or later men quit crying for the moon and are thankful for a lamp that doesn't run out of oil." It is better to be fooled once in a
