Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters

ST. BRIDGET'S

A high mass of requiem was celebrated Monday, by Father Hendrick for the repose of the soul of Very Rev. Jas. F. O'Hare

The Sisters of Mercy presented Father Hendrick with a handsomely embroidered stole as a souvenir of the completion of the improvement of the church.

The members of the Garacantie Guild donated the painting of the statue of the Sacred Heart.

Many of the subscribers to the improvement fund have increased their subscriptions showing an appreciation of the good work done.

Father Hendrick was suddenly called to New York this week to attend the funeral of the wife of his brother, Patrick Hendrick of that city.

A high mass of requiem will be offered each week during the month of November for all those whose names are presented for remembrance in the holy sacrifice.

The improved church presented a neat and beautiful appearance on last Sunday. The vivid scene of the crucifixion would touch the most hardened heart.

Without the statue of our patron, St. Bridget, our church is incomplete. Will not some member of the congregation donate one this month in memory of their departed relatives?

Miss Kate Nolan of Scranton street, an estimable young lady of the parish, has gone to Baltimore, to join the order of the Sisters of Charity.

The new statue of St. Joseph was not purchased by subscriptions as one of our daily papers stated but was donated, as here to fore announced, by a kind generous friend. The altar will be paid for by subscription.

A large holy water tank has been donated, it will stand in the vestibule of the church for the convenience of those desiring blessed water.

We are pleased to announce that Mrs. E. B. McGowan Sup. Pres. L. C. B. A. has so far recovered from her serious illness as to be able to attend the meeting of the Sup. Trustees which was held at Buffalo last week.

ST. MARY'S

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Baker Costello, wife of William F. Costello, took place from the family residence, 79 Mt. Hope Avenue, at 8.30 o'clock Friday morning and from the church at 9 o'clock.

Michael John Donohue died at St. Mary's hospital Wednesday, aged 38 years. He is survived by his mother, a brother, Daniel Donohue, and a sister, Mrs. George Pfahl.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Mr. Ray Caring of this parish is residing in New York.

Mr. John Predmore who has been in New York for some time is at home recovering from a slight illness.

At the next meeting of the Columbian Literary Circle, Tuesday Nov. 15. Mr. John Quinn will read a paper entitled "David Copperfield." At the last meeting a charming evening was passed socially with cards.

Next Monday evening further preparations for Father Brophy's fair will be made at the school hall by those interested.

The C. M. B. A., of the church and their friends passed Thursday evening delightfully with cards at the school hall. The basement, crowded to its utmost capacity, was a scene of great enjoyment, while every effort was made by the participants to become owner of the very pretty prizes.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

Branch 251 L. C. B. A., will hold a card and dancing party at the school house Friday evening Nov. 18th.

CATHEDRAL.

At the regular meeting of the Perpetual Help Society held on Wednesday afternoon of this week at St. Mary's hospital. Visitors were received by Mrs. Henry Hebing, Mrs. Mrs. T. J. Sullivan and Mrs. J. Heisinger.

Mrs. Frederick Walsh of New York city is the guest of Mrs. O'Grady of Culver Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Prescott McKinney of Spencer street, are in Boston.

On Tuesday the Feast of all Saints, the solemn high mass was sung by Rev. T. F. Hickey, with Rev. Father Fisher as deacon, and Rev. George Burns as sub-deacon. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. Hanna. In the evening the regular vespers of the feast was followed by vespers for the dead and benediction of the most blessed sacrament. The preacher of the evening was Rev. T. F. Hickey.

On All Souls Day, besides the masses at 6 and 7 o'clock there was a solemn requiem mass at 9 o'clock and a short evening service at 7.30.

The many societies of the parish are inaugurating their work for the coming winter. The St. Vincent de Paul society has already had several meetings; The Ladies Aid Society held a business meeting yesterday afternoon, and the executive committee of the Rochester Catholic Reading Circle is busy arranging the programme for the Circle. The date for the first meeting is Tuesday evening, November 22nd.

Mr. Rufus Dryer and son, Mr. Jas. Dryer, of East avenue, sailed for Europe on last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hasdorff will be at their home, No. 14 Churchlea Place, after November 15th.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

The great success in the comedy line, a farcical comedy called "The Nancy Hanks," which has been touring the country for three years, and meeting with the greatest success will be seen here on Monday November 7th, as the Academy. It was written by Frank Tannehill, Jr., who appears with the company here, and who has written a number of bright and successful comedies. First and last the scheme of "The Nancy Hanks" is to entertain. As some have slightly mistaken the story of the play from its somewhat racy name, it would not be amiss to again state that "The Nancy Hanks" is not a play that deals with the turf. The famous trotter has no connection whatever with the comedy. The company presenting the piece here is very strong throughout including Mr. Harry Beresford in his great character of the French Marquis. Matinees will be given as usual Tuesday and Wednesday. On Tuesday night the election returns will be read.

Dan McCarthy in "The Rambler from Clare" will be the attraction at the Academy of Music the last three nights of next week. Mr. McCarthy has always been a big favorite in Rochester. He has been seen here many times in various plays and has never failed to give entire satisfaction. He is now recognized as the ablest exponent of the rollicking, rough and ready Irish lad, ever on hand for a frolic or a fight—and near to aid the weak and helpless in the hour of need. As such he is ever the favorite of the fair sex and his native unconscious wit and spice of blarney always keep the audience in the best of humor.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Dr. LaSalle entertained a number of the members of the K. of C., in his pretty little yacht Sunday. A few of the villages along the canal were visited and a jolly time enjoyed by all.

A number of Rochester Knights have signified their intentions of participating in the opening ceremonies of the new council at Syracuse tomorrow.

PERSONAL.

Richard Gardiner.

Richard Gardiner, Republican candidate for Assembly in the Third District, scarcely needs any introduction to the residents of that district, as he has lived therein since his birth in the 9th Ward, 32 years ago. After removing into the 2d Ward, Mr. Gardiner, when but 24 years of age, was elected as a member of the Board of Education. His active ability had become so apparent however, that he was elected to the office of Overseer of the Poor, ere he had become familiar with the duties as School Commissioner.

Mr. Gardiner was twice chosen to succeed himself in the city's poor department, and his record while there, until the election of his successor last April, by reason of a Democratic Common Council, is one of improved methods, economy and a betterment in the condition of city indigents, that has attracted the attention of philanthropists, as well as public officials.

One of the most commendable laws ever secured, was in a large part drawn and its presentation in the legislature secured by him.

It is the law, making it mandatory for societies or institutions to have a judge pass upon the binding out of orphans. Another idea, and one which when put in practice, is a boon to hundreds of poverty-stricken husbands and fathers, was the establishment of the city stone yard.

The scheme originated with Mr. Gardiner and his is the credit. He was also largely instrumental in securing the annual appropriation of a fund by the Board of Supervisors, to the Children's Aid Society, and was closely identified with the movement which brought about the present metropolitan ambulance system, and the annual appropriation of $4,000 from the contingent fund for equal distribution among the several hospitals.

PICKINGS FOR THE GOOD OF THE C. M. B. A.

BY J. J. H., Jr., St.

SOMETHING TO BE REMEMBERED.

Members of the C. M. B. A. should not forget that it is the right, privilege and duty of the branch to watch over the conduct of its members in the branch room and out of it; to follow them through their intercourse with the outside world and not their actions at all times. The branch room is the family circle, around whose hearthstone all may mingle and commune as one—whose proceedings should be jealously guarded and kept from waiting ears and chattering tongues and non-members. Neither should they forget that for violations of the principles of morality and law, and for every act of conduct unbefitting the profession of the grand principles of the association, they can be held amenable "to the offended law."

Whether at home or abroad, no member of the C. M. B. A. should do aught that would bring reproach upon the grand association which he represents part of, nor upon his own character.

By remembering these few remarks members can rest assured of the enormous future growth of the C. M. B. A. FRATERNALLY, J. J. H., Jr., St.
