A starte at

OUR FASHION LETTER behind. It has a large turn down col-

VENICE AND IRISH LACE ARE MUCH USED FOR TRIMMING. 1 30 · · · · ·

Corsage Out Low and Heart Shaped-Ruby Jacket Ornamented With Fine For Paying Visits.

Soft materials, that fall in gracefu folds, are the only kind in use this season for evening dresses. A special kind of velvet, known as velours mousseline, has been made for this purpose. also a satin as soft as foulard, in al colors, to avoid any hing like stiffness in dress. Venice and Irish laces and mousseline de sole are much used for trimmings.

The first model proved is an evening of the corsage. dress of supple lilac taffetas brocade with mauve and white flowers. The skirt fits very closely around the body and has no pleats round the walst, the fulness beginning to develop about half way down, and the bottom being very wide. It is long in front and at the sides, and has a train of medium length. It is trimmed round the bottom with two rows of petals cut out of mauve silk and forming a garland This skirt is ornamented with a long tunic of the same material, opening down the centre in front, rounded of at the bottom and trimmed with a flat flounce of large meshed tulle, inlaid with Venice lace, which starts at the waist on each side and runs right ming.

around. A second ornament of the same materials runs round the hips, giving the effect of a basque.

KEEPING FLOWERS FRESH. made with a very small basque, round ders. The lapels, which are broad and Vace. nicked, end in a point at the bottom. Flowers will keep fresh longer if That babies ought to cry occasionand open in front, and with two points their stems are in wet sand. Put the ally is a fact well known to doctors, Both collar and lapels are faced with dowers into a vase as usual, then care- , but one which seems to be very much nasturtium velvet, embroidered with fully sift into the vase by means of a against the creed of mothers and black passementerie, and edged with funnel sufficient sand to fill it nearly nurses. The model bables who never festoons of mohair braid, and outside to the top, shaking it so that the sand cry are unnatural specimens. Crying Embroidery-Blue theviat Dress-Dres them a narrow band of astrakhan The will settle down among the stema, is the only exercise a young baby gets, vest opens down the centre over a front Gradually add water until it stands a it expands the lungs, causes a better of the same velvet divided down the very little above the top of the sand, circulation of the blood, and helps on middle with a band of the fur. Each and replenish the water so often as | muscular growth. Of course, fretting side of this front is ornamented with needed.

patterns cut out of English application A writer upon the subject says; promptly attended to, and screaming lace. The neck trimming and collar 'When roses are worth six or eight dol- (which might cause rupture) must not are of the same velvet as the front, lars a dozen in midwinter, it is worin be allowed, but a really healthy little edged with astrakhan. The sleeves are while knowing how to make them last. cry, when nothing particular is the tight throughout the entire length and three dinner parties one Christmas matter, save that baby needs that mode are split up on the outer side at the week with the same dozen and a 'alt of expression for his pent-up feelingswrists. They are trimmed with velvet, Mermet roses, and the flowers were this is not a thing to make everybody mohair braid, passementerie and as- much admired each time. It was after run and try to divert the little one trakhan, in the same style as the rest 11 each night before they came off the attention or to stop him, or get out of mouthed kitchen bowl that held a gen- away locomotive coming This is a dress of drab chine covert grous supply of water, and with strong [The noise is not pleasant, but if w coat cloth. The skirt is in the prevail- shears the rose stems were snipped off were once assured that it was a marm ing style-very tight around the body in inch or so under the water. (There less pastime for baby, most of us could and no gathers at the waist, and very is a physiological reason for cutting reconcile ourselves to it once in a wide at the bottom. It is trimmed under the water, but never mind that !) while. Not at night. If there is one around the lower part with many rows Then the bowl of roses were carried to lesson more important than another : of stitching very close together, form- the coolest cellar, but not one that felt is that dark ness and stillness go toing a band of stitching thirty centimet- to the freezing point, placed in the big gether. But although the idea may be ance. ers wide. The skirt is long all around wash-boiler, a little sprinkle of water a novel one, there is something to be and has a small thin. Over it is a dashed over the whole, and the cover said in favor of little babies being at tunic of the same cloth, open and put on tightly. They were left un- lowed a small crying spell--that is, an rounded off down the front and sloped out hed until the next afternoon, when exercise spell-during the day, purely away to a point at the back at the they reappeared again as fresh as be- upon the grounds of health. height of the band of stitching. The fore. Of course if the florist had sold The queen of Spain is simple and do tunic is trimmed with a band of velvet roses that he had been hoarding for mestic in her tastes. She and her cut out into arabesque designs and several weeks in his dark ice-room, daughter are admirable neediewomen piped with gold thread, and down the they would not have endured the gas and embroider and make laces most centre of the back, from the waist to and the candles and hot air conditions beautifully, the little king playing "iethe edge, runs a band of the same trim- of a modern house so many days.

Let Us Broaden Our Home Work.

The front of the corsage is trimmed with a cascade formed of green velvet A careful study of the definition of lined with white satin and mixed with the word "home" leads to the conclua lace frill. The same sace is carried sion that most of our so-called "home around the neck and forms a turndown departments" are conducted on too collar over the green velvet. The narrow a basis. In the first place, the waistband is of velvet to match, is majority of them assume that the men quite narrow, and fastens with a broad of the family are not interested in so hook and eye in silver and strass. The trivial a matter as the home departsleeves are of plain velvet, very tight, ment corner. If the editor chances to and falling quite low over the hands. say a word that applies to men, the explanation is made that one occasionally and pink An outdoor mantle of black velvet, strays in, and that this may catch his very long, so as to completely cover eye. If ideas are being exchanged and the dress over which it is worn. It a man expresses his views, he usually fastens down the centre in front and is begins by explaining and probably trimmed over the shoulders with a apologizing for his presence. Now this fichu of the velvet, bordered with is all wrong The home is or should be skunk, This fichu is trimmed with equally dear to the men and women of bands of black moire, encircled with the family Its upbuilding, well-being black velvet ribbon of different widths and happiness are, or should be, the sewn on upright. The skunk, which concern of both, and, this being so, the narrows to a point above the waist home department of a paper should be trimming, is carried down the front to of interest to both. One reason why it the waist. The neck trimmings is of is not is that, as usually conducted, it black moire, and the collar of velvet, is too often simply a medium for giving edged with a trimming of the same mas or exchanging of recipes for cooking, terial, which forms a collarette. The canning and other purely feminine in-

LET THEM CRY.

The Possessors of Them are on the Bight tar, forming jockeys Over the shoul- Place the Stome in Wet Sand Placed in a fit is the Univ Exercise & Young Isaby fiels.

Side of Beauty.

rolled in pompadour effect, not brought back and rolled tightly and smoothly which gives a strained or severe and unrefined appearance, but loosely taken back from the face, slightly waved and combed over a low roll, leaving, if when there is discomfort is to be becoming, a little short, very short, curl or two to stray carelessly over the forehead, is sure to do credit to the plainest features, and lend a beauty which with any other mode of dressing the hair might be lacking. If, after being combed back, it is brought for ward slightly before being confine i, it will have a still prettier effect. All the styles of hairdressing, as table. They were removed to a wide- the way as if there was a fire or a run-fashion says, admit the use of many fancy pins and combs, but while this may be admissable, it cannot be said to be the best of taste, unless upon a state occasion, or when an elaborate be sure to lend to the most beautiful woman in the world a "dandy" appear-If a woman, young, or a little nore beauty and womaniiness, she needs to avoid too much elaboration in the matter of dress, as the overdoing detracts from her natural physical endowments and if she is plain of features, fussiness in dress is sure to emphasize her lack of physical charm. If a woman is not handsome, she can be to a cert in degree, stately and imposing, even side them while they work. She has but one vice-smoking-and the little though short of stature, but this she handsome gown. king delights in making cigarettes for can never be if she prostitutes elegance her In Austria, however, many wo in dressing to mere fusiness and dowmen smoke, and not even the unhappy diness.

death of Queen ('hristina's cousin, the Archduchess Matilde who set fire to very much in vogue Those in gold or jeweled or gold clasp attached to a her muslin dress with her cigar has old silver are highly prized by young ladies. been able to cure her of this habit

Her favorite color is mauve It sentiment who have worn mourning to and rhinestones combined find much

The very largest dots on veils are not worn by women of the best taste. The helt slightly pointed front and back gives a very much better figure than a perfectly round one.

The latest thing in hotel bills of fare is tateed to be an edible menu card. It is generally made of biscuit, which the guest eats with his cheese.

Purses to match the color of gowns is one of fashion's newest whims, and are to be found in all colors.

in the way of new corsets, one good thing the dressmakers have taken under their patronage, stays made of suede. A thicker undressed skin. of course, is used than that for gloves; toilet is required, as otherwise i: would nevertheless all the soft, pliable warmth of a gant de suede is enjoyed in these new figure-makers that are regular plums fallen in the not too easy path of the distinctly plump ladies of advanced in years, be lovely in her own fashion.

A charming gown is seen of lemon colored summer silk, with bunches of purple violets. The waist is made with full front of embroidered white mousseline de soie, shirred sleeves and a full ruche around the bottom of the skirt of mousseline de soie. Sash and collar are of white moire ribbons, with black stripes. This is an exceedingly

The most delicate embroideries of fine silver and gold, each inset with lewels, are applied to leather, and the The combs of our grandmothers are acceptable gifts just at present is the plain white leather belt. The wide belt of black satin ribbon carefully fitted and boned, fastened on one side seems always difficult for women of ionable. Jet hair ornaments, and jet with two rosettes with jet or white stone buttons in the centre, is another

> An authority on physical training The rhinestones are, of course only for women gives the following directions for securing the best results, which naturally must be modified by individual characteristics and circum-In truth, although Ruskin admitted stances. "Sleep nine hours out of the that "art was not meant to teach twenty-four, bathe in cold water, exerscience," nature, the scientific phenom- cise five minutes daily with light enon that involves the whole world dumb-bells, drink a cup of hot liquid absorbed his faculties even when, it before breakfast spend half an hour

Styles in Collars. White linen collars look well with tistic He has declared, in one of those thing chilfon, ribon, lace, is bound with the severe tailor made rowns. merely ceased like drifting vapor has part, but tight from the elbow to the way, and which certainly should have others are straight bands. With these and exquisite a light, 'I am no poet 1 now as distinct an edge as a cow on a part, but tight from the elbow to the way, and which certainly should have to the are or and exquisite a light, 'I am no poet i the destrict the should have the are worn the four-in-hand or the Ascot have no imagination." A poet he close horizon. The butterflies used on skunk. The waistband is of black not at the expense of other and equal.y the Then there are the pique stocks was and is, but imagination or in-toques, even, have their wings all more to normalize the pique stocks was and is, but imagination or in-toques, even, have their wings all more to normalize the pique stocks was and is, but imagination or in-toques, even, have their wings all more to normalize the pique stocks was and is. dous invention, but ideas are so scarce enamel on a gold ground. It has long members who have interests quite few months ago without any starch He did not realize the truth at first, this year that one makes the most of They are very mannish-looking and but sought to restrain much play of im- what there are, and really it is surof the skirt. The mantle is trimmed making in its strictest sense Surely rather smart. But these high collars magination in others as harmful. Tc prising how many new effects can be There is always the picture bat. A nating with black velvet of various partment should welcome to its hearth discolor the skin so that when a low only in the figures in his pictures, but pretty head in a picturesque pose well gown is worn there is an ugly rim of in every sort of accessory, he would calculated to display the last contury say "Ned, go to nature," and only in curls in the nape of the neck looked later days did he regretfully recognize charming at an afternoon reception yes-The prettiest fashion of all is the his limitation, as conveyed in the path- terday, bearing as it did a drapery of dainty little turned down collar of tetic words spoken to me years ago. I ecru lace hanging from bunches of wood eviolets at intervals about the edge of the brim. Above, this hat was a lining of deep violet velvet, and big black plumes waved at the back and at the left of the crown.

NO THE Da Wa Ou Th and one as i occu tach forti SUIT who erall Th in o two onei the 1777. 6. CHR quan Het from dow Engl On rende which

1.5(M)

Fren

w ble

no a defei

SUFT

Calo

and

swor

8710

Ttee

had with tons

Ev

fores

this

India

mand

had .

havin

Mend

Durph

Inglo

lere a

built

of ter

ton v

troops

Om

botab

bot a

UDP 1

and

Hull

DBTIO

and d excha

ders

treaso

victed

Presic

The

like i

Hall's

chanc

through

presid

and t milita

The

the su

púdia

1846.

Conno

1847.

The C

defend

Neott:

this th

1000 W

of Me:

Santa

erican

the Te

COUF8P

garrisi

ed to l

Ameri

they v

Mexic

The c scent.

surren

House

thousa

This w

der of .

lor, wi

7.454. a

An Inci

"Figh

title th

bas ma

years h

lowa, t

to him

sent to rule of the dec det's he thereon

the fur

was w prevent and lux

pensive

In a wo

duce ha

ficers.

like all

and wi

ment p tation i

gend ru

assignm

motto t

move ft

ious vo

officer t

ment a row mai

to expel issued to war spi

Lincoln'

ly to th

well to ers we sermons

perferre

the sci

politicia

if the y

authorit

last lon

pathy, w

war : th

"Fightli

The f

The

Th

Crescents set with jewels are fashreturn to crude colors, like blue, reg favor. Some of the newest hairpins variety of belt very much worn.

nave for a top a jet butterfly. suitable for evening wear ____ Rushin's Art Frinciples.

half unconscious of it, he reared upon every day in outdoor exercise, make it his theories of morality, says Scrib. the best of bad bargains, and always ner's. His art is record rather than keep your temper "

The corsage is cut low and , heart shaped both in the front and back, encloses the shoulders, and is draped, the drapery crossing over from right to left; it is blouse shaped and is divided brocaded taffetas, the left of large meshed tulle inlaid with Venice lace. From the right shoulder starts a band of Venice insertion, which runs diagonally down the front and is lost beneath the waistband on the left side; beneath this lace is a band of Parma violetcolored velvet. In the centre of the corsage is fixed a large bow of the same Parma velvet very much turned up. beneath which are petals of mauve and white silk, like those around the botbuckle.

The lacket represented is of ruby yelvet. It is made with a basque cut in a rounded point behind, which is shorter at the sides, and is cut away completely in front. The corsage is soft in front and slightly gathered at the waist. The upper part on each side, near the inset of the sleeves, is ornamented with applications of fine embroidery. The jacket fastens down the centre in front and has square lapels, which meet in the centre; these are richly embroidered with black embroidery, and are edged with a broad band of chinchilla. The collar is of the velvet, without embroidery; it is much cut away and is lined with chinchilla, which projects over the velvet and joins the trimming of the lapels.

The waistband is of black velvet, one uniform width all round, and fastened in the centre in front with a buckle of chased gold, having a carbuncle in the being quite tight. They, are very long, atin.

An out-door costume of navy blue cheviot is made with a double skirt. and the upper part his very closely and spots in black chenille. The lapels being perfectly dat. The fulness be-gine, according to the prevailing style, sleeves are slightly draped in the upper terests, which are all very well in their. in the centre, the right half being of moire, is narrow and round, and is important matters. Then, too, in the which at present are heavily starched vention brockded taffetas, the left of large fastened with a buckle in translucent ordinary home there are usually adult instead of heing left as they were a has not. ends, which fall nearly to the bottom apart from house keeping or even home all around the bottom with six bands these young people should be considerwidths, the narrowest being at the bot- all the family, men and women, martom. The ribbons, being sewn on by ried and single, old and young. Like velvet, inclining toward the left. The one edge only, stand upright. A band a wise host, it should consider the dress has no sleeves, the arms being of skunk which starts from the waist tastes and prepare to meet the needs completely bare. At the summit of on each side runs around the back, of each and all. For fathers and moth the left shoulder is another bow of forming a heading to the trimming. ers there should be council, and a place

The dress is of red poplin, embroid lems which confront parents in our ered with spots of black chenille at day. For housekeepers there should be tom of the skirt. The back and front regular intervals. The skirt, which is practical, seasonable information and lin skirt, which is plain, is a jacket of conduct, current topics and live !

are exactly alike, except that there is made according to the prevailing fash. room for giving as well as getting no bow behind. The waistband is of ion-tight around the figure and wide ideas. And for all, young and old. Parma velvet, rather narrow, and is at the bottom-is long and had a short should be a special corner where there fastened by a square chiselled gold train. It is edged around the bottom should be weekly meetings, like a club, with a band of marten. Over the pop- at which should be discussed principles > tion of the home department would flow mental stimulus and a truer consciousness of the real meaning of life. An ideal home department is the one which aims at an all-around development of soul, mind and body in all its members, because on this depends healthful living and happy homes.

to exchange views on the serious prob-

The Songs of Home.

foreign land. The following paragraph is from a letter, by Rev. C. S. Robinson, D. D., written after visiting the Mount of Olives.

"While we thus sat in the garden of thoughts and themes so all-absorbing. suddenly our attention was arrested by the strains of music, which the distant band was playing: We could hardly believe our ears; but over the walls of Jerusalem, and over the walls of the garden, came the famous measures of knot, and the ends fall down some disthe old Scotch song, "Annie Laurie." Where they could have learned this air | long pieces of lace insertion, from four It would be natural to suppose this made one unwelcome interruption to little couplet of the song: "And she's a' the world to me' And for bonnie Annie Laurie. I'd lay me down and dee!"

to a point in the centre in front, rath- | ered with chenille. The sides of the love, which was more than all the | frieze.

up at each side to the extent of twenty | which also rune around the neck. The | Nobody said or sung the words we centimeters, and is rounded behind. waistband, which is narrow, is of black all knew so well; but when the strain This sairt is trimmed all round with a velvet, fastened with a straight bow ended one, voice was heard quoting waistband, which is narrow, is of black all knew so well; but when the strain millinery. band of nasturtium velvet cut on the in the centre in front. The sleeves are those better words still: "For scarcely tross, on which are laid mohair braid of plain poplin, are very tight, and are for a righteous man will one die; yet, toilet table, etc., is called rose gold. nerrow black passementerie in fes split up at the wrist on the outer side peradventure for a good man some is really a gilding over silver. E Beneath this trimming is a nur. the split being edged with festoons of would even dare to die; but God comof anominas also in festoons chemilie and marten. The spaulettes mandeth His love towards us, in that. are trimmed in the same manner and, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for un."

vellow always to be seen where the collar has kept all air from the throat stitched points or with a very fine em. ords of things." broidery upon it. These collars are very narrow do not quite meet in front and are on a band which is slipped inside the stock collar questions of all kinds. From this sec- coming, particularly to middle-aged nai says: women. There are some pieces of hand embroidery on Swiss muslin that described, and these are also fashionsatin stock.

Mull ties edged with lace are still worn, but the ends of the lace are much lace which is very expensive and quite whites. rare, and it makes very pretty ends for ble, and marvelous workmanship is seen in some of the old pieces that are now brought forth. These are long enough to tie at the throat in a bowtance on the waist. Then there are lace of all kinds is on the crest of the wave, so far as fashion is concerned-Harper's Bazar.

Woman's World.

For plain but stylish walking costumes nothing is prettier than Irish Appliques of black lace on white lisse are one of the features of the season s

The new finish now given by jewelers to chatelaine clasps, articles for the

The newest skirts on evening toil ets are very light and supple, being merely silk-lined and not at all stif foned v ith interlining.

moments of clear introspection which worn very high, some are turned over 'illumine his character with so bright wrist, where they are training with a place in a dome of other and equal, y the Then there are the pique stores, was and is, but imagination of the second of the higher pictorial sort he

are bad for the skin of the throat as Sir Edward Burne-Jones, who loved to drawn from this seemingly little one. of black moire laid on flat, and alter- ed and provided for. The home de- any wrapping up of the throat is apt to realize his invention and ideals, not sheer linen lawn or cambric, with hem- might have made such charming rec-

Gray Hairs.

The fact that some persons begin to Real lace Valencinnes or point is show gray hairs while in their twenties nade into these collars—a very narrow does not indicate a promature decay of band of insertion, to which is sewed the constitution. It is purely a local second ruffle, also of the same lace. phenomenon, and often co-exists with These little lace collars are very be. great physical vigor. A medical jour-

"Many feeble persons, and others who have suffered extremely, both are rather larger than the collar just mentally and physically do not blanch ly in request. a hair until past middle life; while able and look very well over a dark others, without assignable cause, lose their capillary coloring matter rapidly when about forty years of age.

"Race has a marked influence. The longer so that very little of the mull traveled Dr. Orbigny says that in shows. Some of these ties have only many years ho spent in South America enough mull in them to reach around he never saw a bald Indian, and scarce-The songs of home sound sweet in the throat, and then both bow and ends is ever a gray-headed one. The neare of lace. There is a white Chantilly groes turn more slowly than the yoke.

"In this country sex appears to make these ties, but there is no fixed rule as little difference. Men and women grow to what sort of lace shall be used-both gray about the same period of life. In Gethsemane, in busy contemplation of the light and heavy kinds are correct. men the hair and beard rarely change The long barbs of our grandmothers equally. The one is usually darker time are the smartest thing imagina. | than the other for several years.

How an Empress Was Courted.

How princes make love is told in the "Reminiscenses of the Marquis Cuseighteen years old he spent two days made by Rauchnitz, Mayer and Felix. in Berlin, where he saw the Princess hang down even on the skirt of the ed him. She, however, showed no signs gown. The fine pieces of Irish point of reciprocating his affection. The evening before his departure he sat next the princess at dinner. "I shall are seen on dressy toques, and it is as to what lace is or is not in fashion leave to-morrow." he suddenly remarked. She did not show any surprise, but | be in vogue before the winter sets in. quickly answered, "We shall be sorry that you leave so soon. Cannot your departure be delayed? "That depends on you." "How so?" asked the princess. The prince now declared his love. somewhat to her unbarrassment as she thought they would be overheard. As a pledge of her love he asked for the ring she wore, suggesting that no one would notice it if she took it off. and pressing it into a piece of bread pushed it toward his plats. The ring however was not hers, but belonged to from the Empress of Russia. And in taking it off to give to the prince she read for the first time on the inside the inscription, "Empress of Russia."

The Eastions

For first mourning, silk underskirts are permitted; but it is customary to choose the most rustling silks.

For street wear, nothing has superseded the violet, the single dark purple variety or the paler double being equal-

Sterling silver corners and medallions have disappeared from the fashionable purses and card cases, which are richly plain and of choice quality. Some of the new tailor costumes have bolero fronts and narrow postilion backs. The vest is a fitted blouse of fancy silk laid in soft folds across the front, or else tucked to form a deep

Don't add a princess gown to your wardrobe, unless you are tall and slender. That is a mistaken idea, long since abandoned, that stout, short women can wear the princess.

An ermine vest in a dark fur jacket is about the smartest thing possible. Equally smart is it to combine three furs together in one garment, as seal. caracule and moufflon.

Beautifully curving revers and sharply notched fronts are characteristics of tine." When the Czar Nikolaus was the new elegant Louis coat basques One of the newest colors in millinery Charlotte, two years younger, and of is a pinky apricot: another a full rich a delicate beauty which at once attract- cylamen, approaching the pink geranjum tone, which brunettes find so becoming.

> Lace, jewels, velvet rose and tulle said that piece velvets and moires will

A Begatiful Face.

While it may not be possible to possess a beautiful face, all may have a true one, for it is nearly always the index for the hidden life. If the soul within is true and pure the face will reyeal the fact. The sweet inner grace will flash out of the eye, or be stamped upon the meek, quiet face in a way not to be misunderstood. A true face is more desirable than a haudsome one, her governess, who had received it is really more full of beauty. and leaves a deeper impression upon others. Seek, then, to carry a true face. Let the sunny smile be in keeping with the sunny spirit.

centre. The sleeves are slightly puffed | habit of the same material, the body At the inset, and diminish gradually to plain and the tunic embroidered. The the elbow, the lower end to the waist tunic comes rather more than half tightly over the hips and in the back no one imagines; possibly it was one to five inches broad, which are way down the skirt behind, and fite which are edged with chinchilla. The The front opens very widely in front of the acquisitions of the Crimean war. in a bow-knot, and the ends left to facket is lined throughout with white and is rounded off at the sides. The embroidery in black chenille, which us there in Gethsemane. But when the are very good for this, particularly on upper part is ornamented behind with runs around in festoons like a rounded instruments swelled out upon that last a velvet coat, but again, there is no law basque. The upper part of the corsage The lower skirt is long and quite plain, is ornamented with similar festoons round the sides and behind, the front are cut to a point and fall in folds, and are trimmed in a similar style. The it seemed as it instinctively each one corsage opens over a front of white of us accepted this poor earthly love sbout helf-way down and increases to- | frilled mousseline de sole, and the neck for a Caledonian maiden as a symbol ward the edge. The upper skirt comes trimmings is of white satin embroid and type of that higher, that divine ermore than half way down; it is split corsage are trimmed with marten world to our hearts. perfect atting fort also perfected of with the same fur.

