

DIOCESAN NEWS.

What Our Friends in the Surrounding Parishes are Doing.

From Our Special Correspondents. (Continued from 7th page.)

Prattsburg.

A good many of our people are sick with the grippe. Mr. Theodore Worth is recovering. Mr. John O'Flaherty who has been seriously ill is better at this date.

"Jack" Flynn says he would prefer a round with John L., to having the grip again.

Mass will be celebrated at St. Patrick's church on Sunday, Feb. 12th.

The following named teachers attended the teachers institute at Bath last week: Misses Kate Trant, Nora Trant, Kate Flaherty, Mary Hickey and Eugene Trant.

Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn of Cleveland, O., have been visiting his sister, Mrs. N. F. Richards of this place.

Mrs. Patrick Flaherty, visited her children at Bath last week.

On his last trip here Father O'Shea congratulated the young ladies on having formed a reading circle. He also expressed himself as being pleased at having a correspondent for THE JOURNAL from this place.

Mr. John O'Connell has been authorized to receive subscriptions for THE JOURNAL in this place. All who give him their names and one dollar in advance will receive the paper one year and a beautiful picture of St. Anthony, besides.

Corning.

John Buckley has returned to Corning to reside and work here.

Mrs. Frances Gould has returned to her studies at the Genesee Normal school.

The marriage is announced of Michael Gannon to Miss Elizabeth Powell, to take place Feb. 14th.

Two pretty weddings occurred at St. Mary's church on Wednesday morning of last week. At eight o'clock Patrick Leonard and Miss Mary Green were united in the bonds of holy matrimony by Rev. J. M. Bustin; and at 9 o'clock Rev. Walter Lee officiated at the marriage of Arthur B. Hendrick to Miss Catherine J. McLaughlin.

Both the young couples have many friends who extend to them very hearty congratulations.

On Monday morning occurred the funeral of Mrs. Bridget Healy who died early Saturday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Catherine Moran. Death resulted from paralysis. Deceased leaves besides herself one brother, Thomas Corley of Painted Post. She was an old resident and much respected by all who knew her.

The death of Mrs. James Sloan which occurred on Saturday last in the afternoon, takes away from us one who was gentlest of the gentle and kindest of the kind. A personality most estimable and lovable. Her life was in every way so worthy and her death so beautiful that the thought of it makes heaven seem more real and nearer to us. Such lives are not lived in vain and such deaths only make the remembrance of "little acts of kindness, and little deeds of love," the more lasting.

Mrs. Sloan died at her residence, West Second street, aged sixty years. Last March she underwent an operation of the removal of a tumor from her breast. Shortly after this she fell in the house, breaking one of her legs between the knee and hip. She never recovered fully from the effects and a few weeks ago was compelled to take to her bed. Her husband James Sloan died about six years ago. She is survived by one brother, Tobias Parcell, of this city, and ten children who are: Philip, Kate, John, William, Frank, Theresa and Edward of Corning; Mrs. William Hynd of Northville, N. Y., and James Sloan of Toledo, Ohio. The funeral was held on Tuesday from St. Mary's church and was very largely attended by sorrowing friends.

Several sleigh-ride parties took place early in the week and the weather was as if it had been made to order. The nights were snowy and bright, wintry but not too cold and altogether delightful.

A young men's athletic club is, we understand, one of the things that are to be in the near future, and the scheme is being agitated by several groups of athletic tastes and ambitions. First at present the plans for the organization of the club are not perfected, but it is proposed to have rooms, boxing-gloves, dumb-bells and other muscle-tiring contrivances together with a base ball nine, a foot ball eleven, and a dance hall in conjunction with the rooms, and possibly a small stage whereon amateur theatricals may be given. The idea is theoretically excellent and awaits with impatience a demonstration of its feasibility. A meeting is to be held on Sunday next at Callahan's hall, when the plans of the scheme in charge of the affair will be more clearly outlined and decided upon.

James Sloan of Toledo, was in the city early in the week, called here by the death of his mother.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season occurred on Tuesday when the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen of this city, held their annual ball in the city hall. The ball was tastefully decorated, ravishing music was furnished by Boniewicz's orchestra and the affair was a grand success and reflects great credit upon the committee of arrangements which consisted of T. P. O'Brien, Austin Ballman and Pius McMahon.

Frank L. McGovern and John Boylan spent Sunday with friends at Hornellsville.

At the annual election of St. Mary's Aid Society the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. P. Farrell; vice-president, Mrs. D. Ervin; treasurer, Mrs. E. J. Kelly; secretary, Mrs. I. L. Switzer.

Lima.

Mr. James Conway has been appointed church trustee in the place of Wm. McEwen.

Thomas Noonan met with quite a serious accident recently, falling from a load of hay and breaking his leg in two places.

John Corcoran, one of the oldest residents of this parish is at the point of death.

Miss Francis Parkes of Pittsford, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Kate Hagen has returned from a visit in New York city.

Miss Anna Hoover of Tonawanda, is visiting friends in town.

Caledonia.

On Tuesday evening an auxiliary to Division A. O. H. was organized at Caledonia. Mr. Finnie of Batavia, and Mr. McCann of Danville, delighted the audience with their witty and humorous utterances. Miss G. Connor of Mt. Morris introduced the speakers.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Batavia, who delivered an address on "The Woman of Ireland." Rev. Father Eisler and Mr. O'Connor explained the benefits to be derived from the organization, after which some 27 signed the roll. After the initiation a light lunch was served, and every one left loud in their praises of Division 5 and the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Mr. Connor, president of Avon Division, and several of the sisters were present, also Mrs. McEwen, president of LeRoy auxiliary. On Tuesday evening all members are requested to be present at Rednet hall, when officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Geneva.

James Bradley, the 15 old son of Mrs. James Bradley of Washington street suffered a very painful accident while skating on the lake only a few days since. The city scraper was being used on the ice for the purpose of removing the snow. Bradley, who had been skating all the afternoon, sat down on the ice to fix his skates, which had become loosened, and as he did so some boys who were playing around the scraper let the heavy blade of the machine fall on the boy's left hand, crushing three fingers. The injured lad was taken to Dr. Clapp's office, when it was found necessary to amputate the second finger. It is hoped that the other fingers can be saved, as they were not crushed as bad.

Mrs. Catherine O'Connor, wife of Michael O'Connor, died at her home on North street on Monday. The case is a very sad one, as the bereaved husband is left with three children, the oldest of which is but four years old. The funeral was held from St. Francis de Sales church on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment was in St. Patrick's cemetery.

Charles, the infant son of William and Ella McDermott of William street, died on Monday. The funeral was held from St. Francis de Sales church on Wednesday at 10 a. m.

The Imperial club gave a dancing party to a few friends Wednesday evening at their new rooms in the Jacobs block. The formal opening of the club will not be held until after the Lenten season.

Macedon.

Mr. Timothy Fogarty is rapidly recovering from a severe attack of pleurisy.

Miss Tiny O'Brien spent the past week at home.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Burns, who have been under the doctor's care for some time past, are recovering.

J. H. Murphy, who has been ill the past two weeks with blood poisoning is somewhat improved at this writing. (Wednesday.)

Dr. E. D. Burns, V. S., of Fairport, died at St. Mary's hospital in Rochester, Monday morning. Thursday of last week Dr. Burns went to St. Mary's hospital suffering from appendicitis. He was 33 years old. He is survived by a father of this place, and three brothers, John of this place, and Garrett and Patrick of Shortsville, besides a large circle of friends. He was a member of several societies of Fairport. His funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Patrick's church. Interment at Palmyra. Requisite in Pace, Amen.

Mrs. Johanna Dallor is better of her recent illness. We are also glad to hear Mrs. P. Dallor has recovered.

Grip still prevails in Macedon with no apparent abatement.

Seneca Falls.

Very Rev. Wm. A. McDonald of Geneva, was in town Monday.

The L. C. B. A. Society held a card party Tuesday evening in the C. M. B. A. hall.

The Crescent Social Club will have a dance party Monday evening in the Odd Fellows hall.

The Father Mathew T. H. B. Society elected officers Sunday at the meeting as follows: Spiritual Advisor, Rev. M. U. Dwyer; president, A. S. Hughes; vice-president, William Loughlin; recording secretary, Nicholas Duron; financial secretary, Patrick Welch; trustees, Patrick McKeon, John Martin.

Edward Water, died Friday morning at his home on Cent street, aged 70 years. He is survived by a wife and one sister, Mrs. James Murphy. The funeral took place from St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock, Monday morning. The Rev. Michael U. Dwyer officiated. The funeral was largely attended by friends and relatives.

The L. C. B. A., will serve a dinner on Tuesday next, the 14th, election day, in the vacant store formerly occupied by M. E. Hamlin and the benefit will be for the poor of St. Patrick's parish. This is a worthy work and should be a successful.

Genesee.

Edward J. Finigan of Buffalo, was the guest of friends here Sunday.

Thomas O'Meara of Niagara Falls, visited his family here this week.

Mrs. Jennings of Rochester, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Costello, on Sunday last.

Miss Eliza Neville had the misfortune to sprain her ankle one day last week.

A. O. H. Division No. 4, will give a necktie and apron party at their rooms, Monday evening, February 13th.

James L. Kelly, formerly of this village, has opened a ladies' cloak and shawl parlor at Mt. Morris.

The Misses Conlin gave a progressive euchre party to a number of their friends on Monday evening, and all who were present had an enjoyable time. The first prize was won by Mrs. John Houston and Peter Caragher and the second prizes by James Galbraith and wife.

The Jolly Euchre Club was entertained by Mrs. John Mahoney on Friday evening of last week. The first prizes were awarded to Miss Mary J. Higgins and Michael Cahill, and the second prizes to Mrs. F. Thompson and William A. Haley. On Tuesday evening the club met with Mrs. M. Leiser, the president. The first prizes were won by Mrs. M. Managh of Retsof, and Morris Leiser, and the second prizes by Mrs. Johanna Cahill and Michael Cahill. At both of the meetings of the club they had a "jolly" good time.

Elmira.

Miss Teal of Rochester has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Skinner of East Market street.

Misses Lee and Sennot of Binghamton are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Shannon of Davis street.

The Mendocino club will hold one of their famous open meetings at the Elmira College chapel Thursday evening. Clementine Soeldner, soprano, will assist.

Miss Roberts will give a musicale at her studio Saturday afternoon. Those who will assist are Mary Carroll, soprano, Agnes Reardon, violinist, and George Morgan MacKnight, baritone.

Miss Margaret Sullivan of Scranton is the guest of Miss Minnie Hickey.

Martin F. Milan of Lake street is spending a few days in the metropolis.

Misses Kate Roman and Anna Tobin have returned from a visit in New York.

The funeral of James Riffe, who died on Thursday, was held on Saturday morning from his late residence on Pennsylvania avenue and at St. Mary's church afterwards. Interment was in St. Peter and Paul's cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Murphy of Lincoln street mourn the loss of their infant son, Michael, whose young life went out on Sunday morning last. The funeral was held on Monday, interment being in St. Peter and Paul's cemetery.

Elmira council, Knights of Columbus, will confer the second degree upon several candidates next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Thomas B. Fitzgerald of Madison avenue entertained a company of ladies last Friday afternoon. Miss Lee of Binghamton was among the guests.

A party of young Elmira went to Horseheads Wednesday evening to attend the C. R. & B. A. ball, in Priskard hall.

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church gave a dancing party at St. James hall Friday evening which was largely attended. Flahive's orchestra played and ices were served in the assembly rooms.

The choir of St. Mary's will give a musicale, followed by dancing, at the new parish hall, Monday evening.

Grand Knight Daniel Sheehan and Deputy Grand Knight Michael Danaher attended the state convention of the Knights of Columbus in Brooklyn this week.

The last subscription dance of the Industrial Hall series occurred last Tuesday evening, and proved equally enjoyable to its predecessors. Lunch was served at 1:30. Out of town guests included Misses Lee and Sennot of Binghamton, Sullivan of Scranton, and Robert Burns of Rochester.

A "Country Dance" will close the social gastrics of the pre-lenten season at Industrial hall next Monday evening. Doubtless this novel function will provide endless amusement for the participants.

Auburn.

James Winters Alexander McCabe, Andrew Bryant and William Cowen, returned Monday afternoon to St. Bernard's seminary at Rochester, after spending the mid-year vacation with their parents.

Dr. John Gerin of this city was elected vice-president of the New York State Medical Society on Thursday last.

Miss Elizabeth Delaney has gone to Greater New York to visit friends.

Mortimer Donoran, died at his late home 26 Howard street, Saturday, Feb. 3rd. The funeral was held Monday morning at 8:45, at the house and at 9:30 at the Holy Family church. Interment was at St. Joseph's cemetery.

John Lawler and M. J. Quigley returned Monday afternoon, after several days visit in Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Horton entertained the Hose Euchre Club at their home on Grand avenue last Thursday evening. The prizes were won by Mrs. Gelbert and Mr. Mullin and Mrs. Bryan and Dr. Prof. Conde Luncheon was served and the company enjoyed dancing and singing. Mrs. Rutigan entertained the club last Tuesday, Mrs. Gallagher Friday, and Mrs. Gilfill next Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. F. Hennessey entertained the Afternoon Whist club at her home on Hamilton avenue, Wednesday evening. Prizes were the prettiest yet given. After supper all enjoyed the cake walk by four of the members.

At the K. of C. meeting last Thursday the committee was appointed to prepare for memorial day of the order which is Feb. 22nd. Solemn services at church in the morning and musical services at K. of C. hall at night. An elaborate musical program will be rendered.

Miss Quinlan has returned from Syracuse, accompanied by her sister, Miss Anna.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Alphonsus church Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock, when Miss Alice Welch became the wife of Mr. Frank Meyers. The church was filled with friends. About seventy invited guests partook of the wedding feast. They received beautiful wedding presents in cut-glass, silver and bric-a-brac.

Dr. M. P. Conway and Thos. H. O'Neill left Monday for the K. of C. convention at Brooklyn. They were joined by G. K. McCarty of Geneva, G. R. Clary of Seneca Falls and Martin Maloney of Waterloo, all as delegates.

Miss Brann, organist of the Holy Family church, presided at the organ last Sunday, for the first time since Christmas.

Hornellsville.

Rev. Father Barlow, left Sunday night for Lowell Mass. to attend the fifty anniversary of the ordination to the Priesthood of Father O'Brien. Father O'Brien administered at Hornellsville in 1849.

Mr. Edward F. Flood was home from Albany the forepart of the week.

Rev. Father Paine of Charlotte spent Monday with Father Farrell in this city.

The Young Ladies Sodality gave a delightful party at St. James hall Wednesday evening which was largely attended.

THE ARIZONA KICKER.

There is much excitement in Editorial Life in the West.

Tuesday afternoon last, as we were busy at our editorial table, a stranger entered and began firing at us with two guns. We were too surprised to do any dodging, and our nearest pistol was ten feet away. It was all over in fifteen seconds, however, and the shooter had fired twelve bullets without even grazing our hide. There were three holes in the back of our chair, and a wall received the other bullets. We rose up after awhile and took the man by the neck and slammed him around until he begged for mercy.

He gave his name as Elkins, and said he was on his way from Salt Lake to Prescott. When he arrived here it struck him to try an experiment. He had a curiosity to know whether an editor would fight, and what an editor would say in his dying moments. As a matter of fact, he had nothing against us, and when the affair was over he subscribed for "The Kicker" and paid two years in advance. That was the first time we had sat down without a gun within reach for five years, and nobody need plan on the idea that we will do it again. Had we been "kicked" Mr. Elkins would now be shooting with his forty-fathers. Nevertheless, he got enough at our hands to satisfy him that the editorial fraternity of Arizona is not to be walked on and that any experiments with the craft may result in springing the bear trap.

Mr. A. Herman, will make collections in Auburn all next week.

AMUSEMENTS.

BAKER OPERA HOUSE.

Dainty, delightful Fanny Rice, that ever bubbling source of merriment, humor, rippling music and nimble heels comes to the Baker Theater, Rochester, three nights and a special bargain matinee Wednesday, Feb. 13, 14 and 15, in her very amusing comedy, "At the French Ball." The play is an adaptation from the German whence so many brilliant comedies have been drawn. It is the work of Frederick Schradler of the Washington Post and has been highly praised everywhere. He has fitted Miss Rice admirably. She is a comedienne of rarest temperament and accomplishments. The role she assumes is that of Nancy Patch, the wife of a modest shoemaker. The part enables her to run the whole gamut of the human emotions, but the pathetic strains are few. As Miss Rice is a peevish laugh provoker, and when she utters her cherry presence, clouds vanish and solemn visage melancholy seeks safety in flight. "The Girl from Paris," with its sprightly gaiety and delightfully any melody, has secured its favor by means of an evenly excellent company of comedians, some of whom sing and dance well, and all of whom are expert in comic characterization.

COOK'S.

If costliness be a criterion of excellence in a vaudeville programme, then Manager Moore offers a wonder at Cook Opera House the coming week. Corinne, the light opera star whose name as "Little Corinne" is almost world wide, is the top liner of the programme. She is the latest recruit to vaudeville from the ranks of comic opera stars, and her success has been most flattering. Her fresh sweet voice won fame for her with the grimy Groggin--Did yer ever play checkers? Fatigued Francis--Not much! Yer gave ter move.

Prize for her Thursday.

After the new servant had been installed in the home of a New Jersey housewife the day finally came when the privilege of going out had to be decided on. "This fell on a Thursday, to which the mistress assented. "You may go to-day, Bridget," she said, "and every other Thursday."

"All right, ma'am," replied Bridget. The next week on Thursday surprise was great at Bridget's coming from her room all tugged out for another afternoon out. The mistress rebelled and asked her if she remembered that she was to go out only every other Thursday.

"Certainly I do, ma'am, certainly! Didn't you say I could go out that Thursday and every other Thursday?" "That's my day and every Thursday."

"No, ma'am," replied the mistress, "that's my day and every second Thursday thereafter."

"Sure you didn't say so. You positively told me that Thursday and every other Thursday. Of course that means every Thursday."

"No, ma'am," replied the mistress, "that's my day and every second Thursday thereafter."

"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, naught. Naught, naught! Got the naught?"

"Yes."

"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, naught. Naught, naught! Got the three again?"

"Yes."

"Well that's what I want."

"Oh, you want one, ave, double six, did you?"

A Miracle in Either Case.

As Pat came to the door of his employer's library the meter was in the act of putting a bottle of liquor in the closet. Closing and locking the door of the repository, he turned to Pat and said:

"If I should go away and leave that tempting beverage within your reach, 't would be a miracle if you didn't drink it all."

"Begg'n' yer pardon, sor," answered Pat, "but it'd be more of a miracle if y'd be givin' me the chance."

Advice.

Old Doctor--"Now, my boy, let me give you a word of advice before you go loose and hang out your shingle."

Young Doctor--"I shall be glad to receive it, I assure you."

Old Doctor--"Whenever you are called upon to prescribe for a woman make her put out her tongue, so that you may study it thoroughly. This will seldom help you to determine what her trouble is, but a woman can't talk while she has her tongue out."

Had Seen Them.

A newly married lady was telling another how nicely her husband could write.

"Oh, you should see some of his love letters!"

"Yes, I know," was the freezing reply, "I've got a bushel of them in my trunk."

THE ARIZONA KICKER.

There is much excitement in Editorial Life in the West.

Tuesday afternoon last, as we were busy at our editorial table, a stranger entered and began firing at us with two guns. We were too surprised to do any dodging, and our nearest pistol was ten feet away. It was all over in fifteen seconds, however, and the shooter had fired twelve bullets without even grazing our hide. There were three holes in the back of our chair, and a wall received the other bullets. We rose up after awhile and took the man by the neck and slammed him around until he begged for mercy.

He gave his name as Elkins, and said he was on his way from Salt Lake to Prescott. When he arrived here it struck him to try an experiment. He had a curiosity to know whether an editor would fight, and what an editor would say in his dying moments. As a matter of fact, he had nothing against us, and when the affair was over he subscribed for "The Kicker" and paid two years in advance. That was the first time we had sat down without a gun within reach for five years, and nobody need plan on the idea that we will do it again. Had we been "kicked" Mr. Elkins would now be shooting with his forty-fathers. Nevertheless, he got enough at our hands to satisfy him that the editorial fraternity of Arizona is not to be walked on and that any experiments with the craft may result in springing the bear trap.

Mr. A. Herman, will make collections in Auburn all next week.

AMUSEMENTS.

BAKER OPERA HOUSE.

Dainty, delightful Fanny Rice, that ever bubbling source of merriment, humor, rippling music and nimble heels comes to the Baker Theater, Rochester, three nights and a special bargain matinee Wednesday, Feb. 13, 14 and 15, in her very amusing comedy, "At the French Ball." The play is an adaptation from the German whence so many brilliant comedies have been drawn. It is the work of Frederick Schradler of the Washington Post and has been highly praised everywhere. He has fitted Miss Rice admirably. She is a comedienne of rarest temperament and accomplishments. The role she assumes is that of Nancy Patch, the wife of a modest shoemaker. The part enables her to run the whole gamut of the human emotions, but the pathetic strains are few. As Miss Rice is a peevish laugh provoker, and when she utters her cherry presence, clouds vanish and solemn visage melancholy seeks safety in flight. "The Girl from Paris," with its sprightly gaiety and delightfully any melody, has secured its favor by means of an evenly excellent company of comedians, some of whom sing and dance well, and all of whom are expert in comic characterization.

COOK'S.

If costliness be a criterion of excellence in a vaudeville programme, then Manager Moore offers a wonder at Cook Opera House the coming week. Corinne, the light opera star whose name as "Little Corinne" is almost world wide, is the top liner of the programme. She is the latest recruit to vaudeville from the ranks of comic opera stars, and her success has been most flattering. Her fresh sweet voice won fame for her with the grimy Groggin--Did yer ever play checkers? Fatigued Francis--Not much! Yer gave ter move.

Prize for her Thursday.

After the new servant had been installed in the home of a New Jersey housewife the day finally came when the privilege of going out had to be decided on. "This fell on a Thursday, to which the mistress assented. "You may go to-day, Bridget," she said, "and every other Thursday."

"All right, ma'am," replied Bridget. The next week on Thursday surprise was great at Bridget's coming from her room all tugged out for another afternoon out. The mistress rebelled and asked her if she remembered that she was to go out only every other Thursday.

"Certainly I do, ma'am, certainly! Didn't you say I could go out that Thursday and every other Thursday?" "That's my day and every Thursday."

"No, ma'am," replied the mistress, "that's my day and every second Thursday thereafter."

"Sure you didn't say so. You positively told me that Thursday and every other Thursday. Of course that means every Thursday."

"No, ma'am," replied the mistress, "that's my day and every second Thursday thereafter."

"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, naught. Naught, naught! Got the naught?"

"Yes."

"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, naught. Naught, naught! Got the three again?"

"Yes."

"Well that's what I want."

"Oh, you want one, ave, double six, did you?"

A Miracle in Either Case.

As Pat came to the door of his employer's library the meter was in the act of putting a bottle of liquor in the closet. Closing and locking the door of the repository, he turned to Pat and said:

"If I should go away and leave that tempting beverage within your reach, 't would be a miracle if you didn't drink it all."

"Begg'n' yer pardon, sor," answered Pat, "but it'd be more of a miracle if y'd be givin' me the chance."

Advice.

Old Doctor--"Now, my boy, let me give you a word of advice before you go loose and hang out your shingle."

Young Doctor--"I shall be glad to receive it, I assure you."

Old Doctor--"Whenever you are called upon to prescribe for a woman make her put out her tongue, so that you may study it thoroughly. This will seldom help you to determine what her trouble is, but a woman can't talk while she has her tongue out."

Had Seen Them.

A newly married lady was telling another how nicely her husband could write.

"Oh, you should see some of his love letters!"

"Yes, I know," was the freezing reply, "I've got a bushel of them in my trunk."

