From Our Special Correspondents.

CORNING.

Miss Agnes Conlon has returned from Buffalo.

Yesterday (Friday) Robert Emmett's birthday was celebrated appropriately by Diocesan No. 1, A. O. H. of this city.

Among our Catholics there seems to be such a great revival of religious and dramatic, and yet, if memory serves us aright, there was no entertainment, no demonstration on St. Patrick's Day last year.

March came and went like any old day and only a few bits of green pinned to coat lapels and a gladder look than usual in some true Irish eyes, gave token that it was the day of days to Catholic Ireland.

Dr. T. A. McNamara is, at this writing, confined to his home by illness.

Kindly impulses come to all of us at times but the number of those who act upon such occasions and "strike while the iron is hot," is sufficiently small to make the discovery of an action that was genuinely kind, and really impulsive, really refreshing.

Enormous crowds are in attendance at morning and evening Lenten services at all the city churches.

Miss Mary A. Donovan, is visiting in Washington.

E. M. Tierney attended the banquet of the Binghamton Board of Trade, held in the "Parlor City" Tuesday evening.

Lady Hill. It is with deep sorrow and regret that we chronicle the death of Robert J. Fleming, which sad event took place at his home in Greece Town, Wednesday morning after having been well fortified by the sacraments of the Church. Mr. Fleming was born in Philadelphia in 1835, and moved here with his parents when quite young, about thirty years ago, and has resided here since that time.

Mr. Fleming was a true and sincere Christian man, active in church matters. His refinement of every thought and every sense, which is more characteristic and dignified human intercourse without restricting its naturalness or its cordiality—a glad and sincere appreciation of worth—a sociability which drew instinctively without seeming to draw distinction of worth from his contented privacy, he looked out upon a larger world with keen interest and accurate judgment; he saw the good of life in its due proportion, overlooking such of the evils as he was not called to contend with himself, so his life had its rich share of happiness and the sorrows which must come in every journey of so long a duration as his. Never for an instant had power to overcome a spirit as rare and gentle—the example of this rare Catholic gentleman, who died without thinking evil of any—remains to inspire a family of varied talents and occupations. Those who knew him only knew him to speak such sentiments of a devoted husband and affectionate father. He is survived by his wife and thirteen children, six sons, James S. and Joseph E., Charlotte, Robert J., of Omaha, Neb.; William C. of Birmingham, Pa., and Justin and Eugene P. of Greece, and seven daughters, Mrs. Bernard Neary, Mrs. James Neary, Mrs. William Pickens, Mary E., Alice M., Clara and Louise of Greece, also one brother, James J. of Charlotte, a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated Saturday morning at the Church of Our Mother of Sorrows. May his soul rest in peace. The following gentlemen acted as bearers: Frank Defendorf, Richard Bemish, Michael Gallery, Patrick Wheelahan, Dennis Sheehan, Matthew Hugen, Hornellsville.

"Death loves a shining mark." This is an old saying, but events of the past week remind us forcibly of the truth of the saying. It is my painful duty to chronicle the death of three of our most exemplary young ladies, which has occurred since our last issue. Just blossoming into lovely womanhood they were snatched away by a sudden Bright, cheerful, and intelligent in their classes at school, the life and joy of their homes, they gave promise of many years of usefulness, but in so short a time all hopes are blighted, and the homes that were so cheerful and happy by their presence are now filled with sorrow. It is not alone their homes that are afflicted, but the large circle of their young friends felt keenly the loss of their beloved companions. The first sad announcement was the death of Lisette Tracy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tracy, which occurred on Friday after a short illness. She was a little over sixteen years of age. Next day, Saturday, occurred the death of Julia Solan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Solan, aged seventeen years, who also died after a short illness. On Monday the young friends of Miss Jennie Bryson were startled to hear that she had died. She had only been sick since Friday, and but few outside of the family were aware of her condition. She was eighteen years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bryson. "Death loves a shining mark," and in the above instances he has reaped a rich harvest.

Thomas Smith who was hurt in the wreck of train 8, at Great Bend, some time ago, was brought to his home in this city Saturday.

A number from this city took in the excursion to New York Tuesday.

AMUSEMENTS.

BAKER OPERA HOUSE.

That popular American play "In Old Kentucky," which has countless thousands of friends in all parts of the country, will be seen at the Baker theatre the first two nights of next week, with bargain matinee on Tuesday.

Everybody remembers "In Old Kentucky" with its spirited horse race its dancing and singing pikaninnies, its lovely heroine and its minstrel-jupee loving Kentucky colonel, Manager Jacob Lutz has provided a lot of new scenery and the company is stronger than ever. Lulu Tabor plays the heroine Madge—a part with which she has been identified for several seasons and in which she has scored an emphatic hit.

Wednesday and Thursday the Shubert Stock Co. will present "Camille."

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Its regular vaudeville "Carnival of the Best in all branches of entertainment that is offered at Cook Opera House the coming week.

Press Eldridge alone would be attraction enough to fill any theatre in Rochester, for who is it that has not laughed at his soaps, his jokes and general manner.

However, the management is apparently not contented with one feature, but has a lot of others just as clever as Eldridge.

Take Harry LeRoy for instance, he could easily be announced as the star of any travelling company, for he is without doubt the greatest jumper out in barrels, over chairs, etc., that the world has ever seen.

Reno and Richards and the eccentric tricycle tumblers are so well known here that little need be said about them.

Duffy Sawelle and Duffy are a trio of comedians, that from all reports will repeat their success here, one of the three is a youngster six years old who played for President McKinley and family.

Alme Doerge, a sweet pretty girl will sing some, dance some, and tell a few German jokes.

No better pair of colored performers live than Johnson and Dean.

If you don't see what you want on this bill you are truly hard to please, but doubtless Cook Opera House will do a record breaking business never the less.

Catarrah Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrah is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrah Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrah Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians of this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrah. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.
