

Heenan & Doyle,

Begin to Announce

THEIR OPENING

Of New Millinery Department,
Saturday, April 1st.

Imported Round Hats, Bonnets
and Toques. London and Paris Ideas in connection with creations from the most Artistic Milliners of 5th Avenue, New York.

Millinery Parlors, 2d Floor Front,
Under the Supervision of Madame McAvoy,
New York.

Extraordinary values on Saturday to commemorate the Event—
Easter Bonnets will be offered much below regular value.

New Spring Suits, Spring Jackets, Separate Skirts and Waists.
Large Variety of the most Stylish Garments at popular prices.

Millinery, Underwear, Corsets and Children's Department 2nd Floor, Suits, Skirts, Jackets, Waists, Ribbons and Fancy Goods
1st Floor.

THE GLOBE,

38 East Main Street,

Near Arcade

John C. King,

111 East Main Street,

Household Furniture

of all kinds. All grades of CARPETS, RUGS, OIL CLOTHS, MATTINGS, etc. In fact everything that furnishes

A HOME

Strictly Pure Hair Mattresses. Pure Live Geese Feathers.
Iron Bedsteads and Springs. A full line of Children's Go-Carts and carriages.

Bring the children out for an Easter Outing.

John C. King,

111 East Main St.

Genesee Brewing Co.'s

Fine Bottled Beers.

Stock Lager and

American

Liebotschaner.

Bottling Department at the Brewery.

Telephone 71.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

DIOCESAN NEWS.

What Our Friends in the Surrounding Parishes are Doing.

OUR AGENTS.

Mr. A. Herman will be in Ithaca
next week.

Ithaca.

Miss Kathryn E. C. Carrigan is visiting relatives in Syracuse.

Last Tuesday evening Miss Susie Shannon entertained a few of her friends in honor of her cousin, Mr. Shannon of Corning.
Progressive eucure was the enjoyment of the evening. Misses Julia Galliger and Nellie Shannon received the first prizes, and Anna V. McAuliffe was awarded the booby prize.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Feeley, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. John McAuliffe, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Driscoll, a daughter.

Good Friday evening an eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. Father J. Gibbons of Auburn.

Miss Julia Mahoney of Trumansburg has been visiting friends in this city.

The Ithaca Cycle Club Minstrels will give a rehearsal on Tuesday evening next.

The 203d regiment arrived home Monday evening. They were met at the depot by Gen. Duncan Lee, the famous Ithaca band, and a host of friends. They were taken to the New Ithaca in hacks, where they were given a good time by their old Ithaca friends, who were glad to see them back again.

The Ithaca High School is to have a large annex, which will be commenced as soon as school closes in June.

Miss Mamie Flannery is spending Easter
in Elmira.

Miss Janet Rundle has just returned from a trip to Cortland.

Mason Ingalls, Frank Alexander, George Geherity and Fred Priest of Cortland are spending Easter in Ithaca.

Charley Connors of Trumansburg is visiting in Ithaca.

Genesee.

Timothy C. Ragan visited friends in Rochester Sunday.

Michael J. Ryan of New York city was home on a visit.

The "Jolly Eachers" club meet with Mrs.
Wm. A. Healy on Oak street next Tuesday evening, April 4th.

Misses Celia and Anna Conlin visited friends in Rochester this week.

Michael Neville has sold his place at the depot to Naff & Neff, and his daughters have purchased a cottage on North street of H.
Curtis.

James B. Costello has been confined to his home for the past seven weeks with neuralgia.

The services at St. Mary's church during Lent were well attended. The sermons on Wednesday evenings were interesting and instructive.

Miss Josephine O'Meara is visiting relatives in Danville this week.

W. Tolson has purchased the Graham homestead in Formanville.

Terrence McDonald has purchased the tenement house on Park street belonging to the gas company, and will move it to his vacant lot on Elizabeth street.

The many friends of Miss Johanna Cahill
are glad to see her out after several weeks'
suffering with rheumatism.

Miss Mary J. Biggins returned last week from New York where she has been selecting her spring and summer millinery.

The usual Easter services will be observed in St. Mary's church. Mass at 11 a. m.

A concert is to be given by the Genesee Cornet band at Concert hall, Friday evening April 7th, and the hall should be crowded, as they will give a rare and varied programme of vocal and instrumental music.

Terrence Dolan, formerly of this village
but lately of Avon, has leased the McMahon bla kmith shop in Moscow and is moving his family there this week. His friends wish him success.

Miss Elizabeth O'Leary left on Tuesday
for New York city, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. B. Carpenter, for two weeks.

A new sanctuary lamp has been placed in St. Mary's church.

On Monday night about 12 o'clock fire was discovered in the Cone building on Main street, occupied by P. Henzman as a news room, Wm. A. Dailey's meat market and Osborn Bros., barber shop. It had gained some headway before the fire companies arrived. Three streams of water were turned on, and the fire was soon extinguished. Mr. Haley estimates his loss at $400, insured; Cone building damaged about $200. The Ayrault building was damaged to the extent of $100. John Toole, who occupied the south store of the Ayrault block as a meat market, sustained a slight loss.

Elmira.

Dr. M. Pembroke Congdon, T. J.
Mangan, and J. B. Normile of Binghamton, were guests of Elmira friends Sunday.

Miss Mary Virginia Donovan of this city, will sing the name part in the coming production of "Prisilla" at Corning, to be given under the auspices of the Alliance Hook & Ladder Company. A number of Elmira will attend the production.

Elmira Knights of Columbus in goodly numbers will go to Waverly Monday night,
to attend the Easter ball, given by the Waverly council.

The Father Matthew Society, to the number of about one hundred received holy communion in a body at SS. Peter and Paul's church last Sunday.

The Easter Monday night concert to be given at Stancliff hall, under the auspices of St. John's Church Society, promises to be a brilliant artistic and financial success.
Assisting in the following well known local musicians: W. Treason, M. Henry, baritone; Miss Letitia Horgan, soprano;

Mr. George F. Bambrury, tenor; Miss Agnes Reardon, violinist. After the concert dancing will be enjoyed, for which Mulcaire's string orchestra will play.

Supt. J. F. Maguire, of the Erie, at Jersey City, visited at his old home in this city Wednesday.

Miss Roman's spring millinery opening occurred Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and brought out a large number of the fair sex.

Miss Teresa McCarthy of Waverly was the guest of Miss Fanny Lynch during the week.

The grim reaper of death has invaded many Elmira homes during the past few days. At her late residence on Pennsylvania Avenue, occurred the death of Mrs.
Mary Deasey, Saturday last, after a prolonged illness. The funeral was held Tuesday morning from St. Mary's church, Rev.
Father O'Dwyer officiating. Mrs. Thomas Durant rendered "Lead Kindly Light" in a fitting manner. The casket was borne by six young men, grandchildren of the deceased. Interment was in SS. Peter and Paul's cemetery.

Another home was darkened by the shadow of death, Monday last, when the life of Mrs. Catherine Lynch went out. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the family home on Davis street, and later from St. Patrick's church, solemn requiem high mass being celebrated by Rev. Father Bloomer, Lee and Moriarty. The burial was in SS. Peter and Paul's cemetery.

John D. Driscoll, a member of the 203d Regiment, has returned to his home in this city.

A large number of Elmira merchants
closed their places of business Good Friday, between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock.

The wonderfully successful mission which has been in progress at St. Mary's church, closed last Sunday evening, when the spacious edifice was crowded to the street.

Easter, the grandest feast of the Christian world is once more in our midst, and the festival will be celebrated with all pomp and ceremony in our churches Sunday morning. Elaborate musical programs have been prepared by many of the choirs.

The cast for "At the Old Homestead," which is to be produced at St. James' hall, Wednesday evening of next week, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church, are hard at work, and a splendid production is looked for. James H. Collins, the talented young coach has selected a capable cast, which includes Messrs. George Brickwedde, Edward Mahoney, Edward Moxley, Charles Lynch, Misses Helen Gosgrove, Anna O'Connor, Katherine Moonan and Mollie Fennell.
Prominent local singers will appear between the acts, and dancing will follow the performance.

A young singer of much promise is Miss Anna Sullivan, whose beautiful voice was heard in Faure's "The Palms" at St. Patrick's church last Sunday. Although young in years, Miss Sullivan's voice shows remarkable development, and with careful use will doubtless earn for its possessor an enviable reputation amongst our leading singers.

Auburn.

Rev. P. A. Neville of East Bloomfield, preached the usual Lenten sermon at the Holy Family church last Wednesday.

H. B. Sommers, J. A. Hennessy and John Farrell spent Monday in Syracuse.
They were pleasantly entertained by brother Knights of Columbus during their stay in that city.

P. J. Durher of Geneva, spent a day in Auburn the guest of friends.

Hon. C. W. Wheeler, one of the best known men in Auburn, died at his home
last Saturday and was buried on Tuesday last. Mr. Wheeler was ex-mayor of Auburn and was beloved by all. He was most charitable and although a non-Catholic,
his purse was opened to Catholics as well as his own institutions.

Auburn is to be congratulated on its many improvements. The latest one is the big store which was opened Thursday last by Messrs. Foster, Ross & Bacus. It is one of the finest dry goods stores in the state.

Auburn society people are awaiting with pleasure the grand ball to be given by Auburn council, Knights of Columbus at Music hall on Easter Monday night. Arrangements are completed and it promises to surpass any of its kind given here. Many guests are expected from Buffalo, Rochester, Elmira, Binghamton, Cortland, Ithaca, Geneva, Seneca Falls, Syracuse, Fairfield,
Fulton, and Oswego.

Elaborate musical programmes in all the churches are prepared for Easter Sunday. At the Holy Family church an orchestra will assist the choir and organ. Edward Marzo's Kyrie, Gloria and Sanctus with Mursandante's Credo and Agnus Dei will be sung with organ and orchestral accompaniment.
A special hymn will be sung.
Offeratory by a quartette and after services "To-day He has Risen" will be sung. At 7:30 p. m. Buhler's responders will be sung then solemn vespers will be given Trojan's Magnificat by sanctuary choir, McCabe's Ave Marai by Mr. Walter Har-getts, O'Salutans by Mr. Hennessy and Polleri's Tatum ergo by the quartette
Emory's Laudate Dominum, obligato solo
by Mrs. Conder with soloists and choros.

The church quartette will sing mass in the prison Easter Sunday morning.

Mrs. Catherine Quinn, wife of Thomas Quinn of the firm of Quinn & McCarthy, died at her residence, the Norwood hotel in the town of Fleming, aged 39 years. She had been in ill health for some time. She is survived besides her husband, by one daughter Iva a student at Nazareth academy, Rochester, and one son, Elmo, of Fleming. Funeral services were held on Thursday at 11 a. m. at the Holy Family church. On account of its being Holy Thursday the services were brief and was conducted in the vestibule of the church. Burial in St. Joseph's cemetery.

The funeral of Mary, wife of James Nolan,
who died Monday, was held from the family home, No. 9 Francis street, Wednesday morning at 9 with services at 9:30 o'clock and was largely attended. The services consisted of a high mass of requiem and the burial services Rev. J. J. Gibbons officiating.
The remains were laid to rest in the family plot in St. Joseph's cemetery. The bearers were Messrs. Nolan, Farrell, Lynch, Gail, Adams
and Bowen.

FAHY, SCHANTZ, BULLOCK CO.

156-158-160 East Main.

Hosiery Special, 25c.

The 45c drop-stitch pure listle thread Hose, full regular made, at 25c to-day.

A Worthy $1 Glove for 79.

This is a lot of women's Glove Gloves that are particularly good, gloves that are a rarity at such a price. Strong, durable, well made, nice fitting and stylish. They are in all sizes and the prevailing colors, modes, grays, tans, medium browns and black, at 79c a pair.
Our Glove Department is full of everything that is new and spring-like.

New Fancy Hosiery.

New styles of women's Hosiery. Loud! Some of those plaids and stripes are sorechers, but they are fashionable; some of them are sedately beautiful. However in this stock the sedate ones predominate, but both kinds are here so take your pick—25, 35, 50c pair.

Easter Linens.

You know when we say linens we mean linens. If there's an admix ure of tow or cotton in any of the goods we sell, we are equally frank about it. There are the all-linen kind of linens—priced almost as cheaply as cottons it is true, but that's a way we have.
72-inch $1 25 full bleached Table Linen $1.
60-inch half-bleached Table Linen, good value at 50c and pure linen; our Easter price is 39c.

Great values to-day in hemmed Huck Towels at 12½c each.

Easter Candy

To-day we open our new Candy Department in the Basement which makes it handy for all to buy. 20c Chocolate Creams to-day at 10c pound—just to make you acquainted with the department.
20c Marshmallows, vanilla flavor, at 10c.
Remember our 5c lunch—best on earth.

Fur Collarettes.

Last call on Fur Collarettes: the prices we offer on the balance of our stock should enable us to close same to-day.
2 extra quality electric seal, satin lined Capes, formerly $15.; now $7.98.
4 extra quality electric seal, Persian lamb yoke, satin lined, formerly $15. now $7.98
6 extra quality electric seal astrakhan yoke, satin lined, formerly $7. now $3.98.
10 Baltic Seal astrakhan yoke, silk lined Capes, formerly $5; now
$2.50.

1 stone marten, electric seal yoke and tabs, was $10. now $5.
5 imitation stone marten Boss, formerly $4.98; price to close, 98c.

Lace Department.

Do you wish to buy a swell piece of neckwear to wear with your Easter gown? If you do, we are showing the handsomest line ever displayed in Rochester. Space will not allow us to describe the large variety of neck fixings. All we ask is to have you call and our salespeople will be pleased to show how the pretty things are worn.

We wish to impress on your minds that we are showing over 200 styles in the latest novelties of Veiling and only have two pieces.
The 95c quality always 12½c yard; the 50c quality always 9c yard.

Ribbons.

We are showing all the latest novelties in Fancy Ribbons; the low prices we are selling them at will surprise you. Our salespeople tie all the late-t style bows while you wait without extra charge.

P. J. Joyce & Co.,

Mfg. Opticians.

Room 49 Exchange Place Bldg.
Third Floor. Elevator 16 State St.

We Fit, Grind and Make any Style Desired.

The Imperial Red Cross Range!

America's Greatest Production in the Stove World.

The popular favorite of the housewife. The envy of all competitors.

Manufactured by

Co-Operative Foundry Co.

FOR SALE BY

H. Lester, 156 West Main st., cor. Washington.
H. B. Graves, 116 and 118 State st.
Wm. J. Brayer, 385 Jay st., corner Childs
D. McCormick, 528 State st.
J. M. Krau-neck, 307 Lake ave.
Bascom & Morgan, cor. Spring and Fitzhugh sts.
Chas. Schultz, 672 N. Clinton st.

Jas H. Brown, 372 North st., cor. Woodbury ave.
Kennedy & Co., 22 South St. Paul t.
C. D. Then, 396 St. Joseph st.
L. J. Marchand, 488 East Main st.
Wm. Rohr, First ave., cor. Central park.
Fleming & Renner, 87 South ave.
L. Strauss, 533 St. Joseph St
D. C. McCrease, 373 Lyellave.

LEWIS EDELMAN,

Dealer in D. L. & W. COALS,

40 North Ave., near N. Y. C. R. R. Tel. 576. Rochester, N. Y.

Cook Opera House.

J. H. Moore, Manager.

2 to 5, 7:30 to 11 p. m. Daily

Only Continuous Show in Town

Week Beginning April 8.

Gladsome Easter Bill

JOHN C. RICE and
SALLY COHEN,

In the "Kleptomaniacs,"

3—RACKET BROS.—3
Musical Hostlers.

ECKERT & BERG,
Operatic Stars.

A. O. DUNCAN,
Comedian.

DICK and ALICE McAVOY,
Hogan's Alley Kids.

GRACE HAZZARD,
Novel Act.

W. H. MURPHY,
Tramp Comedy.

A JOLLY SHOW.
Matinees Every Day.

Prices Still 10c, 15c and 20c.

Rochester's Handsomest Playhouse.

The New BAKER Theatre

Management Shubert Brothers.

7th Week beginning April 8d.

Matinees Tuesday Thursday
and Saturday. Special matinee
Easter Monday.

Shubert Stock Company.

Will present Alexander Dumas' Great Society Drama.

The Crust Of Society.

By the full strength of the Company.

Prices, Evening, 15c, 25c, 50c,
Matinee, 15c and 50c.

PHONE 279
COACHES, COUPES & LIVERY.
CONY STABLES, 101 N. WILSON AVE.