The annual election of officers will take place in the several divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the city and county of Monroe during the week. Commencing with Division No. 2, on June 5th, Company A Hibernian Rifles on June 6th, also Divisions Nos. 5 and 6 on the 7th, Divisions Nos. 3 and 4 on the 8th and Division Nos. 1, 7 and 9 of Fairport, with Pittsford and others to follow.

This time it falls to the lot of Division No. 2 to set the pace in selecting the officers, and while the present incumbents have filled their offices true and well, there is still room for new blood and there is no doubt, but Div. 2 will start in by selecting the cream of its members to make up the county officers, and preside over its deliberations and which ever of the two aspirants succeed at the head no one will dispute but what C. O'Neill or M. B. O'Neill will perform their duty well. Then follows the bi-annual election of officers in the pioneer branch of the organization, the Hibernian Rifles and there is an assurance that they will not be behind in their selection and as M. Quillivan is looked upon as the Father of the organization, having been in its ranks for 30 years and for 20 years its commander it is only a matter of time till the "grand old man" is again chosen to succeed himself. As in the divisions it is expected that lively contests will be on for the other offices, Division No. 1, will not be behind in this respect as both the brothers contesting for the place of honor are worthy, and as their names implies, they are the "get there" kind, they being James E. Burke and John J. Murphy, and, we believe from looking carefully over the situation, there is a disposition to put the right men again at the helm.
