Begin. Tuesday, July 25, the City of Three Rivers, Canada, was in every sense of the term, en fete. The occasion was the consecration of his Lordship Mgr. Cloutler, as Bishop of Three Rivers. in succession to the late Bishop Latleche. The cathedral was magnificently decorated, as was also the High Altar, which was ablaze with myriads of colored electric lights. On one side of the altar was a large mitre in many-hued electric lights and on the other was a crozier. Archbishop Begin was the conse-crating prelate, and besides him there were present Archbishop Duhamel, of Ottawa, and thirteen other Canadian Bishops, and the Bishop of Syracuse, N. Y.

Bishop Gravel, of Nicolet, was the pneacher. He took for his text the words of Our Lord: Ite, docite omnes mentes-"Go forth and teach all na-tions." The ceremony of that day, he James said reminded him of the Apostle's words: "Your sorrow shall be turned into joy." The days of their mourning had passed, and joy had come upon the priests and people of the diocese, who were noted for their devotion to their Bishops. Personally Over Beadle & Sherburne Co's. he was delighted that Mgr. Cloutier had been elevated to the ranks of the episcopate. His family had already, given ten of its members to the Church. He was an intimate friend of the late bishop, and he was a man of great zeal, ability, and holiness. He congratulated the diocese upon its new Bishop. After the ceremonies Bishop Cloutier was the recipient of an address from the citizens, read by the Mayor: a joint address from the members of the C. M. B. A., the C. O. F., and the Union St. Joseph; and an address from the members of the Bar of the district. A grand banquet was then given in honor of the newly-consecrated prelate .-- The True Witness.
