CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

What is Transpiring in the Different Fraternities

C. W. B. I.

Through the untiring efforts of State Deputy Mrs. Anna Powell, of this city, a new Council of the "Catholic Woman's Benevolent Legion," to be known as "Trinity," Council, No. 150, was organized in the Durand Hall, on West Main street, Wednesday evening of this week. This new Council makes a total of nine Councils of this popular and growing organization in Rochester, and there are two more in the course of formation. There will be no assessment for the month of September, and as assessments are levied only at stated intervals, it makes this organization low in cost, and as it is one of the safest and most reliable of its kind, a great increase is expected in membership. The following are the officers of the new Council: President, Mrs. Mary A. Roche; vice-president, Miss Nellie Crowley; chancellor, Mrs. Anna Fitzpatrick; orator, Miss Nora Cahill; collector, Miss Nellie O'Hara; treasurer, Mrs. Rose Bishop; secretary, Miss Marcelle Crowley; trustees, Mrs. Mary E. Burns, Miss Johanna Buckley and Mrs. Belle Brennan; marshal, Mrs. Matilda Carroll; guard, Miss Johanna Mahar.

The new officers named above have taken hold with a will, and are going to work hard for new members and will try to make "Trinity" Council the banner Council of Rochester.

At the last regular meeting of Division 7 Auxiliary of A. O. H., the following resolutions were adopted on the death of Mrs. Catherine Crowley, who departed this life the 17th day of August, 1899:

Resolved, That this Auxiliary extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved members of the family, and

Resolved, That a Mass be offered up for the repose of her soul; and

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes and a copy be sent to the sorrowing family, and be published in the CATHOLIC JOURNAL.

Committee, Marie Egan and Elizabeth McCallion.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Wednesday morning, August 30th, at 10 a. m., at the Church of Our Mother of Sorrows, Tillie Quin was married to John P. Wheelahan.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the ushers, Messrs. Leo Wheelahan and Walter Goodin entered the church, and to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Mrs. Colligan, the bridal party proceeded to the altar in the following order: W. J. Wheelahan and Maggie Quinn, Czarina B. Hebert and Geo. Sheldon. Solemn High Mass was celebrated. Father Quinn, brother of the bride, was celebrant; Father Murphy, cousin of the bride, deacon; Father Staub, sub-deacon; Mgr. De Regge, master of ceremonies; Father Payne, assistant master of ceremonies.

At the close of the impressive ceremony, the bride and groom led the way from the church. The invited guests proceeded to the residence of Father Quinn to extend congratulations. The wedding breakfast was served by Mrs. Meyers.

The bride was attired with exquisite simplicity in a close-fitting white satin, en train, pearl trimmings, flowing veil of tulle, held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. In her left hand she carried a white prayer book. The maid of honor and bridesmaid were dressed in white organdies over taffeta, and wore picture hats.

To the young couple we wish they may drink deeply and long of every spring of happiness and prosperity, and we join their hosts of friends in congratulations, and pray that their hearts may be
