One of the most shocking deaths that has occurred here in some time was that of young Wictor Ely, who was literally cut in two in front of the Eric station and before the eyes of many horrified spectators by a freight train which he endeavored to board as it was going at a high rate of speed. He was jerked beneath the wheels, which passed gins, of that city. over his body below the arms, killing him instantly. The accident occurred Saturday. just after noon. Young Ely's intention was to catch the freight and ride to Elmira, where he expected to spend the afternoon. Not realizing the speed of the train as it passed, he took hold with his hands and was enstantly swept from his feet and dragged beneath the wheels. Young Victor has been residing with his grandmother, Mrs. Ely, both his parents being dead. He was a bright and intelligent and likable boy of nineteen, full of spirits and a gaiety which sometimes amounted to recklessness Frank, genial and lively, he made friends everywhere and had no enemies. Just a week be fore his death he had been received into the Coming Council of Knights of Columbus. The tuneral was held from St. Mary's Church Monday morning. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Kev.
