What is Being Done by the Paople at teme-Yarious Items From Every Section of the Emeruld Isle.

CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.

Among the successes at the recent examinations, at the Royal University Joseph A. Waters, Nuns' Island, and Thomas J. McDonagh, High street, have obtained the M. B., B. Ch., B. A. O., Medical Degrees of the Royal University of Ireland. Dr. Waters graduated from the Queen's College, Galway, and the Catholic University School of Medicine, Dublin, and Mr. McDonagh also graduated from the Catholic Uni-& wersity School of Medicine.

On the Sunday within the Octave of the Feast of St. Francis special devotion was observed at the Abber Church, Galway. There was a crowded congregation. The new shrine and statuary which had been unveiled on Wednesday previous—the Feast Day was an object of much interest. The statuary is modeled after the famous z painting of Murillo, representing St. Francis. rising superior to the world and its vanities, pushing away with the great necessity for the immediate and Leighlin, presided It was recited his foot the earth in the form of a seglobe and embracing the crucifix, while laborers of the town, and ccomplain. Mass was ceclebrated immediately afthe Redeemer looks down benignly on ing of the unreasonable delay of the ter. his servant and extends His right arm Council in furthering the scheme. from the cross to help on and encourage the saint. The shrine on which the statuary rests is also very handsome, and the whole work is very football club will present Mr. Thomas foundation stone of the new Church of Rev Father Bracken, C. C. Tullacreditable to the Very Rev. Guardian I Father O'Connor.

the death of Mrs. Colleran. Annakeen, Headford, on Oct. 8. She was mother of Rev. Martin Colleran, C. C., Milltown, Tuam, and Sr. M. De Sales, the Convent of Mercy, Clifden, She breathed forth her soul with beads in ther bands and the sweet name of Jesus Mary and Joseph on her lips. Solemn High Mass was celebrated in Claren Church on Oct. 11.

With profound regret we chronicle

Mr. Edward Byrne, who was formerr by managing editor of the Freeman's in introducing Most Rev. Dr. Clancy. Journal, died in Tuam, his native place on Oct. 13. For the past two years he had dropped out of journalism, but in his day he was one of the best known among the Irish Pressmen. Born in Thank he took an active part is the a Cameric Galway election, and was one with an industry which has decome so of the witnesses who subsequently gave evidence at the hearing of the Morning News and the Freeman's Dourst, under the late Mr. Edmond most everything to say with the un- roll. -compromising Parnellite stand made why the Freeman's Journal at the split. policy that when the Freeman's Jour-So completely wedded was he to that nal charged its tactics under young Mr. Oray, Dr. Byrne resigned as edit-He was associated with Mr. Paranell his the starting of the Irish Daily Andependent, and when that journal was finally started Dr. Byrne took the post of editor and became one of the directors of the company. In consequence of failing health he severed his connections with the Independent office two years ago. One of the saddest points of his sudden demise was that: he had a prospect of getting back to his journalistic work in a very short time. He went to his native place (Tunn) on Wednesday. Dr. Byrne was brilliant leader writer with wonderful information, and a keen intel-

LEITRIM.

ways popular.

lect. Among his colleagues he was al-

The Sligo Champion, in issue of Oct. 14, commencing on the peaceful condition of County Leitrim, said: There is no crime in County Leitrim. County Court Judge Waters was on Wednesday, at the Manorhamilton Quarter Sessions, presented with while gloves, in commemoration of the stainless record of the inhabitants during the past six months. The people are peaceable, independent, organized and self-respecting. Who are the lawbreakers? Who seek to sully the fair fame of the country? The Executive Government, who imported into Dromabair a band of uniformed ruffians to baton and bludgeon their fellow-countrymen in the name of law, and the grabbers, removables and perjured officials at whose instance the proclamation was issued.

The death on Oct. 8 of Mr. Stephen F McGrail, Fuiltaghan, Drumkeerin, at the fine old age of 86 years, was deeply windthd widely regretted. It is but a few momenths since the American papers a gove an account of the death of Mr. Hugh McGrail (a son of deceased), who was engaged in extensive business in Maynard, Mass. Rev. John Mc-Graff, of Brockton, Mass., whose death | pendent. His demise is deepl rewas recorded a few years ago at the marly age of 37 years, was a son of decreased. The funeral was large and representative. Very Rev. J. Dolan

MAYO.

Miss Mary K. Gibbons, of Mili street Westport, was married on Oct. to Police Constable Edward P. Ker-

Rev. John J. Corcoran has been appointed curate in Augha gower, to replace Bather Moran, who has been dransferred to Clomberne, near Tuam. Members of the Groaghparick branch of the United Irish League held a meeting in Murrisk League Blooms recently to collect for Mr. Forten's kund, and a good sum was www.becribed.

Over ten thousand dollars were ac-Liowledged lately as subscriptions to no new church of Castlebar, Most Bey Dr. McEvilly. Archbishop of gave three thousand dollars and lating lyons, the pastor, gave one accusate five hundred dollars se actualistic ovation was given Asset (10) and the control of the c

The state of the s

procession was an immense assemblage and the United Leaguers and sympathisers escorted her through the town. Speeches were delivered, and there was great enthusiasm.

ROSCOMMON

Mr. A. Oates, Vice-President of the Cootehall branch of the United Irish League, presided at last meeting of the members. The following resolution, proposed by the chairman and Swords, Miss English. seconded by Mr. Regan, was carried: "That we call on the Boyle No. 1 District Council to oppose applications ley. for new roads and repairs, some of years. We warn those gentlemen who term of office has expired if they come forward for re-election the ratepayers will know how to deal with them."

At a mee ing of the District Countion of supplying the town with pure Carlow. water was under some consideration Mr. T. P. Mapother occupied the chair and there was a large attendance. The chairman referred to the order of the Kildare, John Dowling, of Clonccorian Local Government Board, and it was unanimously agreed to give effect to thrown out of his cart. The pony took the order without delay, and Mr. Mul- fright. vaney, C. E., was instructed to comdered lowest for the carrying out of

SLIGO.

The members of the Ballymote Tighe some token in recognition of St. Kiersa, in the King's County. Mr. Tighe, who was one of the mos: and here Saint Ciaran, the elder, one hardworking members of the club, of Ireland's first bishops, fix d his see. held a responsible position at the The Rev. Thomas Phelan, the zealous

The annual reunion of the Sligo Total Abstinence League of the Sacred Heart was held in the League rooms; Temple street, on Oct. 8. Rev. Canon Harte, Adm., presided. There was large attendance, which augurs well for the extension of the League's good work. The very reverend president. hoped the members of the League would benefit by his Lordship's advice. The lace class of Ballymote recently started in full swing. The class was Friday, was one of the largest. initiated to enable young girls to earn a good wage and become conversant strong in the cluntry, and which is affording employment to girls all over settion. He was editor of the Belfast Freiand. The class consists of twenty pupils, who are making great progress with the Carrickmacross system, un-Dwyse Gray. His suthority had al- der the careful tutorage of Miss Car-

LEINSTER.

Mrs. Bridget Carton, of Kilcarrig in the Slievebloom range. House, Bagnalstown, died in the 54th year of her age on Oct. 16, after Office and High Mass in St. Andrew's Church the funeral left for Newtown Cemetery Attendance was very large.

DUBLIN. We regret to chronicle the death or Mr. M Connell, president of the Incorporated Society of Brick and Stone Layers, Cuffe street, Dublin. Mr. Connell was an active member of his trade society, and was held in great esteem. He was also one of the newly elected governors of the Richemond Lunatic Asylum.

In 82 Lower Abbey street, Dublin. was held the seventh session of the Celtic Literary Society, inaugurated by the president, Mr. Thomas P. Fox, who delivered a lecture entitled. "The Dennition of an Irish Nation." Miss Maud Gonne presided. Mr. Fox said: "The agitation for a separate Irish Nationality appears at first strange in its pertinacity. Surveying the course of Irish history we must formulate our position as Irish Nationalists, not on any one plank, but on a solid foundation the corner-stone of wyhich is our innate right to be a nation. Might may have temporarily triumphed over right, but might will be ours yet, and we shall use our power to regain all that England has stolen from us-with interest."

A meeting was held on Oct. 13 in the Old Schools, Richmond Hill, Rathmines, to establish a branch of the Gaelic League.

Mr. Edward Byrne, who for many years was connected with the Freeman's Journal, died recently in Tuam, County Galway, of which he was a native. During the Parnell split he sided with Parnell, and the condition of the Freeman's Journal becoming desperate, Mr. Byrne severed his connection with it. and became manager of the Parnell organ in Dublin, The Indegretted by a great circle of friends in Ireland and in the United States. On Surday, Oct. 15, the remains were in. terred in New Cemetery, Tuam. The esteem in which the deceased was held in journalistic, political and social circles was amply testified to by the immense and representative funeral cortege that accompanied the remains to the graveside.

Recent deaths in Dublin. CRONIN-Oct. 5, at Our Lady's Hospice for the Dying, Mary Anne Cronin. EBENRECHT-Agatha, on the first Friday of October, aged 91, at Ama and calling upon the Irish representation our saints and sages? The tongue of the grief of her parents, at the early merschwihr, Alsace, mother of Father Ebenrecht, Blackrock College, and Sister Margaret Mary, and grandmother of Sister Mary Francis, Carmelites, Roebuck.

GLYNN-Nicholas Glynn, of 82 Berkeley road. Grace aged 48 years, son of the late Patrick and Catherine Grace, Tallagh. tives of the families in Ardee, Collon NOLAN-Oct. 5, at 73 Capel street,

Margaret Nolan. SEERY-At 17 St. Joseph's sfreet after a short illness, Elizabeth Seery. ALLIEN Oct. 9, aged 34, at the Elemond Asylum (late of 18 Lower Gardiag street), Mary Allen. Cabina Oct 8, at Howth, aged 59, brook road, for many years driver in the D. U. T. Co.

Bray. George Malone, aged 24 years.

Hospital, aged 50, Andrew Gough.

O'NEILL-Oct. 11, at Mercer's Hos-

Dorset street.

cil on Oct. 7 in Rosscommon the ques- of the late Edward Byrne, Kilcarry, Co.

KILDARE.

On Oct. 9. about one mile outside Monasterevan, was killed by being Requiem services were held in Mon municate with the contractor who ten- asterevan church on Oct. 6 for the repose of the soul of Father Martin Hanthe scheme. A deputation from the rick, who died Oct 4, aged 41 years. Labor Society waited on the Council The office commenced at 11 o'clock, with a strong resolution, pointing out Most Rev Dr Foley, Bishop of Kildare erection of suitable dwellings for the by forty-three priests. The Requiem

RILKENNY.

Rt. Rev Dr. Browning, Bishop of Ossory, on Sunday, Occt. 8, laid the his services previous to his departure. Saighir is the oldest parish in Ireland. pastor, has left nothing undone to provide a church worthy of the high traditions of the ancient parish.

The death of Mr. Thomas Shea, Ardclone, Piltown, happened on Occt. 4. He was a member of one of the oldest and most respected families in the county; for several years took a prominent part in national politics during the old Land League; and was P. L. G. for Piltown. He had several nieces and nephews consecrated to the cloister and the priesthood. The funeral on

KINGS.

The foundation stone of the new church of St. Kleran was laid Oct. 15. in the presence of the Most Rev. Drs. McRedmond. Bishop of Killaloe, and Browning, Bishop of Ossory. The Birr Young Men's Association Band led the them. procession from the old coburch to the

The death of Mr. Patrick Fay, Edenregret. Deceased was one of the oldest and most respected men in the cattle trade. His reputation for sterling worth and upright and honorable dealings with all classes during his long and successful career was deservedly high. The interment took place on Oct. 6, at the family burial place, crously attended. Drumcooley, and the extent and charactor of the cortexe was evidence of the esteem which deceased had won.

LONGFORD.

It is reported that the members of the branches of the United Irish but hope this is not the case

The news of the death of Mr. Hugh Monahan, which reached Longford on Oct. 12, caused general regret. Street, County Westmeath, where he had been residing for some months past. He was for a number of year it is feared that the water power availof failing health he some months ago arrived at. sold his interest in his premises to Mr. P. E. Fitzgerald and retired from business.

The members of the Longford County Council intend to have the flag of Ireland displayed over their Court House during their meetings . Ireland is a nation, and all its public administrations and functions should be held under the Green flag. To celebrate and accentuate the patriotic resolve of the County Council members, the Fife and Drum Band paraded the streets, playing National tunes. Judging by the enthusiasm of the people the resolution to have arrangements made for its being floated, we may expect a great demonstration on the occasion of its being unfuried. What a fire of patriotic enthusiasm the National banner is able to enkindle in our bosoms.

LOUTH.

Great progress is being made in the erection of the new Catholic Church storing our language to its place of St. Andrews, Curraha, though only among the nations of the world. If was laid. recent meeting passed a resolution not say that we are conquered. "No condemning the action of the Govern-language no nation" should be the ment in not passing an act of Parliament reinstating th eevicted tenants, we not love and cherish the tongue of tives in Parliament to use every effort heroes and martyrs, of poets and warposed it, and Mr. Ogle seconded it.

held in the Convent of Mercy, Ardee, that Irish was the tongue in which St. to take practeleal steps to promote the Patrick spoke to our ancestors and success of the forthcoming bazaar for gave the light of the Christian religion. GRACE Oct. 5, at Tallaght, Patrick Armagh Cathedral. The attendance Daniel O'Loughlin, one of the most was largely composed of representa- popular men in Clare, next spoke in and Tallonstown.

MEATH.

The death of Rev. Mother Mary Ig.

Hospital, John Courtney, 4 Donny. .mitate the example set by the patriotc sons of Westmeath, and o float the Flag of Ireland over their Council MITCHELL-Oct. 8, at 1 York Ter- Chamber. At a meeting of the Courtrace, Kingstown, Ann Mitchell, sister house Committee at Navan the quesof the late Francis Mitchell, builder. tion was raised by one of the Nation-MA LONE-Oct. 8. at 70 Main street. alist members forming that committee Strange to say, two of the three nom-GOUGH-Odt. 8, at St. Vincent's inecs of the Grand Jury happen to be on this committee, and the idea was ENGLISH-Oct. 9, at Brackenstown, opposed by them. But on a division the motion recommending the County ROWLEY-On Oct. 12, at 26 Went- Council to place the Green Flag over worth place, Margaret (Maggie) Row- their chamber was carried, and instructions given to Mr. Moore, ecounty surveyor, to have the flag and all the which have lain derelict for a hundred pital, Stephen O'Neill, 65 Cork street, necessary requisites ready for the RYAN-Oct. 8. at the Mater Hospital nex meeting of the Council. The date vote away our money that when their Mary Ryan, Grenville lane, eldest on which that meeting will be held has daughter of the late John Kenna, of not yet been announced. The meeting and its result will be looked forward WATKER-At 43 Blyth avenue, to with the keenest interest, and it is Church road, Maria Walker, daughter to be hoped that he efforts of the of the late Edward Byrne, Kilcarry, Co. Meath County Council to "raise up the Banner of Green" will be crowned with | den & like the flegging of priests and even greater success than that which hanging of innocent men, but it is at ended the efforts of Westmeath.

> QUEEN'S. Meath: Very Rev. P. Callary, P. P., O'Neill parish priest of Ballymaccoda, V F., Trim. to be P. P Tullamore: near Youghal, County Cork, was flog-Mountnugent, to be P. P., Rahan; Rev T Murray, P P, Eglish, to be L - parishioners, and he was treated Ballymore, to be P P., Eglish, Rev P. the dictates of his conscience. The in-M Namee, Adm, Navan to be P P., cident is one of those that have made is binstown; Rev J Cassidy, C. C., Youghal a historic town. Another is Rev W. Egan, P. P. Ar death to be named Charles O'Brien and Charles P. P. Mountnugent; Rev. W. Rooney, G. lagher, from the Clork Gate, which ('C' Mullingar, to beAdm ,Longwood, more, to be C. C., Mullingar.

WESTMEATH

The flag of Ireland which the West meath County Council fought so the possession of Mr. Thomas Mooney. Mullingar It should be the property of the county. It is now a historic bit of stuff.

WEXFORD

Mr. Michael Redmond, a well-known horse trainer, died suddenly in the kitchen of the Fountain. Custom House Quay, Wexford, on Oct. 12.

Very Rev. Canon Doyle, the venerable and patriotic parish priest of Rainsgrange has written to the Wexford Press lauding the effort made to have the farmers of Coolroe restored to their holdings, and inclosing a subscription for the purpose. Truly, they are "wounded soldiers of the land war" and now is the time to help

At the extraordinary age of 91 years site of the new one, the children of died Mr Nicholas Lambers, of Boxboro the parochial schools taking a promin- on Oct 9. He was a member of a well ent part. A spacious tent was erected known Wexford family. On Wednesover the site, which is in a most de- day morning the funeral left Roxboro sirable situation on the foot of Knock- for the Church of the Assumption. naman, one of the highest elevations where the Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated The interment took place in St Michael's Seminary derry, on Oct. 4, occasioned widespread | Fay'he, the funeral cortege being extremely large.

WICKLOW

Mrs. Reilly, of Glenmore, Blessing ton, died in the Hospice for the Dying, Harold's Cross, Dublin. Oct. 12. The funeral to Manor Kilbride was num-

For some time the firm of Kynoch Limited, Birmingham and Arklow, who annually use a considerable quanti y of paper in connection with the manufacture of cartridges, have had under consideration the project of establishing a paper factory, solely under League in the county are not as active the control of the firm The chairman or as earnest in the work as when the of the company, Mr Arthur Chamberbranches were founded We shall see; lain brother of the now notorious Secretary for the Colonies, took a look around the locality with the object of ascer'aining if a suitable spot could be obtained for the erection of works of ceased died on Wednesday night at this description. Among the places visited was a mill which is situated quite close to the explosive works, but one of the leading merchants of Long- able would not be sufficient for the ford, and was also one of the most requirements of a factory of any magpopular men in the town. On account nitude No decision has as yet been

MUNSTER

The death of Mr. Michael Madigar, merchant. Kilrush, happened on Oct. 6. On Oct. 8 the interment took place after a Requiem Mass The funeral cortege extended at least three miles. All the different public bodies in Kilrush were officially represented.

What promises to be a successful branch of the Gaelic League was started in Lirdoonvarana on Oct. 8. The coming from Roadford, Ballyvaughan, attended. Rathmaghera, Fanore, Ennistymon and Carron. On the motion of Mr. Daniel O'Loughlin, seconded by Mr. Thomas Byrne, the chair was taken by Rev. W. Cassidy, C. C., who held fifty-seven. the audiencee spellbound for threequarters of an hour. He dwelt on the work of the Gaelic League, that of rewill die; but while there is one worl The Drogheda Board of Guardians at of the language spoken, England canmotto of every Irishman. Why should of Mr. John O'Sullivan, Leith, Tralee, to reinstate them. Mr. Conway pro- riors. Rev. John Carr said this work place at Rath and the immense cortege of the Gaelic League had his hearty which followed the remains bore Recently a meeting of ladies was support. We ought to bear in mind Irish and made a deep impression on those present.

CORK.

Mr. John Joseph Crowley, of the natius Carty, of the Presentation Or Presentation Brothers Schools, Kinder, occurred in the convent, Clare, on sale, at the recent civil service exam-man on the hopper dredger No. 2, be lorging to the Cork Hathor Board, fell overboard at the Admiralty pier at Queenstown Oct. 10, and was drowned. Mr. Denis Doyle, vice-president of the Youghal branch of the Gaelic League, accompanied by the Rev.

Richard Farrell, visited the National Schools at Gurtroe, near Youghal, lately to distribute prizes to the pupils for speaking Irish. They were received by Mr. R. Purcell, teacher of the boy's school, and his assistant, Mr. Millerick and by the Misses Pyne, teachers of the girls' schools, while the pupils welcomed them with loud applause. The annual general meeting of the members of the Cork Gaelic League wers held Oct. 11, in the rooms, 41 Great George's street. There was a good attendance, a large proportion of the assemblage comprising ladies. A Notable Centenary in Cork .- Brit.

ish misrule in Ireland is full of incigratifying to know that the "memory of the dead" will live in the hearts of ever) Irishman, woman and child, The following changes have been and in rebel Cork particuctarly. The made in the diocese of Meath by the Dublin Freeman of Oct. 14 says: "A Most Rev. Dr. Gaffney, Bishop of hundred years ago the Rev. Peter Rev M. Woods, P. P., Rahan, to be red in the town of Youghal. His of-P P Trom; Rev P. Smith. P. P., Tense was his refusal to give information which would incriminate some of P P Taughmon; Rev T Cole, C. C., as a common malefactor for obeying still exsits in the ancient town And we are glad to say that steps are being taken to commemorate prope ly both episodes. As was observed by the patriolic Very Rev. Dean Keller who presided at the preliminary meeting bravely to fling to the breeze over their of the scourging of Father Peter court house during their sittings, is in O'Neill are part of the historical life of the country. They cannot and should not be ignored, so a memorial to the honor of Father O'Neill and a tablet on the Clock Gate in Youghal sake of Irish liberty."

A Feis was held in Inchigeela recently and it was a great success. Rev. tant Father O'Driscoll, helped to make it so. The opening competition for singing gave the judges enough to do average standard At a con ert an ex- administrator (president), in the chair. cellent programme was gone through. Recent deaths in Cork place, St. Luke's, Kate Cotter, daugh- McLaughlin. The statement of scter of Mrs. Sullivan, Ashburton. FLYNN-On Oct. 10, at North In- credit stands to the credit of the instifirmary. Mary Flynn, sister of Nora tution. O'Leary 19 Tower street. JORDAN-On Oct. 10, at 22 Parade Elizabeth Jordan.

BARRY-At Mayfield, John Barry late of Passage road

MARTIN- At 89 York street, Blackpoul, Margaret Mary (Maggie) Martin. M'CARTHY-Oct. 12, at Scartbarry, Mary McCarthy.

Julia Mary Casey. BARRY -On Oct. 10, at Killavullen, Anne Mary Barry, Monanimny Castle. DALTON-Oct 6, at Cardiff, Gerald Datton of 63 Grand Parade, Cork.

O'MARA-Oct. 6, Mary O'Mara, late 000. of Friar's Walk. Patrick O'Connell.

Joseph's Convent, Bristol, Mary in re- of the steamer Brentwood, Sunderland, ligion Sister Frances Joseph), the dear- had a dispute on deck. It is stated ly beloved daughter of John Carroll, that they got holds and struggling torook stown.

wey Lyons, aged 74 Mary Lynch. MURPHY-Oct. 5, Jeremiah Murphy, ed.

Sr. of Gurrane, Donoughmore, aged MULLINS-Oct. 6, at 89 South Mall, Thomas Mullins. M'CARTHY--On Occt. 6, Mrs. Mc-Carthy, 62 South Main street.

ALLEN-Oct. 6, at St. Patrick's Hospital, Wellington road, Amy Allen. | Cardinal Logue visited Burtonport place, Cork.

KERRY.

Miss Sille Slattery, of Rae, Kilflynn, fied Occt. 11, aged 21 years, deeply and widely regretted. Interment was inal replied in the Irish tongue. large square was packed, contingents in Ardfelt, funeral being very largely We regret to record the death of Mr.

Edward Fitzgerald, of Caherina, Tralee, which took place Oct, 11 at the drowned of Oct. 4. Fever Hospital, Tralee, at the age of Very Rev. S. Kelly, of the Dominican order. Sligo, lately conducted a mission in the Church of the Holy Cross, Tralee, which was very successful. Very Rev. Canon O'Riordan, Cahera short time since the foundation stone Irish is lost, then Ireland as a nation civeen, was highly successful in his collection for the O'Connell Church in Tralee during past week. We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Norah O'Sullivan, eldest daughter age of nineteen. The funeral took tages in the Union. striking testimony to the esteem entertained for deceased and members of her family.

LIMERICK.

The police in Limerick County were very busy last week in raring down posters which advised the Irish not to enlist in the British Army to fight against the patriots of the South African Republic.

TIPPERARY. Oct. 13, deeply and widely regretted. nation in Manchester, secured the Up with the fine of Ireland: it represents a just and good church. The for competition.

County Council of Mentil is about to Thomas Cashman, of Blackrock, firethe children attending the Ardinnan

The day was beautifully fine. The schoolroom was tastefully arranged for the occasion.

On Oct 8, a very successful meeting. under the auspices of the United Irisb League was held at Ballyporeen.

WATERFORD

Mr. William Flavin, of Cappoquin, has left for South Africa for the benefit of his health, it is said. A new house for the lifeboat has been erected in Tramore. The Green Flag will, it appears, be hoisted over the Town Hall of Dungravan and Council Chambers of the Urban District Council. A green flag has been ordered 71/2 feet by 3 feet. The flagstaff will be 20 feet high. The resolution to float the national banner was moved by the Chairman of the Urban District Council and seconded by the Chairman of the County Council. The death of Mr. Michael Downey occurred Oct. 13 in Waterford City, at the great age of 94 years.

made ifected ing for minster palace taught Thomas cores in The eigned for chrorder we years

Fur

San

A meeting of the St. Declan's branch of the Gaelic League was held in the Sacristy of St. Declan' church, Ardmore, Oct. 8. Rev. J. Walsh, presided.

ULSTER.

ANTRIM

Daniel McGrogan, in charge of the steamboat Crean, at Ballycastle, somehow fell off the pier into the water on the night of Oct. 5, and was drowned. On Oct. 7 the remains of Mr. Henry Torney, North Boundary street, whose death is mourned by a wide circle of Taughmon, to be P P. Ardcath, and the hanging of two United Irishman, the chapel yard of Kilclief. County friends, were removed for interment in Down. His death occurred on Oct 5. at the age of 55 years.

ARMAGE.

The ladies or Ardee, in County Louth, recently held a meeting in the Convent of Mercy to promote the success of the bazaar for the Armagh held with this object, events like that Cathedral Fund. The districts of Ardee, Collon and Tallonstown were well represented, and good sums of money were subscribed; also many valuable prizes were given toward the bazaar.

The Armagh I'rban District Council are with the Boers. Mr. Hughes hand-Town will remind generations that in ed in the following notice of motion the old days the gentle and the good for newt meeting. "That the Council suffered tortures of martyrdom for the desires to place on record its emphatic protest against action of the British government in the Transvaal, and also Father Hurley, pastor, and his assis- pathy with President Kruger in the wishes to express its heartfelt symcallant stand he is making in the defense of his country."

The quarterly meeting of the memto come to a decision ('ompetitors, bers of the Armagh Catholic Reading male and female, were well above the room was held lately, Rev. John Quinn, Among those present were Rev. Michael Quinn, Rev. Father Brady, Rev. COTTER-Oct. 10. at Charleville Father Longhran, E. I., and Rev. John counts was passed. A substantial CAVAN. According to the census taken in 18-41 the population of County Cavan was 243,158, but at last census the popula-NAGLE-Occt. 11, at Lacknamona, tion was only 111,917, less than half Mallow, Ellen Nagle, aged 96 years. the number in 1841. This is a sample HARTY—Occt 12, at North Infirm- of how Ireland and the Irish people ary, John B. Harty, aged 31 years, of have prospered and are prospering under British rule.

11221117 The blight of British rule fell upon the pampered districts, where the ad-CASEY Oct. 13. at Mitchelstown, herents of the "immortal William" live. Derry County in 1841 counted a population of 222,174; but instead of increasing it has decreased very considerable. When the census was taken in 1891 the population was only 152,-

On October 15, Hugh Fullerton O'CONNELL— At Lackandarra, Donaghadee, was drowned at the quay. Gloun'ane, on Sept. 29, Nora, wife of It appears that about 8 o c.ock runerton and another sailor. Thomas Cas-CARROLL—On Sept 22. at St. sidy, Silvergrove street, Belfast, both ward the side of the vessel, where the LYONS--Sept. 29, at Friar's Walk, railings were removed for the purpose of discharging. The men fell into the LYNCH—Oct. 5, at Upper Glasheen, water. Cassidy got ashore, but Fullerton was drowned. Cassidy was arrest

DONEGAL

A dastarly act of vandalism was perpetrated on the beautiful Church of St. Baithin, St. Johnston, when a large cross, on the highest point of the building, was wantonly damaged.

MURPHY—On Oct. 9. Elizabeth on Oct. 15, and was accorded an en-Maggie (Bob) Murphy of 23 Parnell thusiastic welcome. Addresses were presented to him. That by the priests and people of Templecrone was is english; that read by Mr. Anthony Doherty, National Cruit Teacher of Cruit Island, was in Irish. The Card-

> DOWN. Michael Lambe of Cloughres, accidentally walked into the canal and was

FERMANAGH.

A serious accident happened to Mr. E. M. Archdale, M. P., of North Fermanagh. While riding home to Castle Archdale lately, his horse stumbled and fell. Rising, it dragged Mr. Archdale some distance seriously injuring his knee.

MONAGHAN. A special meeting of the Clones District Council was held lately to considwhich took place on Sunday. Oct. 8, to er representations under the Laborers' acts for the erection of suitable ccot-

TYRONE. Patrick O'Brien, horse trainer, of Dungrannon, fell over the parapet of the railway bridge in Scotch street, recently, and was seriously injured. Mrs. Margaret Kilpatrick, who lived near Stewartstown, died on Oct. 8, at the age of 101 years.

The banana peel has contributed much toward making the law of gravity unpopular.

There is a time for everything, but the chesp watch seldom indicates it.

We can all do some good, if we will marble Glass in Lesson tures ch Mew. Glerwo Roches Royal .

And

 ${f Telep}$

BEARS

We are see at FACTOR Whether your whether your ruptured, number is rupture, s and we will standing.