Very Rev. Canon McKenna, P. P., drove through Ballyshannon Oct. 27. accompanied by Very Rev P Maguire. late pastor Irvington, U.S. A. Canon. McKenna looked remarkably well considering his filness He was warmly received

An election for two commissioners for Killybegs Pier and Harbor was held in Killybegs lately.

On Oct. 22 the annual retreat for the Rosary Confraternity was opened in the Dominican Church, Newry. The errvices were conducted by the Rev. Father Moore, Prior, St. Mary's, Tallaght. Dublin, and was attended by very large congregations. Mr William J. Clarke, general grocer and provision merchant, Hill street, Newry, while laboring in a fit of in-

"Fannie and Lae" says: "Millstreet County Cork, has now taken the hint given by Newry and has determined to procure the services of a competent and independent Gaelic teacher for the whole parish, as is done in the Newry district." The Committee of County Down Infirmary have refused permission to the nuns of Downpatrick to visit the Cathoffic patients. The annals of Orangesem does not show a more atricious instance of intolerance. There are the people who talk of the rights of minorities, and appeal for recognition and place to Catholic majorities. To secure the adhersion of the Down County 'ouncil. Sir Thomas Esmonde excluded reference to National questions from the "National" Council.

FERMANAGH. The area under the cultivation of iax in Fermanagh County in 1889 was 2.748 acres, but in 1898 there were only 337 acres under it. This is an extraordinary falling off. The New Zealand "Times" of recent date contains an interesting sketch of Mr John Gardiner, who was killed at Taihape, on the Northern Trunk line some weeks ago by a blasting accident and falling of earth. The deceased was a son of Mr. Edward Gardiner, J. P., Fortgramaugh, Lismaskea. Father E. N. Gallagher, P. P., presided at recent meeting of the Arney branch of the United Irish League. MONAGHAN.

Mr. Ross, stationmaster Clones, has een removed to Omagh, Tyrone. During his term in Clones he was very TYRONE.

On Oct. 21 the mission conducted for ne previous three weeks by the Rev. Fathers Burke, Bingham and Lynch, of the order of Redemptorists. was brought to a close. At the early Masses large numbers of communicants approached the altar. Solemn High Mass was celebrated. Rev. Father Bingham, celebrant, Right Rev. Mgr. Byrne, deacon; Father Ward. St. Patrick's Academy, sub-deacon, and Rev. J. P. O'Callaghan, master of ceremonies. The Blessed Sacrament was borne in procession round the church, preceded by acolytes and many children dressed in white.

7, at the Hope Arms Hotel, Castleblarney, was deeply and widely regretted. The funeral cortege to the cemetery in Monaghan was very long and representative in character.
