It is interesting to consider how much we depend upon the good opinion of our friends in keeping our lives up to a high standard. generosity at the collection. Emerson has truly seid that the catel want in life is somebody who shall make us do the best we can. We want people to besieve in us and to have faith in us, and if they do, the knowledge of it helps as and strengthens us even though we know ourselves to be that St. Patrick's charck is in a prosperous unworthy of it. As the post says;

'My every breath and every thought Were pure because of you: I had not dreamed that Heaven could be So close to mortal view.
