The college of Maynooth has claime on every Catholic in Ireland. For over a century it has educated and trained the vast majority of her prist. bood, and durnished her venerated blerarchy with most of its members. It is in truth a seat of learning where have flocked the young Levites of the Land. The president of Maynooth College, Right Rev. Mgr. Gargan, recently went to Cork to arpeal to its citisens to aid him to complete St. Patrick's capacious and already peautiful new college chapel. He preached in St. Vincent's Oburch, and the response was very generous.

On Dec. 20, after a brief illness, Mr. James Tighe, chief engineer of the Waterford, Limerick and Western Radway, passed away at the fine old age of 84 years. He was fifty-four years connected with the Waterford and Limerick Railway Company. No kindlier or more considerate and warm-hearted men ever lived, and by young and old in the service of the railway company he was held in affectionate regard.

The fine edifice, St. Carthage Church Lismore, has undergone great changes and improvements, which add to the beauty of the fine architectural proportions and harmony. The noble monument to the memory of the late Right Rev. Mgr. Byrne, ercoted during his pastorate, being designed by M. Doolin, architect is regarded a triumph of ecclesiastical architecture. The total length of the church is 145 feet, by 84 feet in width across the transepts, with a mave arch close upon 60 feet high. The fine tower, seen for miles, and of which the Lismore people are justly proud, is 113 feet high.

ANTRIM On Dec. 31, in the Chapel of St. Malachy's College, Belfast, Most Rev. Dr. Henry, Bishop of Down and Connor, raised to the dignity of the priesthood Rev. H. Murphy, Rev. B. McNamee, and Rev. P. Rafferty.
