

CITY PARISH NEWS.

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters

ST. BRIDGET'S

The total receipts of the different tables at our late festival, were announced last Sunday as follows: Father Bromhan's table, $717.00; Father Hendrick's table, $421.16; Father Gommenginger's table, $411.38; L. C. B. A. table, $304.73; Mrs. Howe's table, $272.50. The net receipts were, $2,400.

Our financial statement for 1899, shows an increase in pew rents and in Sunday offerings as well as in school collections which is very gratifying. The indebtedness has been decreased $1500.

A special statement of the children's collection will be announced next Sunday.

The many friends of Father Julius, S. B. of Manassas, Va., will be sorry to hear of his painful accident which was occasioned by a runaway. Father Julius has many friends in this parish. He is also held in high esteem by many of the soldiers of the Spanish American war. We hope soon to hear of his recovery.

A high mass of requiem was celebrated by Father Hendrick last Tuesday morning for the repose of the soul of Mother Hieronymus, it being the second anniversary of her death.

Mabel Weir, a pupil of our school, is seriously ill.

St. Bridget's day will be celebrated next Sunday.

A mass of requiem was offered Monday morning for Mr. E. Diegelman. The mass was an offering from St. Anthony's society of which he was a member.

The Cardinal Newman Reading Circle will meet next Monday evening. Miss Mary Clancy will prepare the paper on "Current Topics." A musical number will be rendered. The reading of "Julius Caesar" will be continued.

The prizes given at the Fort nighty pedro club last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. M. C. Stupp, were won by Miss Susie Quinn and Miss Lucy Fitzgerald. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. T. W. Galvin, Evergreen street.

Our pupils, who have recently passed the regent's examination, were asked by Father Hendrick to tell the date of "the big wind in Ireland." The first answer was received from James Heveron, "Jan. 6—1839." A prize has been offered to the one bringing in the first correct answer. We think Jimmie will be the winner.

The "Entre nous" pedro club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. S. Arth. The first prize was won by Miss Nora Foley, the second by Mrs. S. Arth. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. Tuohy.

An anniversary requiem mass will be celebrated Saturday morning for the repose of the soul of Madame Charlotte Hendrick, sister of Father Hendrick.

COMPOS CHURCH.

There was an anniversary requiem mass Tuesday morning for Mother Hieronymus.

There was a month's mind requiem mass Thursday morning for Mrs. B. Murphy.

The subscription list will be distributed on Sunday.

Council 40, C. R. B. A., held a card party in the school rooms Monday evening. A large crowd was present, about twenty tables being filled. The following were the winners of the prizes: 1st prize, lady's, Miss M. Kelly; 2nd, Mrs. Sheehan; 1st prize, gents, Leonard Hall; 2nd, Joseph Leary.

After card playing refreshments were served and all returned home satisfied that they had enjoyed themselves.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Maguire, mother of Rev. Dr. Maguire.

At the next regular meeting of branch 251, L. C. B. A., which will be held Wednesday Feb. 7th, the election of medical examiner will take place. It is earnestly hoped the members will attend. At the last meeting of the branch Drs. Buck and Finney were placed in nomination.

Mrs. Vogt of Savannah street, has been unable to attend to her duties at her studio, on account of the illness of her son.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fisher who have been abroad, have returned home on account of the illness of several members of the family.

ST. MONICA'S.

Rev. Father Brophy is taking the census this week of that portion of the parish west of Genesee street and outside of the city limits.

St. Monica's Reading Circle had a regular meeting Monday evening.

FRENCH CHURCH.

St. Anthony's Society will hold a progressive pedro party at the school hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 6th, a cordial invitation is extended to those who enjoy the game.

REMAUPLATE CONCEPTION.

The C. R. C. will give a card party to its friends in its rooms Feb. 8. A large attendance is hoped for.

A large and interested audience listened to a well delivered lecture on "Julius Caesar" by the Rev. Father Ryan Tuesday evening in the rooms in the C. R. C.

The lecture was given on the play which circle intend taking up as a study, and having been given by a master of the subject an insight was given to the members from which they derived great benefit. Among others helping to make the evening a pleasant one, were Miss Stapleton in a vocal solo, Miss J. Madden, and Miss Grace McKitterick in an instrumental duet, and a violin selection by Miss Bascom accompanied by her sister, Miss Laura Bascom. At the next next regular meeting the first act of "Julius Caesar" will be read and discussed.

The Young Men's Club will give a dancing party in the school hall, Feb. 14th.

The Aid Society will give a reception in the school hall, Feb. 12th.

Michael McMahon, a former resident of Rochester, died recently at his home in Bradford, Pa. He was an uncle of Michael J. McMahon of our parish, who went to Bradford Sunday to escort home the remains. Michael McMahon enlisted in the war of 1864 with his brothers, John and Henry. John McMahon was breveted "colonel" on his return at Washington for bravery at the battle of Gettysburg and presented with a sword. Michael McMahon, the last of the three brave heroes will be buried in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery, beside his wife, Mary Sugru McMahon.

HOLY APSTLE.

John Calihan, whose death occurred on the 24th, at his home, 521 Lyell avenue, was an old and respected citizen of Rochester, and a devout member of this church. He was born in Galway, Ireland, in 1838, and when a young man came to this country. He settled in Rochester, in 1851, and the following year was married to Miss O'Brien in old St. Patrick's church by the late Rev. William O'Reilly. A widow, three children, and fourteen grandchildren survive. The children are Patrick Calihan, for many years clerk in the water works office, but now a resident of Denver, Colo.; Aid Matthias J. Calihan, and Miss Katharine Frances Calihan of this city. The late Martin J. Calihan was a son of the deceased. Percival and William Calihan of 42 Glenwood avenue, are among the grandchildren. The funeral was held Saturday morning, and was largely attended. Rev. T. C. Murphy officiated. Rev. A. Hughes of St. Patrick's cathedral was present in the sanctuary. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, among them a large standing cross of pink and white roses from the M. J. Calihan Association.

The funeral of John Durkin was held from the church at 9 o'clock Monday morning and was largely attended. Rev. C. Murphy was in Macedonia for a few days during the week. Miss Esther Williams has returned home to St. Louis after a two week's visit with friends. Mrs. James Curtin of Austin street, is recovering from her recent illness.

CATHEDRAL.

Miss Margaret O'Loughlin, daughter of John O'Loughlin of 217 Smith street, was married to Thomas J. Naylon at St. Patrick's cathedral Wednesday morning. The wedding mass and ceremony were celebrated by Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, rector of the Cathedral. Rev. George V. Burns was in the sanctuary. Professor Bonn was at the organ. The bride wore light gray French poplin, with chiffon trimmings, and carried a white prayer book. Robert Burns and John O'Donoghue were the ushers. The newly wedded couple will reside at 27 Smith street.

The annual retreat for the present and former students of Nazareth academy opened at the convent chapel on last Sunday afternoon and closed on Thursday morning at 8 30 o'clock. The retreat was conducted by Rev. Dr. Breen of St. Bernard's seminary.

The annual banquet of the Cathedral School association will take place at the hall of Lady chapel on next Monday evening.

Edward O'Grady left this week for an extended European trip. Mr. O'Grady anticipates being absent about four months.

The death of John O'Loughlin occurred at the family residence, 217 Smith street, on Wednesday evening. Mr. O'Loughlin was in his 61st year, and had been ill but two days. He is survived by two daughters, Miss Minnie O'Loughlin and Mrs. Thomas Naylon, and two sons, William of Buffalo, and John of this city. Deceased was a life long member of this parish, and his funeral took place this (Saturday) morning at 9 o'clock from Lady chapel.

ST. MARY'S.

Yesterday was Candlemas day. There was a special mass at 8.30 o'clock. The candles were blessed before mass and distributed after mass.

To day is the feast of St. Blase. The blessing of the throats, under the innovation of St. Blase will take place after mass and in the evening from 7 until 8. There will be an opportunity given the children in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

There was an anniversary mass on Tuesday morning for John O'Rourke and wife.

This morning an anniversary mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of Thos. Butler.

It was resolved at the last meeting of the Willing Helpers to dispense with the evening meetings. All business will be discussed at the Thursday afternoon sessions.

The president announces the following committee: Sewing, Mrs. McAnally, Mrs. Powers, Mrs. Mahoney and Mrs. Smith; cutting, Mrs. Knapp, Mrs. Dampsey, Mrs. Moore and Miss FitzPatrick; purchasing, Mrs. Schooley, Mrs. Barrett, Mrs. Kennedy, and Miss H. Roche; reception, Mrs. Hickey, Mrs. Archer, Mrs. Peters, and Miss J. Roche.

There will be a regular meeting of the Literary on Monday evening. A very interesting paper will be read by Mr. hos. Smith.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

The formal opening of St. Michael's church parish hall, which has been in the course of erection for some time, is to be observed Sunday, February 26, when an entertainment will be given by the school children. The hall is artistically decorated. The ventilation and heating appliances are up to date. There is a large stage in the rear of the hall, supplied with movable scenery and a drop curtain. The stage is large enough to hold 100 people. Of the fourteen Catholic societies belonging to St. Michael's church, three fourths have taken quarters in the new parish hall.

LOST - In or near Corpus Christi church, during the past week, a rosary, white beads with silver cross. Those beads are a relic of the dead, and the finder will confer a favor and receive reward by leaving at the Home, No. 712 East Main street.

TAKE NOTICE.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Chainless Cycle Manufacturing Co. is hereby called for Feb. 10th, 1900, 7 p. m. at its office for the purpose of voting on dissolving said corporation.

E. R. SEAR, Sec'y.

For Jackets.

Electric seal, natty, nobby, handsomely lined, for $25.00; cannot be distinguished from the real seal. MENG & SHAFER.

NEW QUARTERS.

Central Hudson Ticket Office to be removed to State street.

The New York Central Railroad company will remove on or about April 1 to more commodious and suitable quarters at 20 State street, corner of Corinthian avenue, owing to the demands of an increasing business.

The new quarters have a great many advantages over the old and modern improvements will be made. The front of the building will be of plate glass supported by modern steel girders. Magnificent mosaic floors will be laid in the offices, which will be completely furnished in mahogany. A suitable room will be provided for passengers desiring to prepare for long journeys. The advertising department will occupy the basement.

When the building is completed Rochester will have one of the handsomest and most complete passenger ticket offices in New York state.

The Handsomest and Most Convenient Trains Between Rochester and Pittsburg.

The handsome new vestibuled trains on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Railway are becoming very popular. These trains are the only solid vestibuled trains operated between Rochester and Pittsburg and are composed of elegant high back seat day coaches, cafe and reclining chair cars, making fast time and affording superior service.

Train leaves Rochester daily at 9 a. m., arriving in Pittsburg 6.45 p. m. Corresponding train leaves Pittsburg at 9 a. m., arriving in Rochester 6.35 p. m.

Zero Weather.

For cold zero weather you want a bin full of the right kind of coal. Did you ever try Langie's? No freezing where that coal is burned. Office 337 East Main street, Triangle building. Yard at South Clinton street, cor. Alexander and North avenue, near railroad.

For Neck Scarfs.

Closing out scarfs in sable, etc., from $5.00 up. Do not miss the opportunity of getting one of these rare bargains at MENG & SHAFER'S.

Fire, Employer's Liability, Plate glass. Established 1860.

J. H. ASHTON, General Insurance.

202-204 Millinger and Barry Bldg. Entrance 39 State Street, Rochester, N. Y. Steam-Boiler, Surety Bonds, Elevator.

Geo. G. Muntz, Dealer in Painting, Wall Paper, Paper Hanging and Window Shades.

Postal orders are given prompt attention. No. 5 Woodbury Street.

Geo. T. Foster, Lehigh Valley COAL, Tel. 764, 392 Clinton Ave. S.

Louis Ernst Sons, DEALER IN The Most Complete Line of Steel Hods, Steel Barrows, Mechanics' Tools, Builders Hardware, Contractors Supplies. 210 and 151 East Main St.

E. C. BRADLEY & CO, Electricians, Bell Hangers and Locksmiths, Electrical Supplies, 15 State St., Rochester, N. Y. Telephone 749. We Repair Locks and make Keys of every description.

B. V. LOGAN, Undertaker, No 5 Plymouth Avenue, Telephone 2948.

Crippen Bros. & McNamee, UNDERTAKERS And Funeral Furnishers, 13 East Ave., Telephone 888. Residence, 389 Central Ave. Phone 8056.

N. J. Miller, UNDERTAKER, 90 North St. Phone 1387.

DR. THOMPSON, DENTIST, 709-711 Chamber Commerce.

Geo. Engert & Co., COAL, Principal Office and Yard, Telephone 251, 306 Exchange Street.

Payne's New Coaches, Are the Finest in the Town. Phone 775. 125 Jefferson Avenue.

THOS. B. MOONEY, Funeral - Director, 106 West Main Street, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

For a Tonic, You will need something in the line of Wines And Liquors and we advise that for the Purifier and at the most reasonable prices you go to Mathews & Servis Co., Cor. Main and Pinckney Streets. Phone 2075.

Furniture Movers, Furniture Moved, Packed and Stored by Sam Goffry Carting Co. Orders taken at their office at Exchange street, or at houses throughout the city. Large or small covered spring wagons. Telephone 2440.

McGREAL BROS., CELEBRATED MONARCH RYE, Noted for age, purity and strength. $2 PER GALLON. No charge for jug. All orders promptly filled.

McGREAL BROS., 15 North St. Telephone 1801.

Tally Card For Progressive Pedros Euchre. Fancy Playing Cards for Club Pedros. Special Prices for Clubs and Societies.

YAWMAN & SONS, Catholic Bookstore, Triangle Bldg, East Avenue and Main Street.

James M. Nolan, Weekly Pymont Jeweler, 154 East Main St. Over Beadle & Sherburne & Co's.

Catholic Prayer Books, Rosaries, Scapulars, Crucifixes and Religious Pictures, framing at lowest prices. L. MERK, 234 Main St. East. 2 Clinton Ave. North.

LEWIS EDELMAN, Dealer in D. L. & W. C. 40 North Ave., near N. Y. C. R. R. Telephone 4928.

G. R. Donovan, Wilkesbarre and Pittsburg, 696 St. Paul Street, Telephone 4928.

P. Joyce & Co., We Fit, Grind and Make any style Spectacles. 210 North St.

G. H. Sash, Door, Blind and Window Manufacturers of Sash, Doors, Blinds and Windows. Window and Door Frames. Cor. Alton and Platt Sts.

Good For Rest, $6.75, HIGGINS, 106 North Goodman Street.

Hollister Lumber, LUMBER, 106 North Goodman Street.

Our New Premium, Every subscriber paying in advance is entitled to select one of the following premiums: Picture of Pope Leo XIII, Picture of St. Anthony of Padua, or a Handsome Game Table. Pay your subscription now and get one of these.

Edward O'Grady, All Loose Promissory Notes, O'Grady & McNamee, Reliable Fire, Flood, Office - 301 Jackson St.