GALWAY.

The death of Mr. Peter McDonagh, pecuried recently at the residence of Mr. Robert McDonald, Domin.ck street, Galway, and caused deep leg.et.

Following changes were Lade recently in the Diocess of Cionfert: The Rev. B. Bowes, president Esker College, appointed president St. Brendan's Sui mary, Loughrea; in his place the Rev. Fr.Morgan, nephew of Most Rev. Dr. Healy, has been appointed president Eeker College; R.v. P. O'Loughlin, president St. Brendan's, Loughrea, has been appointed C. C. of K.Irtecale.

Joseph Cooke, Craughwell, met with a sad death on Jan. 6, as he was returning home from Ballinasloe. As he was cross ng his field he saw the bull on the grass, and went to drive him into the stable. The bull charged at him, knocking him down, ripping up his abdomen, smasning his scull, and -multilating his body in a fearful way, all in sight of his poor wife, who was maralyzed with terror and could do nothing but scream. Her screams brought two men to teh scene, who could not get the bull from his vict m. About a year ago Mr. Cooke narrowly escaped with his life, the bull on the pecasion having b oken two of his ribs.

On Jan. 8, at Turloughmore, Patrick Mitchell met his death under tragic circumstances. He took out his horse to the stream for a drink, when the horse became very restless. He was riding him, and the re gas being short, would not allow the horse to stoop sufficiently low to let him drink with esse, when he suddenly raised up his head and struck the young fellow on the forehead, or close to the side of the head, and stunned him, which caused him to fall to the ground. The enimal then became very restless and plunged violently, and in his fury kicked him with his two hind legs over sthe heart. Some short time afterward he was found by some neighbors. mand conveyed to the nearest house. On the doctor's arrival the poor fellow was found to have breathed his last. tAn inquest was held on the body, and a verdict of accidental death was returned.

LEITRIM.

Members of the Manor Hamilton Young Men's Society recently gave a aconcert in St. Clarire's Hall. A great number of Irish airs were rendered in an excellent style, and were fully apmore ated by the audience.

26 Market street, Sligo, at the age of 78 years, happened on Jan. 3. The sad MEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES OF event was deeply and widely registed. When the arrival of the Rev. T. H. Quin from Glasgow lately became known in Killoran, a large number of the parishioners turned out to bid him hearty welcome. Mr. Peter Cawley introduced a deputation, consisting of all the members of the committee of the U. I. L. who on their own part and on behalf of the people of the parish, gave place it is. the Rev. T. H. Quin a hearty "Caed mille failthe."

LIMERICK

A very melancholy affair occurred in Galwaytown lately. A shop assistant of Mr. P. J. Burke, merchant, of Ab-Levgate street, received a letter informing him that his father, mother and several members of his fam'ly were laid up with fever at Glynn. The poor fellow took the news so much to beart that his mind became unhinged and he cut his throat with a razor, inflicting a fatal wound.

James Cogley, aged 17, ship carpenter in the Lerry Shipbuilding Company. while at work on Jan 9, fell into the river Foyle and was drowned. It has been remarked as a very strange coincidence that the young man's father, and grandfather bore the same name as himself-James Cogley. Both his father and grandfather met their deaths by drowning. The grandfather, master mariner, had charge of McCorkell's ship Zered; was lost when that vessel was wrecked; and the father of the deceased, who commanded another of McCorkell's ships, the Ownee, was Mr. Joseph Nunan, recently ap- growned when the vessel sank about
