

CITY PARISH NEWS.

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters.

ST. BRIDGET'S

It was announced last Sunday that a mission will open in this church March 4th, the first Sunday of Lent. It will be given by the Paulist Fathers of New York. Father Smith, who conducted a mission here several years ago, will have charge of this mission. Prayers will be recited every morning after mass for the spiritual success of the mission.

A census of the parish will be taken before the opening of the mission to ascertain the number of members in the congregation and their standing in the church.

We missed our faithful "master of ceremonies" Sunday, Andrew Dissett, and were sorry to learn that he is confined to his home by illness.

At the meeting of St. Andrew's society last Sunday over twenty were received. This good saint is still obtaining many requests for our people through their charity to the poor. Cast off clothing would be thankfully received by the members of this society, as they are frequently in demand.

An anniversary mass was celebrated Tuesday morning for Edward Ryan.

Frederick Rauber, son of ex-Ald. Rauber of Gorham street, has successfully passed his law examinations at Boston, where he has been studying for the past year. He will soon make a visit to his home here. We congratulate Mr. Rauber and wish him success in his profession.

The Rosary society will meet next Sunday. The members are expected to receive holy communion upon that day.

Mrs. Stiles and daughter of Pittsford are making their home in this parish for the present. Miss Stiles is a member of the L. C. B. A., and will be a welcome visitor at Branch 27 during her stay in the city.

Miss L. M. Thompson of Geneva was the guest of Mrs. M. A. Strupp this week.

Miss Grace Campin of Gordon park visited her brother, F. J. Campin of Buffalo, the early part of the week.

James Hogan of Gordon park is seriously ill. The venerable gentleman is in his ninety-fifth year, and has been a member of this parish since its formation.

Mrs. Diegelman, formerly of this parish, is seriously with pneumonia at the "Home for Aged Women."

The Cardinal Newman Reading circle will meet next Monday evening. The reading of "Hamlet" will be commenced. Miss Mary McCarthy will prepare a paper on "Current Topics."

The prizes at the Fortnightly Pedro club, which met at the home of Mrs. Galvin last Monday evening, were won by Miss Ella Geraghty and Mrs. W. F. Kelly. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Louise McKearney, Thursday evening, Feb. 22d.

J. J. Heveron of Emmett street spent several days in New York and Albany this week.

The Misses Mary and Margaret Drury will open a millinery establishment soon. We wish them success in their new undertaking. Miss Margaret has been in New York this week purchasing a fine line of spring goods.

Officer John T. Farrell and Miss Eleanor Mitchell were united in marriage Wednesday morning at St. Bridget's church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas A. Hendrick, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large number of friends of both parties. The bridegroom was Miss Julia McCreedy, and the best man was Mr. John Mitchell, a brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Farrell left the city on the 10:55 train over the Central Railroad for the West. They will reside at 41 Woodward street.
