Miss Marie Maloney of Woodbury street, was called to Elmira last Wednesday, on account of the sudden death of Miss Margaret Sweeney, which was a shock to her many friends of this city.

ST. JOSEPH'S.

Thursday evening, Feb. 15th, the Young Ladies' Aid Society gave a short dramatic entertainment. It was their first effort in this direction, and a great success. Music and recitations followed after which refreshments were served, and a very pleasant social evening was spent by all.

On Tuesday morning, Feb. 20th, at 9 o'clock at St. Joseph's church occurred the marriage of Mr. Harry Merrills and Miss Ida Wegman, daughter of Margaret and the late John Wegman, Jr., of Lake avenue. The bride's dress was very light gray with trimmings of white broadcloth satin and violet velvet with hat to match. She carried a white prayer book. They were unattended. The ushers were Fred Wegman, brother of the bride, and Messrs. Gilligan, Doyle and Thomas, friends of the groom. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of the bride, only the immediate family being present. Covers were laid for twenty-four. The happy couple took the State express for a wedding journey to Binghamton, N. Y., the home of the groom's parents, and upon their return will reside at No. 18 Smith street, where their home is all ready. Their presents were numerous and beautiful showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. Among the relatives from out of town were the groom's sister from Binghamton, and George Wegman, wife and daughter from Buffalo. The groom is a recent convert to the Catholic faith.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

The raffle for the benefit of John J. Joyce which was to be held Feb. 15, was indefinitely postponed.

The card party which was held Friday evening Feb. 23rd, under the auspices of branch 251, L. C. B. A., was a grand success. Price winners will be announced later.

There was no school Thursday on account of the celebration of Washington's birthday.

ST. MARY'S

There was an anniversary mass on Monday morning for James Dignan.

Masses on Wednesday will be at 7.15 and 8.30 o'clock. The blessing of ashes will take place before the last mass and will be distributed after the mass.

The masses during Lent will be at 6.30 and 8 o'clock. Devotions in the evening will be on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7.30. On Wednesday evening there will be the rosary, sermon and benediction and on Friday evening the stations of the cross.

The funeral of Daniel J. Leary took place Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurrey of Chestnut Park, are in New York.

Mrs. Patrick Cooper, who has been confined to St. Mary's hospital for some time, is convalescent.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

Francis A., daughter of Patrick and Margaret McGrath, died Sunday at the family residence, 38 Kemore street, aged 17 years. Besides her parents she is survived by one brother, William J. McGrath, and three sisters, Alice C. and Minnie E. McGrath, and Mrs. R. B. Fegan, all of this city. The funeral was held from the house Wednesday morning at 8.30 o'clock and from the Immaculate Conception church at 9 o'clock.

The large school hall of this parish was crowded with the friends of the Aid Society at its fourth annual reception Monday evening. Young people and old people, each seemed to think themselves responsible for the future condition of the treasury of this charitable organization as all were in attendance and intent on enjoying themselves. Several spectators lent their presence. One of the most enjoyable events of the evening was a cake walk in which of many admirable dancers, Miss Josie Quinn and Mr. Blackwood walked off with the cake. Miss Irene McMahon and Mr. William McInerney were pronounced adepts. Music was furnished by Mill's orchestra.

The members of the choir and a few friends passed Tuesday evening very pleasantly dancing in the school hall.

The Young Men's club entertained with cards Wednesday evening. As is usual, a large attendance responded and a delightful evening was passed.

Miss Emily Shean gave an enjoyable evening to the members of the "Girl's Club" at her home on Edinburgh street, Thursday.

The L. C. B. A. gave one of its series of card parties in its rooms Friday evening.

Tuesday evening the C. B. C. will read the second act of "Julius Caesar."

The play "My Brother from Sheffield" which was so admirably presented by some members of this parish Thanksgiving, will be repeated in Dansville, March 16th, for the benefit of St. Patrick's church of that place.

CATHEDRAL.

William H. Driscoll and Miss May Lucille Hunt were married at 7 o'clock Monday morning by Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, rector of St. Patrick's cathedral. The ceremony was a quiet one. Miss Lenora C. Driscoll and James J. Driscoll, sister and brother of the groom, attended the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll left on the 9.05 a. m. train for the east and will visit New York, Washington and Old Point Comfort before returning. Mr. Driscoll is a well known and popular young attorney, being associated in the practice of his profession with Congressman J. M. E. O'Grady.

The "midwinter festival" which was held at Cathedral hall on last Tuesday evening netted a neat sum for the Ladies' Aid Society. The festival opened with a short musical program, which included vocal solos by Miss Mary Groff, and Mrs. Chas. E. Cunningham, as well as songs and dancing by little Janette Mincer. This was followed by the auction of the numerous lunch boxes that had been provided by the ladies. John J. McInerney made a very competent auctioneer, and in the cause of "sweet charity" he occasionally allowed the bids to run higher than 50c, the limit that had been decided upon. During lunch several selections were rendered by Deussenbach's orchestra, and the latter part of the evening was given to dancing.

A very successful entertainment was given at Nazareth Academy on last Tuesday evening. It was the one act drama, entitled "The Open Secret," by the "Nine Girls' Club." The cast included the Misses Gertrude Burns; Ethel Bemish, Loretta Baker, Grace Torre, Mae Stupp, Emma O'Keefe, Mary Donnelly, and Anna LeVeque. The programme opened with a violin solo by Miss Beth Rogers that delighted her hearers. Following the drama Miss Cecelia Hughes won much applause for her graceful rendition of the monologue entitled "Her Cuban Tea." The proceeds of the entertainment are to go to the Italian scholarship fund.

The next entertainment of the Rochester Catholic Reading Circle will take place at Cathedral school next Tuesday evening, Feb. 27, and will be a "book party." All are requested to wear some symbol suggesting the title of a book. A prize will be given to the one who reads aright the highest number of symbols. A musical program will be rendered by Miss Anna Roche, Mr. Hall and Mrs. Ford. Refreshments will be served. Friends of the members are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Malachi Garvey of 177 Brown street will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on March 8th.

ST. MONICA'S.

Friday evening, Feb. 16th, the Ladies' Aid Society gave a card party with an attendance of nearly one hundred and fifty players. Ladies' prizes were secured by Misses McDonald, McCormack and Roland. The gentlemen winners were Messrs. J. P. McSweeney, W. Lewis and Jas. Dolan. A considerable sum was netted for the parish poor.

The Sanctuary society is to be congratulated on the choice decorations with which they have adorned the altars this winter. On the evening, Feb. 23rd, Rev. Father Brophy entertained the choir and Young Ladies' Sodality in the school hall. Cards, dancing and refreshments, were enjoyed by those present.

St. Monica's branch of the L. C. B. A. will hold a meeting next Tuesday evening followed by a cup social.

PLEASANT RECITAL.

SIBLEY, LINDSAY & CURR

Bicycles of 1900

It's now hardly more than a matter of days before we shall all be a wheel again.

Our Bicycle store is open.

We are ready to talk wheels and show you wheels.

Here is the Lenox. Equal in quality to last years model—cheapened a dollar's worth in construction, but lessened considerably in price, $27.50. With Morrow Coaster Brakes, $35.

There isn't another bicycle in America to touch it at the price.

That's a very broad statement, but we'll soon convince any minded person of its truth.

Iver-Johnson and Navarre complete our list.
