place on Jan. 16, and was a large and representative one. The deceased was a member of an uncient family. At the Church of St. Carthage, at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, Office and High Mass was offered up for the deceased. The newly elected Mayor of Waterford, Mr Alexander Nelson—Unionist and Tory-when thanking the "patriots" who constitute the Town Council of the "Urbs Intacta" for electing him Chief Magistrate of their city, said. that at each meeting of the Corporators when what he considers "the bustness" shall be over he would permit them to "amuse" themselves discusping questions of National importance. Mr Nelson said he would leave the chair when resolutions of a patriotic character would be introduced, and hereby minimize their importance Waterford will not be heard from i an official manner on any Irish question if the Tory-Unionist Mayor be permitted to do as he said. There was one man with a spark of genuine patriotism in the chamber-Mr. Walter Bishop-who resisted the selection of such a Mayor for Waterford, and when he failed to awaken his fellow members to a proper sense of their duty, be resigned on the spot. As Mr. Nelson went home Mayor of Waterford, did mind revert to the days he came from Wales to Sallypark?
