CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.

Jan. 9, at Gardiner Street Church, Dublin, by the Very Rev. Redmon's McDonagh, uncle to the bride, Simon P. Corbett, Galway, youngest son of the late John Corbett, Newcastle, Athenry, to Katie McDonagh, High street, Galway.

Most Rev. Dr. McCormick, Bishop of Galway, has made the following changes in the diocese: The Rev. John Fitzgerald, C. C., Clarenbridge, to Ennistymon; Rev. Father Burke, C. .C., Ennistymon, to Clarenbridge; Rev. Father Concannon, C.C., Gort, to Lisdoonvarna, and Rev. Father Moran, C. C., Gort, to Galway.

The death of Mr. Timothy Coyne, of Tourkeel, Athenry, occurred at his residence on Sunday, Jan. 21, aged 65 years. The interment took place in Cloughanower, Headford.

LEITZIM

At the meeting of the Aughavas United Irish League on Feb. 4 the president, James Teague, presided. It was unanimously resolved, "That we congratulate the Irish Nationalist party on their uniting, and that we pledge them our support."-James Reynolds, D. C., hon. sec.

A very sad drowning accident occurred near Manorhamilton on Jan. 27. It appears a young girl named Henry, on a visit to her brother, Patrick Henry, caretaker to Mr. George Conboy, Cloonlougher, was going across the River Bonnet on a float, when suddenly a breeze of wind capsized it and threw the girl into the river. The girl's sister-in-law was standing on the bank and made every effort to save her, but all was of no avail. The body has not been recovered.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Michael Reynolds, Nationalist, Mohill, which occurred Jan. 27 at the fine age of 79 years. The sad event was deep-By and widely regretted. His connection with politics dated from the foundation of the Tenant League, and it was in a great measure owing to his exertions that the late Dr. Brady was elected Member of Parliament for Leitrim in the election of '52. Mr. Reynolds was father of the Mobill Board of Guardians, being a member when he stood alone as the champion of the poor man's right, the great majority of the P. L. G.'s being nominees of the rent office. In the stormy days of the Land League he was well to the front and saved many a struggling tenant from eviction. The cortege that accompanied his remains to the fam-11y burial ground at Farnaught was rge and representative.

On Jan. 29 the interment took place of Mr. Patrick McDermott, who died at his home, Louisburgh, on Saturday. A Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated Monday morning. Celebrant, Rev. William Joyce; deacon, Rev T. Heally, Adm.; sub-deacon, Rev. P. J. Madden; master of ceremonies, Rev. John O'-Malley. The funeral to Kilgeever was largely attended.

When Mr. John O'Donnell, ex-political prisoner and great advocate for the extension of the United Irish League's principles, reached Westport, Feb. 8 after two months' imprisonment in Sligo jail, he received an enthusiastic reception. He was met at the railway station by a vast concourse headed by the Kilmeena and Kilmaclasser Fife and Drum bands. The meople accompanied Mr. O'Donnell to the town, where a meeting was held opposite the League rooms. James street. On the motion of Mr. P. O'-Grady, D. C., the chair was taken by Mr. John Walsh.

With regret we record the death of Mr. Alexander O'Keefe, a well-known member of the Mayo Examiner staff, who died rather unexpectedly Feb. 6. Mr. O'Keefe was 53 years of age, and a member of a very old Castlebar family. He served his apprenticeship to the printing trade in the office of the Mayo Constitution, Castlebar. Twenty-eight years ago he came to the Mayo Examiner office, where he remain d until his death. He was highly esteemed by Mr. Martin Sheridan and the late Mr. Alfred H. Sheridan, by the companionship and all who knew him. The interment took place in the new Protestant Cemetery on Wednesday. the funeral being large and representative. The buriet a was read by the Rev. Mr. Oldhouse. Members of the Commorris branch of the United Irish League held a meeting Feb. 5 in Reading Room, Claremorris. The hall was nacked when the chair was taken by Mr. Michael Morley, of Cloonthus. Messrs. Conor O'Kelly and T. Brett, honorary secretary, addressed the meeting.

SLIGO.

Mr. John O'Dowd, Chairman of Sligo County Council, accompanied by Mr. Peter Cawley, C. C., visited Tiereragh Feb. 4, and was enthusiastically received by the people of that populous district. Mr. O'Dowd and Mr. Santry, John Hoey, factor, 50 Bolton Cawley will visit Dromore West. The people of Tireragh will have no one but Mr. O'Dowd as their representative

Mr. Patrick Gilbride, Drumcliffe, died Jan. 31, aged 59 years. For over 40 years he labored as a National teacher ry aged 86 years. and only retired on pension in May. Even then he never ceased work, as the assisted his son, by whom he was succeeded. At home and abroad the and news will be received by his former nupils-and they are legion-with the most profound regret. Teaching was to him a labor of love, and the school records amply testify that on every occasion he gave complete satisfaction. In 1860 he taught in Sligo town and afterwards in Calfy. From there he went to Ballyweelin, in his mative parish of Drumcliff, where he taught ill a few days before his death.

Dr. Tennant had also a small bottle containing whisky, and while at Mulcahy's produced from his pocket what he thought to be the bottle containing the spirits, and drank a portion. Mrs. Mulcahy questioned him regarding the peculiar smell emitted by the carbolic acid, and then at once realizing what he had done, he called for mustard and water to make an emetic, which proved too late, Dr. Tennant falling on the floor in great agony shortly afterward, and writhing with pain. In the interim the dispensary officer, Dr. O'Callaghan, was sent for ,but Dr. Tennant ruins. was lifeless. Dr. Tennant was a nephew of the late Mr. Rickard Lloyd, large County Limerick land-owner. He was not more than 35 years of age. and after becoming a doctor, some years ago, practiced near London. He was verp popular in the locality where he resided, Portnard, close to Cappamore. An inquest was held, and after hearing formal evidence the jury returned a verdict to the effect that death was the result of misadventure, The intelligence of the death recent.
