 John Bray, an old and respected resident of Corning, died Thursday morning after an illness of some time. His health had been impaired for years and his death was not unexpected. He is survived by three sons, John C. Patrick and Michael, also two step-daughters, who are, Sister M. Josephine and Sister M. Francis, of LaGrange, Ill. The funeral was held at St. Mary's church and the interment was in St. Mary's cemetery.
 The C. D. Reading club was pleasantly entertained on Thursday evening, at the home of Miss Margaret Dean of First street.
 It is sometimes interesting to test the amount of bravery some young men possess, who think themselves brave. Who would think that a young man, pretending to be a courage, would be frightened by the sudden appearance of a young lady much smaller than himself, and become so terror-stricken that he cannot realize where he is destined for, until he finds himself on a stranger's porch. This person would certainly shrink dully on the battle field.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. McCarthy mourn the loss of their three-year-old son, Harry, who died Saturday afternoon of diphtheria. The bereaved parents have much sympathy in their affliction.

Father Busin has been very successful since he came to Corning, and every good work that has been suggested to the congregation has been cordially accepted by them.
 Miss Margaret Foley has left for a two month's visit with friends and relatives at Horsham, Pa.
 People living on the hillside might have been attracted one evening last week, by the loud cries of a young lady who became suddenly startled at the sight of her cousin whom she had not seen in a long time. Although she was specious for some time, we are glad to state however, that it was nothing serious.
