Small Boys' Sweaters

These sweaters for the little man, four to twelve year size, which you gave $1.50 and $1.75 last year are $1.10.

Here is a contradictory state of affairs. Yarns go up, sweaters come down. We will explain how it happens.

When yarns advanced so materially that the manufacturer could not make these sweaters, so that we could supply you for less than $2 each, he came to the conclusion that the price was practically prohibitive, decided to discontinue the manufacture of these sweaters for small boys. He had this lot of some two hundred on hand; we closed them out.

There are to be some happy boys and pleased mothers.

Two styles; turtle necks with detachable fronts, and with inserted necks.
