ARRANGEMENTS GOING ON FOR ITS OPENING JULY 2-

The Program of Exercises for the Seatlon -Some of the Ablest Schelars of the Country Participate-Words of Approba" tion From Distinguished Preinter

At Cliff Haven, N. Y., near Plattsburgh, the Champiain Summer School will begin its ninth session the first week of July and continue until the end of August. During nine weeks, amid the cool breezes from the Adirendack Mountains, some of the ablest refresentatives of Catholic institutions of learning will discuss important sublects. By the charter from the Regents of New York State these courses of lectures are recognized in the department of University Extension. Invitations from the Board of Studies in charge of the program have been accepted by George Melville Bolling, Ph. D. and Charles P. Neill, Ph. D. of the Catholic University at Washington. D. C Those in attendance at former sea-hearty welcom: James J. Walsh of the University of Pennsylvania, and Henry Austin Adams, A. M. A number of leading questions of philosophy are assigned to the Rev. James A. Doonan S J., of St. Joseph's College, Philadelphia; the Rev. Thomas I. Gasson S J., of Boston College, and the Rev. John T. Driscoll, S. T. L., author of two recent volumes bearing on Theism and the human soul. In addition to the names already mentioned. arrangements are under way for a nur ber of lectures by the Rev. William Livingston, of Newburgh, N. Y.; Very Rev. M. W. Holland, V. F., of Port Henry, N. Y.; Rev. James H. Driscoll, D. D., of Rouse's Point, N. Y., and Rev. John P. Chidwick, U. S. N., Chaplain of the late Maine. Under the direction of the Rev. D. J. McMahon, D D special studies covering a period of six weeks have been planned dealing with Shakespeare and Danta. These studies will be conducted according to the plan of Round Table Talks.

A course of illustrated lectures on art will be given by Miss Anna Seaton Schmidt, of Washington, D. C. The Hon, John J. Fitzgerald, member of congress from New York, will deliver a lecture on the Indian question. At a later date the Chairman of the Board Sudles, Rev. Thomas ":: Millan, C. 8 P, will issue a circular with adhal names and a more detailed ac-of the subjects assigned. Coptes of his circular may be obtained on applica ion to the New York office, 123 East Fiftleth street, or to Mr. Warren E. Mosher, Youngstown, Ohio. POINTS OF INFORMATION.

The ninth session of the Champlain Summer School will open on Monday, July 2nd, and Close Friday, August from seven weeks to nine weeks because of an urgent demand from many members and patrons. As the charms of Cliff Haven as a Summer resort become better known there is a growing demand from many persons that they be allowed the privilege of utilizing the advantages of this delightful resort season. The Trustees have, therefore, during the whole summer vacation provided for this demand by furnishing the necessary accommodation at Cliff Haven from June 15th to Sep-Lember 15th

The Summer School, which has been chartered by the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New Fork, exists for the purpose of providing the Catholic people of the United States with a means of reunion during the summer months in a place where, amid the delights of natural beauty, the pleasure of social intercourse, and the accompaniment of legitimate, healthful recreation, they may learn to know one another better. to understand their strength, to exlarge the scope of their education, and get correct views upon many important questions incident to Catholic life in this country.

Through lack of information in regard to the character of the Institut Mon, quite a few misconceptions have been formed of the nature of the Sumsteady attendance in class under rigid rules during many hours of each day, Social intercourse is large and varied. Recreation of the most enjoyable sort is fostered and organized by special committees of persons peculiarly adapted and thoroughly experienced in these lines.

The educational feature comes in to relieve and to exclude the monotony that ordenarily accompanies life at summer resorts. Every person is free may choose at the Empyrean Spring. As a matter of fact, the lectures are largely attended by the great body of the Summer School patrons, who find them a never-ceasing source of pleaseure as well as profit.

The location, on the west bank of beautiful, historic Lake Champlain, Telephone 8018 with the Green Mountains on the one side and the Adirondacks on the other, within easy reach of Ausable Chasm, Montreal, Quebec, the St. Lawrence River, and the Thousand Islands, cannot be surpassed for healthfulness nor Hot weather is unknown there, When people at New York, Philadelphis and Boston resorts are sweltering in atmospheres of more than 100 degrees, the thermometer at Cliff Hawen rarely goes beyond 85 degrees. which is an excessive temperature of this place.

The social life is charming in the extreme. The whole community forms, as it were, one large family into which no rough or disagreeable characters ever enter, in which class distinctions are unknown, where all vie with each other in contributing to the general pleasure, comfort and advantage. As all the patrons of the Summer School are cultivated and well educated they abound in social talent. The consequence is that no evening passes without entertainments, always varying in character, the recollection of which never passes away, and whose essociations often produce very lasting and useful friendships. The recreation program, which covers every week day afternoon of the entire sessions has been arranged unsier the personal supervision of Mr. James E. Sullivan, the genial secretary of the A. A. U., and president of the of Detroit. Knickerbocker and New Jersey Athletto Clubs. With a view to adding zest Point. The railroad station is Bluff Point-and-Cliff Haven. The most delightful route for those living east, south and west is via D. & H. Railway and Champleon Transportation Company steamers through Lake George and Lake Champlain. The person who does not take the route through these lakes, either on the going or returning journey, misses the most enjoyable part of the trip to the Summer School. The trip via D. & H. along the west shore is one of the most picturesque in America.
