Whitewell Limestone Quarries, on June 7. Several workmen were blasting when a large boulder gave way and entombed three named Smith, Mc-Keown and Roberts.

The "civilized" Orangemen of Antrim .- Stone were thrown into the house of a widow named Moran, in Cogry, near the Whitehouse, where women were attending on a child. Needless to say, the crasning of stones through the windows gave a terrible shock to the poor invalid and those in attendance. The "Butchers" in Ulster were celebrating the capture of Pretoria. Those fellows were very loud in their condemnation of the all ged cruelty of the Boers a short time before Pretoria was captured.

The Orange ruffians in Belfast celebrated the capture of Pretoria in the usual way. In the afternoon mill employes did not resume work. They marched along Royal avenue, Donogal place, and principal streets, carrying small Union Jacks and large sticks. At a quarter to twelve o'clock a crowd in Great Patrick street attacked the in the windows. Several private houses were also wrecked The premises of the Central Catholic Club were much injured.
