AD MULTOS ANNOS. This week Thursday our Rt. Rev. Bishop celebrated the thirty-second anniversary of his consecration as bishop in a quiet though impressive manner.

A report of the exercises will be found in another column. Bishop McQuaid has labored unceasingly among us for over a quarter of a century, and it is not necessary to speak here of the many works he has accomplished. They are numerous and scattered in every part of the diocese, and speak for themselves. They stand as sentinels to the great army of unbelievers of Catholicism. The faithful pray that our bishop may be spared to us for many years. Ad Multos Annos.

THE JOURNAL PROGRESSIVE.

Beginning with our next issue we will publish a short chapter on Irish history each week, which will be welcome news to our Irish subscribers. Arrangements are also being made to print a first-class Catholic story—one that will be interesting to our readers, both young and old. The story is from the pen of Miss Mary Rowena Cotter, whose stories have been published in THE JOURNAL before, and we are sure that this production from her facile pen will be as fully appreciated as those of yore. We have other new features in view that will be announced later. Our one desire is to improve THE JOURNAL at every opportunity.

THE GOSPELS.

GOSPEL:—July 15.—Sixth Sunday after Pentecost, St. Mark, viii. 1-9.—At that time, "When there was a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, calling His disciples together, He saith to them: I have compassion on the multitude, for behold they have now been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And if I send them away fasting to their home they will faint in the way, for some of them came from afar off. And His disciples answered Him: From whence can any one fill them here with bread, in the wilderness? And He asked them: How many loaves have ye? Who said: Seven. And He commanded the multitude to sit down upon the ground. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, He broke, and gave to His disciples to set before them, and they set them before the people. And they had a few little fishes: and He blessed them, and commanded them to be set before them. And they did eat, and were filled, and took up that which was left of the fragments, seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and He sent them away."

What are we to learn from this gospel? We are to learn to have compassion for our brethren who are in want, and as He used the bread reserved for Himself and for the apostles to feed the people, so also must we take pleasure in depriving ourselves of something in order to help the poor.

Weekly Church Calendar. Sunday, July 15.—Gosp. St. Mark, viii. 1-9.—Sixth Sunday after Pentecost.—St. Mark. Monday, July 16.—Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. Tuesday, July 17.—St. Alexis, confessor. Wednesday, July 18.—St. Frederick, bishop. Thursday, July 19.—St. Vincent of Paul, confessor.

MISSIONS IN CHINA.

Father Doyle, writing on the missions in the Peking district, where the Magazine for July, gives some very interesting statistics and a deal of accurate information concerning the missions in the Peki district, where the war is now going on. Speaking of China itself he says:

"China has an area of 4,000,000 square miles, or greater than all the United States, a population generally put down at 400,000,000, or six times that of the United States, and only 350 miles of railroad, or not one five-hundredth of the mileage of the United States. This enormous population lives in simple ways, as they are obliged to do. They travel little, as there are no facilities for going far from home. They are shut in by a great stone wall from their neighbors, and what is of far greater consequence, by a greater wall of prejudice against anything not Chinese, from the rest of the civilized world. Among the various classes there are certain standards of civilization which make them peace-loving and law-abiding people, and it is the testimony of merchants who have had dealings with them that they are as a general rule honest. They are, however, wedded to their own customs, tenacious of their traditional ways, and exceedingly jealous of the growing power of the foreigners. It is this latter trait that has been the cause of the late disturbances, with their sanguinary results."

He gives some accurate statistics from the latest and most authentic sources: "One would imagine from reading the daily press that the only missionaries in China are the American Protestant missionaries. A little reference to fact will easily show that all through the Chinese Empire the Catholic Church is not only well established and thoroughly organized, but is doing a most efficient work in the way of convert-making. In the Peking district alone, where the war is now going on, the priests heard last year 31,417 confessions and received 6,506 converts. It is interesting to note that there is a community of the Sisters of St. Joseph, with four houses and 62 native Chinese sisters."

To give some idea of the increase of religion the following statistics of the Peking district may be quoted: "In 1889 the stations numbered 322; now there are 577. Ten years ago there were 34,417 Christians; to-day we number 46,894. In 1889 adult baptisms amounted to only 1,022; this year they number 2,322, of which only 633 were administered in danger of death. In 1889 there were 1,170 catechumens; to-day they number 6,506, and if we include those who have expressed their intention of becoming Christians the number would exceed 10,000. The annual confessions have increased from 23,464 to 31,417."

The time may be delayed, the manner unexpected, but the answer is sure to come. Not a tear of sacred sorrow, not a breath of holy desire poured out in prayer to God will ever be lost, but in God's own time and way will be wafted back again in clouds of mercy and fall in showers of blessing on you and those for whom you pray. Father Gallway, S. J.

The following story comes from Rome: Some ladies made their appearance at a Papal reception to the grave displeasure of the Pope, in ball room dress. A well-known Cardinal was instructed to appraise these offenders of their breach of etiquette. The cardinal thus fulfilled his somewhat delicate mission. "The Pope," he said, "is old-fashioned and does not like decollete dresses; but I am quite accustomed to them, for I have been so much among savages when a missionary that I do not mind them."

In compliance with a request of Bishop Sbarretti, which had the endorsement of Superintendent Frye three priests accompanied the Cuban teachers to Boston, to look after their spiritual welfare. The reverend gentlemen are Father Ruiz of Havana, Father Desideria Mesnier of Santiago and Father Daniel Powers of Fomento. None of them speak English. Father Ruiz will remain in the United States to attend the Catholic University at Washington. Notwithstanding his Irish name, Father Powers is a Cuban, probably a descendant of one of those Irishmen who, after the breaking of the treaty of Limerick, emigrated to Spain to take an important part in her future history and whose names are quite common in Cuba.—Sacred Heart Review.

Archbishop Corrigan of New York has been to Padua to participate in the fetes in honor of St. Anthony. He had a cordial reception. The Bishop of Padua gave a dinner, where all Church and other dignitaries in the province were invited. On departing he was accompanied to the station by the mayor, the high ecclesiastical and the most eminent of local persons.

CATHOLIC NOTES.

The Augustinian Mission band have returned to Villa Nova after being engaged since September in giving missions in the large cities of the country. During that time they have enrolled 70,000 in the scapular of Our Lady of Good Counsel; heard 90,000 confessions and instructed 400 converts.

Archbishop Ireland has been appointed a member of the Advisory Council of the National Civic Federation, an organization for the study of questions of national importance, politically and industrially. The council is composed of prominent representatives of all classes in industry and business.

Says the Pittsburg Observer, the first teacher of Harvard University was Nathaniel Eaton and he was a graduate of a Jesuit college! If he were living to-day, President Elliot would not only not let him teach there, but would not let him study there, except under vexatious discriminations because he got his college training in a Jesuit school. But when Elliot is forgotten and his wild eclecticism has been cast out of Harvard, Eaton will be remembered with pride.

The second congress of the Priests' Eucharistic League will be held next year in St. Louis.

The Samoa Islands are in the spiritual charge of the Marist Fathers under Bishop Broyer, as vicar-apostolic.

For the first time in the history of St. Louis twelve young men were ordained to the Holy Priesthood in the Order of Jesus last Wednesday, by Right Rev. George Montgomery, D. D., Bishop of Los Angeles and Monterey, Cal.

One of the oldest churches in India is the Church of Our Lady of the Rosary in Baudel, in the Hooghly district, belonging to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Mylapore. It was built in 1599, and the third anniversary was celebrated recently.

The Catholics of Cincinnati have established a "Catholic Visitation Society," the object of which is to provide Catholic nurses and all necessities for the sick poor; also to prepare the room for the administration of the sacraments.

Paris is greatly disturbed over the action of the Archbishop of Rouen in denouncing the wearing of the divided skirt by women. The Archbishop has sent letters expressing his views to all the clergymen of his diocese and has declared that no woman "in unwomanly clothing" will be admitted to the Cathedral.

According to the Missionary the Redeemtorists have not been without their own meed of success in convert-making. In the Mission Church in Boston, since their establishment there, they have received more than 1,100 converts into the Church. In Baltimore, during the past winter, under Father Sigel, they gave a mission to non-Catholics, and found the results most satisfactory.

The archdiocese of New York will celebrate on July 19 the golden jubilee of its existence as an archdiocese. During the fifty years of the existence of the Archdiocese of New York it has seen but three rulers—Archbishop Hughes, Cardinal McCloskey and Archbishop Corrigan. The event will be one of the greatest importance. The archbishop will return from Europe in time for the ceremonies.

It is reported that Cardinal Satolli and Mgr. Strengero intend to visit the United States soon.

Rev. John Hughes, vice-provincial of the Paulists, is at the Lake George house of the order. There are about 12 priests of the community there now.

Rev. Walter Elliott, C. S. P., has concluded a retreat for priests at Nashville, Tenn. He also was director of a retreat at St. Bede's college, Peru, Illinois.

Father Collins of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, Mo., formerly a resident of White Plains, has been visiting friends in this vicinity and officiated last Sunday in the Tuckahoe church.

Rev. John D. Roach of Sacred Heart church, West Fifty-first street, New York city, preached the sermon at the mass preceding the opening of the state convention of the C. B. L. in Troy last Tuesday.

Rev. John A. Lynch, C. S. R., closed a very successful week's mission in the Croton-on-Hudson church, on June's last Sunday. Three hundred and forty-five persons approached the sacraments.

WORK OF THE APOSTOLATE. The New York Apostolate report the reception of seventy-three converts. Father Xavier Sutton baptized twenty-eight at his mission in Philadelphia. Father Younan, C. S. P., actually received twenty-two at Providence. R. L., leaving sixteen already prepared for baptism, and thirty-four still in the inquiry class. The first effort in Boston left twenty under instruction. Father Donohue of Dodge City, Kan., had four converts ready for confirmation as the bishop came around, and at Danbury, Conn., the pastor reported 132 new sittings rented as the result of a mission to the non-Catholics.—The Missionary.

Rev. Brother Michael, who has been director of the Christian Brothers at St. Francis de Sales' School, Toledo, O., has been transferred to Hong Kong, China, where he will direct the schools in charge of his brotherhood.

The President of the German Reichstag, Count Balotrem, a Catholic, is recognized by all parties to be an ideal president.

SOCIETIES.

LAWN PARTY.

A mid-summer lawn social was given by Auxiliary No. 3, D. of E., at No. 12 Arklow street, on Monday evening, and while in the past our friends has liberally patronized all entertainments given by our Auxiliary, this time they have showed that our friends cannot be counted by the hundreds but by thousands, as the receipts show that over 2,000 persons were present at our lawn party.

The officers and members of Aux. No. 3, wishes to extend their thanks to all who helped to make the entertainment such a glorious success, as it will live for years to come as one of the largest lawn fetes ever held by any Auxiliary in the city. A good share of the success of the entertainment was due to the indefatigable work of Mrs. Regan, Mrs. Dixon, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. McDermott, Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. Flynn, Miss Tessie Colliott, Miss Libbie Richards, Mrs. Goetzman, assisted by Messrs. McGrath and Lynch.

The subject of this sketch, Mrs. Anna Powell, was born in Killeen, county of Tipperary, Ireland. She received her education at Kyle park seminary, graduating from that school with the highest honors at the age of fifteen years. She, having the advantages of a good education and prospects of a bright future, yet knowing full well that she could not further her interests to a great extent in her native land, took passage on one of the outgoing vessels for America. In the latter part of the year 1860, after a rough and tedious voyage of several days, she arrived in the land of the free, locating in the town of Palmyra, N. Y., and residing there from 1860 to 1862. She then removed to Newark, N. Y., remained there a short time, after which she took up her residence in Rochester, N. Y., the Flower city of the universe, where she still resides.

On the fourth of April, 1895, the Ladies' Auxiliary to the A. O. H. was organized, the first in the state. She was elected president, and the charter closed with two hundred and fifty members. She also assisted in organizing, since then, the auxiliaries in Monroe county, which are flourishing. She is also an active member of many other Catholic organizations.

Mrs. Powell is a candidate for reelection to the office of state secretary, and the delegates will make no mistake if they select her for the position, for she has had plenty of experience, and that does not come amiss when dealing with matters pertaining to the state organization.

JOHN J. MURPHY

The New President of Division 1, A. O. H.

The members of Division No. 1, have elected Bro. John J. Murphy as president, to fill the unexpired term of Brother James Burke deceased.

Mr. Murphy was born in County Wexford, Ireland, under the shadow of Vinegar Hill, in 1863. He lived under British tyrannical rule for 13 years, when he determined to come to this country, where he could be free and independent. His hopes and aspirations were fully realized and he enjoyed the broad freedom of this country. As a business man he has shown unusual skill and aptitude, and has been successful. His honesty and integrity are well established among his many friends and the members of Division 1, can rest assured that they have placed the right man in the right place. Six members were initiated at the last regular meeting, which pleased the new president and he is confident that with the hearty cooperation of the members, Division 1, will strengthen the lead they have on the title "the banner division of Monroe county."

In Memoriam. The following resolution was adopted at the regular meeting of Division 7, A. O. H., held Thursday, July 12, 1900:

Whereas, We are again called upon to mourn the decease of a brother whose sad death has overwhelmed us with sorrow. Our Heavenly Father has deemed it wise to take from our midst Bro. Martin Flynn; and while we bow submissively to the decrees of Divine Providence, we regret exceedingly the loss this division has sustained. Bro. Flynn was at all times a true Iibernian—one who had the best interests of the order at heart, and one who exemplified in his daily life the motto of this organization.

Resolved, That we extend to the family of our deceased brother our sincere sympathy in the loss they have sustained; that this resolution be entered upon the minutes of our meeting, and our charter be draped in mourning in respect to his memory; that this resolution be published in THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL, and a copy thereof be presented to the family.

John Rogan, Lawrence G. McGreal, committee.
