CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.

On July 8 the residents of Bohermore and Claddagh celebrated mid-Summer with bonfires and dances. There was great life at each place, and as for jig dancing the performance at Bohermore and Claddagh could not be excelled.

July 29 was a red letter day in the annals of Chifden, when the Archbishop of Tuam blessed the new bell and presided at the opening of the new church. The ceremony took place before High Mass, which commenced at 11 o'clock. Cel brant, Very Rev. P. Canon MacAlpine, Clifden; deacon. Rev. Father Kelly, Claddaghduff; subdeacon, Rev. Father Lynch, Clifden, and Rev. Father McDermott, Tuam, master of ceremonies. The congregation was very large, comprising many from Galway and the railway stations Rev. Dr. McCormack preached.

The Coast Guard Officer at Roundstone, Connemara, has forwarded to and a telegram sent to Very Rev Mgr the Board of Trade a sealed bottle picked up on 'he beach there, in which was a printed card directing the finder to forward to Capt. Ernest Andree, Polar Expedition Company, Wisenberg, Sweden, and stating that it was thrown out of Andree's balloon in between the teeth. When his wounds the Arctic regions for scientific purposes to test the currents of the ocean. It was carried down into the Gulf Stream from the Arctic sea, and so washed ashore at Roundstone. A short time ago several sealed copper buoys were picked up there, which had been thrown overboard into the Gulf stream by the Prince of Monaco for the Geographical Society of Paris.—Galway Express. Most Rev. Dr. MecEvilly, Archbishop of Tuam, in his triennial tour through the western portion of his archdiocese, reached Roundstone the middle of July. A large flotilla of boats crossed to the Carna shore to accompany him to Roundstone, where he was received with delight. During the previous fortnight he had been engaged visiting Spiddal, Carraroe and presented for confirmation, in Carraroe 400, in Carna 400, and in Roundstone 300. The children i each par-1sh possessed thorough knowledge of the Christian doctrine, and to all his grace administered the total abstipraise on the teachers for their zealous efforts in co-operating with the Roundstone for some days, and will proceed to Clifden.

It is rumored that Mr. W. M. Murphy, ex-M. P., will be a candidate for North Mayo, as Mr. Crilly will not seek re-election. Mr. Murphy was formerly M. P. for St. Patrick's Division, Dublin. At the time of the split he took up the anti-Parnellite interest, and later on sided with Mr. Tim Healy, M. P., in his campaign against Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien. He is hardly the kind of person the founders of the Land League and of the United Irish League will select to represent them in Parliament. After 11 o'clock Mass. July 22, a awo weeks' mission was opened in Kilmeena Parish Church by Vincentian Fathers. The opening sermon was preached by Father Flynn. During the weeks crowds thronged the church at the morning and evening devotions. and the good Fathers each day were kept busy in the confessionals. The fine old church has been recently renovated, and Father O'Toole, the reverend pastor of Kilmeena, is to be highly complimented on the many improvements. The entrance doors have been surrounded by porches, so necessary, having regard, to the exposed position of the building. A new sacristy has been erected connecting with the entrance door to the sanctuary, and a beliry is in course of construction. Within the church the old wooden altar has been replaced by warble one.

ROSCOMMON. Mr. Michael Herevin, solicitor, nephew to Mr. Farrell McDonnell, solicitor, Roscommon, has been elected secretary to the Roscommon County Council.

A meeting of the Kiltruskan Branch, United Irish League, was held July 22. Mr. J. Duffy presiding.

SLIGO. Mr. F. F. Gallagher, Tallaght Do-

The first number of the Newbridge College Magazine has just been published. The College of St. Thomas Aduinas is in charge of the Dominican Fathers at Newbridge. The first number gives promise of excellent reading. The contents include a description of the college life and the college sports. "A Newbridge Boy on the Continent" is a well written account of notable places in France and Italy. "The Story of the College" is well told. There is an article on the Armagh Cathedral, and notice of the late Alderman Meade. There are capital articles on football, cricket, handball, the Roentgen rays, photography (as practiced at the college), the college musical and literary and debating clubs. On Wednesday, the 18th of July. the annual distribution of prizes took place in the Convent of the Sisters of the Most Holy Cross and Passion, Kilcullin. A concert preceded the distribution. The vocal solos, duets and trios were excellently sung, and the performance of items of concerted music on various instruments reflected great credit on the training and education given in the establishment. The prizes were distributed by the parish priest, Very Rev. Canon Longan, assisted by the Very Rev. Father Wilfrid, rector of Mount Argus. The proceedings were brought to a close by a charming comedietta entitled "A Slight Mistake," in which the acting and elecution of the Misses Lizzie Doherty, Cissie Regan, Nora Forrest, May Ryan and Lily Daly were excel-
