

CITY PARISH NEWS.

Interesting Budget of Shopping-Gathered by Our City Reporters

ST. BRIDGET'S

Rev. James Maley, chaplain of Sonoma, celebrated mass at this church Monday morning.

Father Hendrick assisted at the administration of the sacrament of confirmation at Churchville, last Tuesday. The mission at that place was very successful.

Next Sunday will be communion Sunday for the men and boys.

Our school house presents a fine appearance with its new coat of red and gray. The congregation will be invited to inspect the improvements next Sunday.

Miss Ella Geraghty has gone to Harwich, to return with her sister Margaret, who has met with a serious accident occasioned by a fall, the breaking of her right arm.

Lieut. Ryan of Conkey avenue, has been assigned to Precinct No. 4, Clinton avenue North.

We were pleased to see that Father Hendrick ably answered the article in the Post Express in regard to the care of the Italians. We have about twenty bright, well-clad Italian children in our school and their parents take great pride in the progress which they make from year to year. These same children assist at mass on Sundays and attend Sunday school. A special service is held every Sunday at Lady chapel for all the Italians of the city who wish to attend and may do avail themselves of the opportunity, while others attend the various Catholic churches nearer their homes.
If our separated brethren wish to make converts (so-called) they can find plenty of matter to work upon in their own churches.

ST. MARY'S

A. Cuthane were married at a nuptial mass last Wednesday morning. Mr.
Daniel J. Mooney of Albion, and Miss Anna Cleary, were the witnesses and Rev. J. J. Leary officiated.

Rev. Father O'Connor has been appointed temporarily as assistant priest. We extend to him a cordial welcome.

It was a beautiful and edifying sight to see so many boys and girls receive holy communion as went to the Lord's table last Sunday.

T. J. Nigham, a prominent member of Branch 139, C. M. B. A., has been ill at his home for several days is now on the way to recovery.

Miss Margaret Bethune is visiting at Niagara Falls.

The choral society of the church will receive new members with good voices, both female and male. Apply at once to Mr. J. Klubertanz, president.

Mrs. Mary Vogt, director of Corpus Christi church choir has opened her school of music in the Granite Building, and is very successful in her method. She also teaches the Garcia old Italian method in vocal, as Miss Von Klenner, a former Rochester lady received the highest honors of this Garcia method in the musical department at Paris, at the present exposition.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bohrer of Woodward avenue, gave them a pleasant surprise at their new home last Tuesday evening.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

Rev. L. A. Bicklin, rector of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Green Bay, Wis., was a guest of Jos. F. Ribstein last week, on his way to Rome. He will visit his parents in Alsace.

ingham and family have returned from their summer homes at Sudas.

Mrs. J. R. Cukin is entertaining Miss Bradley of Brockville, Ont.

ST. JOSEPH'S.

Tuesday, was Professor J. Bauer's thirty-eight anniversary as organist of St. Joseph's church. In honor of the event, the children of St. Joseph's parochial school sent a beautiful bou-quet of flowers to him.

The conference of the married men of the Holy Family, will commence again at 3 o'clock Sunday.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The funeral of Miss Helen Feltley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Feltley, of 113 Bronson avenue, took place at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning from the family residence, and at 9 o'clock from Immaculate Conception church. A solemn mass of requiem was celebrated by the assistant rector of the church, Rev. William Gleeson. The choir under the direction of William F. Fredmore, sang the Gregorian mass for the dead.
Miss Julia Madden presided at the organ. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Mr. G. Edward Matthewson and Miss Minnie Doyle were married Monday by the Rev. Wm. Gleeson.

The marriage of Mary A. Curran to Thomas D. Stanton, both members of this parish, took place Wednesday morning, the Rev. A. M. O'Neill officiating. After Oct. 15th, Mr. and Stanton will be at home at 408 Plymouth avenue.

At a special meeting of the choir of the Immaculate Conception church, the following resolutions on the death of Miss Helen L. Feltley, were adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst, our beloved member, Helen L. Feltley, and Whereas, we fully realize our grief is mild in comparison to that of the dear ones who have lost a loving child and sister, therefore be it

Resolved, That we the members of the Immaculate Conception church choir, tender our heartfelt sympathy to the family of our beloved member and bow with humble resignation to the Divine will of Him who doeth all things well; and be it further Resolved, That we have "The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass" offered at our altar for the repose of her soul, and that a copy of these resolutions be published in the daily papers.

Miss Mayme D. Flanagan, Mrs. C.
J. Rhodes, William F. Fredmore, committee.

meeting, Thursday evening Sept. 27th.
A large attendance is requested.

The Baker Theatre.

One of the big hits in "Slaves of the Orient," which comes to the Baker the first half of next week, is made by the groups of Arabian tumbler, who were brought to this country especially for this production. This act is performed with marvelous dexterity and swiftness, and every movement is marked by that peculiar grace and ease which is seen only in "the children of the desert."

"A Brass Monkey," one of Hoyt's funniest farces, will be at the Baker theatre the last half of next week.

BLESSING THE GRAVES.

Annual Ceremony at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery to Take Place Sunday.

The ceremony of the annual blessing of the graves in Holy Sepulchre cemetery will take place next Sunday.
The clergy of the city and the ecclesiastical students of St. Andrew's Preparatory Seminary and St. Bernard's Theological Seminary will assemble at St. Bernard's Seminary, on the Boulevard, at 3:15 p. m.

A procession will be formed and proceed directly to the mortuary chapel of the cemetery. Here the vespers of the dead will be chanted, and then the procession of students, priests and the Rt. Rev. Bishop Mc-Quaid will pass through the principal avenues of the cemetery chanting the solemn chant of the dead, and the bishop will bless the graves. The bishop will then deliver an address to the people.

In favorable weather fully fifteen thousand people assemble to witness this impressive ceremony, and the grave that is not adorned with flowers that day is the rare exception.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Standing room was the nightly order at Cook opera house the past week, and the unsurpassable program was the best ever seen in Rochester this season. Next week's attractions Manager Moore says, will eclipse all previous efforts in victorious vaudeville, and any reader desiring to see of the most refined, high class vaudeville entertainments ever witnessed, should visit Cook Opera House the coming week, in fact any week. Special ladies matinee daily, the best reserved parquet seats only 20 cents, which can be ordered by mail or telephone, Rochester 990 no extra charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins D. Fisher & Co., in their own rural production, similar to Denham Thompson's great success, will present "The Half Way House" which is bound to encourage the laughing habit, and is one of the cleverest comedies seen on any stage.
Madame Emmy's troupe of trained pets. The society and classic acrobats, the LaMonts. Howard and Bland, musical sketch artists. Mathieu, the wonderful unique juggler. Canfield and Carlton, matchless stars in their travesty "The Hoo-doo." DeRoyne Sisters, Crinoline dancers. Tom Mack, the famous Ethiopian comedian, Cher-idah Simpson, the Ohio vocalist and musical comedienne, will be the star bill at Cook Opera House for week of September 24th. Two performances daily, matinee at 2:15, evening at 8:15.

Prices always the same, matinee 10, 15 and 20 cents, box, logs and divan seats 25 cents. Evening 10, 20 and 30 cents, box, logs and divan seats 50 cents. Mrs. Fiske is one of the coming attractions booked for Cook opera at an early date. Secure your seats early.

Miss Caroline Cramer Announces:
That she opened a studio Monday, Sept.
17th, at 541 Powers Block, where she will receive pupils in voice training.
Miss Cramer has acquired the Mar-chelet method during her recent study in Paris under that world-famous instructor and will teach it to her pupils.
