

OUR IRISH LETTER

NEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES OF IRELAND.

What is Being Done by the People at Home—Various Items From Every Section of the Emerald Isle.

CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.

The death of Joseph P. Connolly, aged 18 years, occurred at his home, Victoria street, Ballinasloe, on Aug. 18 deeply and widely regretted.

James McDonnell, aged 35 years, a court officer, was found dead in a field near his home, on Sunday, Aug. 19. Deceased had attended two masses that day.

Mr. O'Malley, M. P., for the Conemaugh Division of the County of Galway, recently arrived in Galway and stayed with his brother-in-law, Mr. James P. O'Sullivan, at No. 2, Rutledge Terrace, Salthill.

The bazaar held in Clifden Castle lately was a brilliant sight. The tables furnished by the ladies were attractive. There was a healthy rivalry as to which would obtain the most money.

Canon MacAlpine can well be congratulated on the great success of the bazaar. A good amount of money was realized.

A meeting of the United Irish League was held in Leenane Aug. 15. Mr. Michael O'Malley of Maam, president. Resolutions in favor of the League and promising support to the Election Fund were passed, as was also a resolution expressing confidence in Mr. William O'Malley as their Parliamentary representative.

LEITRIM.

We regret to chronicle a drowning accident by which William Waters lost his life on Aug. 19. He left his father's house to fish in the Bonet River. Not returning at night, he was searched for but not found till Monday morning, when his dead body was found in the river.

Mr. Clarke, aged 42, Mary Anne Clarke, of 42 Irishtown road. MONKS—At 124 Lower George's street, Kingstown, and of 67 Aungler street, Dublin, Jane Monks.

M'NALLY—At Loreto Convent, Balbrigan, in the Feast of the Assumption, Miss Mary McNally, in religion Sister Martha, late of Baldragh, Damastown, County Dublin, in the 76th year of her age, and forty-fourth of her religious profession.

O'Riordan—Aug. 19, at Cork road, Fermoy, Mr. Daniel O'Riordan, in his 74th year.

KILDARE.

Mr. John O'Neill, Athy, has left for Australia, for the benefit of his health. It is hoped that the long sea voyage will do him lasting good.

A branch of technical industry for boys has been introduced into Monastervan. Basket making has been selected, as there is a fine supply of osiers on the Drogheda estate which the Countess Drogheda has offered to supply free.

On Aug. 12 died Mrs. Margaret Sloane, of Kinard, Elphin, at the age of 82 years, deeply and widely regretted. She was the mother of Very Rev. John Canon Sloane, pastor of Drumcliffe, Sligo.

On Aug. 10 Rev. T. H. Cummins and Rev. R. Gearty returned to Roscommon after an absence of three years in America. The platforms were crowded with hundreds of well-wishers from town and country; old and young joined in the welcome home.

The United Irish League is getting strong in County Sligo. Three branches has been affiliated: Conwy's Cross, Melloeagh, Collooney, Ballyrush, Greenagh, Ballymore and Curry.

Venerable Archdeacon O'Rourke, pastor, Collooney, gave five hundred dollars to the fund to enlarge and repair the church in Ballinacarrow. Mr. Bernard Collyer gave fifty dollars for some laudable purpose.

Miss Maria Commons has passed a creditable examination as fifth year monitor, securing very high marks in every subject. She is monitor in Carmelite Female National School.

LEINSTER.

CARLOW.

The death of Mr. Joseph Murphy, Canon street, Carlow, occurred on Aug. 19. Deceased was a well-known and universally respected. The funeral cortege was very large and impressive.

The death of Mr. John O'Malley, M. P., for the Conemaugh Division of the County of Galway, recently arrived in Galway and stayed with his brother-in-law, Mr. James P. O'Sullivan, at No. 2, Rutledge Terrace, Salthill.

where he had been passing a brief holiday. The Redemptorist Fathers opened a mission of two weeks' duration in Tinryland parish on Aug. 26. During the mission great numbers went to confession and received Holy Communion. Much spiritual good has been accomplished.

DUBLIN.

Mr. Daniel Tallow ex-Lord Mayor of Dublin, has purchased The Independent newspaper, and all the assets of the printing company for £20,000.

The Vicar-Apostolic of Cooktown, on Sunday, Aug. 19, made an appeal to the Augustinian Church, Dublin. Great portions of the Vicarate are very seriously affected by the depression in trade in the mining and other industries as well as by the recent Queensland financial crisis.

At the extraordinary age of 104 years died Mrs. Mary McGlew, of Drogheda, on Aug. 21. She resided at B. Amore Road. Up to the last moment she had possession of all her faculties.

The blight has made its appearance in the potato crops of the districts on the borders of Louth, Armagh and Monaghan, and hundreds of acres are affected. The corn crop has been beaten flat. About the booded districts much cut hay has been swept away.

On Aug. 21 the chapel attached to the Convent of Mercy, Dundalk, was the scene of the solemn ceremony of profession. The young lady who dedicated her life to God was Miss Florence J. McCarthy, in religion Sister Mary Veronica, daughter of George McCarthy, Grosvenor Square, Bathmines.

LOUTH.

At the extraordinary age of 104 years died Mrs. Mary McGlew, of Drogheda, on Aug. 21. She resided at B. Amore Road. Up to the last moment she had possession of all her faculties.

The blight has made its appearance in the potato crops of the districts on the borders of Louth, Armagh and Monaghan, and hundreds of acres are affected. The corn crop has been beaten flat. About the booded districts much cut hay has been swept away.

On Aug. 21 the chapel attached to the Convent of Mercy, Dundalk, was the scene of the solemn ceremony of profession. The young lady who dedicated her life to God was Miss Florence J. McCarthy, in religion Sister Mary Veronica, daughter of George McCarthy, Grosvenor Square, Bathmines.

MEATH.

Father T. J. Fagan, parish priest of Kibbeg, in his report lately on the condition of the crops, said: "The general condition of the crops is disheartening. The potato crop is miserable, and blight has set in wholesale. The present season is most unfortunate for farming industry."

In the Chapel of the Convent of the Holy Faith, Glasnevin, Dublin, Aug. 15, the Feast of the Assumption, took place the solemn ceremony of the Profession of Agnes Mary Reilly (in religion Sister Mary Paula, daughter of John Reilly, Drakestown, Castle-town, Navan, and reception of Kathleen Reilly (in religion, Sister Mary Emilie), youngest daughter, both of whom finished their education in the convent.

The ceremony of the opening of the new organ in St. Columbkille's Church, Kells, took place on Aug. 5, in the presence of a very large congregation. The Solemn High Mass was sung by the Rev. T. Casey, Kells, Rev. P. Daly, deacon; Rev. M. Hopkins, Slane, sub-deacon, and Rev. M. Dooly, president of St. Finian's Seminary, Navan, master of ceremonies.

QUEENS.

Died—August 20, at St. Bridget's Convent Mount, Sister M. Xavier Synan, in the 66th year of her age, and the forty-second of her religious profession. Office and Requiem Mass took place in St. Finian's Church, Mount, Aug. 22, and was very numerously attended.

On Aug. 15 the Fifth Annual Exhibition and Sale of the Queens County Home Industries Association was held at Emo Park, by kind permission of Lord and Lady Portlinton. It is the old story of the British garbison condescending to take a little charitable interest in the Irish. What the country and the people are in need of is the power to make laws for themselves; not depending on the insulting patronage of the foreigner, who robb'd the land of Ireland from the natives.

WESTMEATH.

It is rumored in Mullingar that Mr. James Tuile, M. P., who has sat continuously for fifteen years in the Imperial Parliament as representative of North Westmeath, will not seek reelection. Mr. Tuile communicated this intention twelve months ago to several of his political and personal friends.

WEXFORD.

The agricultural and other machines manufactured by Pierce of Wexford were awarded the highest order of merit and gold medal by the judges of the great exhibition in Paris.

Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Ferns, has appointed Rev. Francis O'Rourke, lately of the South African Mission, to be C. C. of Riverchapel, vacant through the promotion of Rev. M. Fanning to Ballygarret parish.

WICKLOW.

James Godkin, of an Arklow fishing boat was drowned in Ardglass, Aug. 15. He fell off the quay into the sea. Father Walter Sinnott, parish priest of Tomacork, in his report about the crops said: "The general condition of the crops is bad from weather. The potato crop is very bad; lost almost entirely. The condition of the people is deplorable. This year will be known as 'Black 1900.'"

The death of Mr. Lawrence Loughlin, of Kibbride, Blessington, late of the Dublin Metropolitan Police Tug-o'-War team, was heard with widespread regret in West Wicklow. Of magnificent physique, he passed away at the early age of 27 years. The funeral left Mount Argus after solemn Office and High Mass on August for the burying place, Kibbride.

MUNSTER.

CLARE.

On Aug. 15 the eight year old daughter of Edmund Murray, County Clonmore, Kilmuck, was playing in the store attached to her father's shop, when a sack of flour fell on her, and although immediately extricated, she was dead. The child's parents were at church.

A shocking accident occurred on Aug. 19, in the Ennis Convent of Mercy, by which a little girl named Callinan, nine years of age, lost her life. While running in play from one of the rooms off the top of the main stairway, she toppled over the banister and fell thirty feet to the flagged way beneath and was killed instantly.

We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Halpin, Tulla, on Aug. 10. The deceased attained the age of 85 years. The interment was in the family burial place, Fenhloe, where the last prayers were recited by the Rev. Fr. Gavin, Tulla.

CORK.

Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, of Windmill Lane, Youghal, died suddenly August 22, aged 36 years. She was mother of eight children.

During a violent thunderstorm which raged in Skibbereen recently the residence of the National Teacher of Tagumina School was gutted. The inmates had a miraculous escape. The surrounding rocks were rent asunder. The walls of the house were torn and half swept away.

At the Convent of Mercy, Eltham, Kent, England, passed away on Aug. 19 in the 18th year of her religious profession, Hannah Walsh, Buttevant. The deceased was known in religion as Sister Mary Joseph.

A monster demonstration under the auspices of the Mid-Cork Executive of the United Irish League was held Aug. 12 in the square of Macroom. A Government reporter took up a position near the platform. Some of the speakers addressed the meeting in the Irish language, and during their remarks his position was rendered uncomfortable by the jeers of those around at his inability to take a record of the speeches. Doctor Tanner, M. P., delivered one of his eloquent orations. The British hate the doctor, which is the best recommendation to his constituents.

Word was brought to Toghur Police Station August 19 that Patrick Connolly, Pouladuff Road, was unconscious in the Kerry yard, the result of having been struck by a hurley in a game being played there. Constable John Dwyer had him conveyed to the house of Mrs. Julia Sheehan, Toghur Road, where restorative were in vain applied. He was then conveyed on a car, given by Mr. Peter Murphy, to the South Infirmary, having been appointed by the Rev. Father Minern, St. Finbar's West. On examination at the Institution Dr. Cantillon, House Surgeon, said he was suffering from a severe wound on the forehead, causing concussion of the brain. Constable Dwyer placed Simon Sullivan, Pouladuff Road, under arrest. This lad, who is aged 17 years, was in the act of striking the ball with his hurley when it slipped from his hand, hitting Connell. It was purely an accident.

On Aug. 5, at Ballyourney, a very successful Fels was held under the presidency of Dr. Lynch, J. P. of Ballyourney. The proceedings were conducted in the mother tongue and the various songs, folk-lore, Irish jigs and hornpipes, local lore stories, etc., elicited well-merited applause.

Recent Deaths in Cork. O'CALLAGHAN—At Ballinlough, on Aug. 23, Mary O'Callaghan. S'LLIVAN—July 27, at 633 Broad way, Fall River, U. S. A., Alfred J. (Fred), Boher Cottage, Castletownbere aged 28.

O'BRIEN—On Aug. 23, at No. 4 Quaker Road, Richard O'Brien, aged 24 years. O'CALLAGHAN—At 295 Blarney street, Margaret O'Callaghan. Interment in Aghna.

HEENAN—At Shanagarry Cottage, on Aug. 14, Thomas Joseph Heenan. O'CONNELL—Aug. 15, at Mill House, Balbrigan, Dublin, Minnie O'Connell, Drummer, Listowel.

CASEY—On Aug. 16, at the Square, Macroom, William J. Casey. LYNCH—On Aug. 16, at Cardiff, Timothy Lynch, of Breenemana, Blackrock, Cork.

AHERN—On Aug. 10, at the Franciscan Convent, Rome, Lizzie Ahern, Bawnafinna, Blarney. DONOVAN—At 8 Blesaby's street, Timothy Donovan, lease of North Mall Distillery.

MAC MURRAY—Aug. 19, at the Mercy Hospital, James MacMurray. KENNEDY—Aug. 20, at 83 South Main street, Mary Kennedy. HEGARTY—On Aug. 19, at Adelaide Villas, Summerhill, Catherine Hegarty, aged 83 years.

CUSSEN—Aug. 19, Mary Connell Cussen, Funeral from North Cathedral for St. Joseph's Cemetery. WALSH—On Aug. 19, at Woodside, Blarney, Edmund Walsh, brother of the Rev. John Walsh, Belgooly. Kinale and father of the Rev. David Walsh, Pastor Huntington, U. S. A.

HAWE—Aug. 20, at St. Patrick's Hospital, Wilmington road, Thomas Howe, aged 22. HEALY—On Aug. 20, at Barrack street, Mallow, Ellen Healy.

MAHONY—Aug. 18, at Tivoli, Cork, Anne Baldwin Brodick Mahony, wife of Major Brodick, daughter of the late Major Brodick. CLIFFORD—Aug. 4, at New York U. S. A., Henry Clifford.

BLANCHFIELD—Aug. 19, at South Main street, Bandon, Mary Ann Blanchfield. WHITE—Margaret White, at 69 North Main street, Youghal.

KERRY. We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Ellie O'Flaherty, which took place at the residence of her brother, Mr. E. O'Flaherty, the Spa, Tralee, Aug. 17, at the age of 26. Deceased had been ill for the past three months. Mr. Edward Moriarty of Skibbereen, when delivering some bags of lime to a customer on Aug. 21, was thrown from the cart by the horses making an unexpected movement forward. Fatal injuries were sustained by Mr. Moriarty. He was 46 years of age.

At the Presentation Convent, Kilmurry, August 21, one young lady was professed and another received into the order. The professed lady was Miss Mary Walsh (in religion Sister M. Antonia, daughter of Mr. Thomas Walsh, Springmount, and the lady received was Miss M. Murphy (in religion Sister Mary Teresa Joseph), daughter of Mr. John Murphy, Dagh. Most Rev. Dr. Coffey, Bishop of Kerry officiated.

Under the following sad circumstances. After transacting business, O'Neill was proceeding through New street on foot when he met a neighbor of his named Kelly, going in the same direction. Kelly had a horse and cart with a turf rail, and across the rail a board was laid as a seat. Kelly having invited the deceased to a seat, both men went into the cart and sat on the board, one at each end. When they arrived at "Moll Doyle's Cross," Kelly overbalanced himself carrying the turf rail and seat with him in his fall. The deceased, seated at the opposite end, was projected upward and after describing an arc fell heavily, head foremost, on the road where he lay apparently dead until Mr. J. Barry placed him in his car and brought him back to town where he was promptly attended by Dr. Manix and Father Carroll, who administered the last rites of the Church. All the efforts of Dr. Manix were unavailing. The man's skull was fractured and he died within an hour after the accident, never having regained consciousness.

On Aug. 13 the great annual fair of Puck was held in Killorglin, and was attended by a large number of people.

LIMERICK. The death of Edward C. Bowen of Spierville Arkansas, occurred Aug. 22. He was a native of County Limerick.

Died—Aug. 17, at Barrington Mall Limerick, Michael Maher, father of the Rev. C. F. Maher, St. Francis' Cork and Dr. William P. Maher, London, in the 84th year of his age.

The heavy rains had had a very bad effect on the hay and corn crops in Limerick and portions of Clare and Tipperary. About three-fourths of the hay had been saved before the down-pour. The oat crop was promising well, the straw being above the average and the head filling well. The rate however, has "held" the greater part of the crop, which needed only a few days of being ripe. The blight has made sad ravages with the potatoes, and early varieties have rotted in the ground.

TIPPERARY. Father T. O'Dwyer presided at recent meeting of the members of the Sobhead Branch of the United Irish League. The attendance was very numerous. It was decided to raise money for the Parliamentary Fund.

Right Rev. Dr. Sheehan, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, on Aug. 22 blessed the new High School of the Christian Brothers in Clonmel. He was presented with an address from the citizens which was read by Dr. O'Brien. The occasion was an important one for the rising generation and the future generations of Clonmel.

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Burke Blamstown, Fethard, (mother of Mr. Edmund Burke secretary of the old Land League in Fethard), which occurred at her residence on Aug. 20. The funeral was large and representative and testified to a marked manner to the high esteem in which deceased was held.

WATERFORD. More than half the population of the County of Waterford speak the Irish language, and it would not take much to have the mother tongue restored fully. Members of the Waterford Harbor Board have given a present of one thousand, two hundred and fifty dollars to their efficient secretary, Mr. Alhingham, as a mark of their approval of how he transacted the business of the Board in re the dredged L'Isle Intarcta, which left the Board with a profit of eighteen thousand dollars.

Cappoquin regatta came off on Aug. 22, and was not fortunate in having fine weather, however the sport was good. Each event was well contested. Great numbers attended from Youghal, Cork, Lismore and Waterford. Sir John Keane is president of the Regatta Committee.

On Aug. 19 a very large committee meeting of the Modeligo and Affane Branch of the United Irish League was held to make arrangements for a demonstration.

On Aug. 15 serious rioting took place in the Orange district of Shankhill road, Belfast. Mobs collected and attempted to reach arches erected by the Nationalists. A considerable force of police were concentrated about Brown Square Barracks and after a time the Orange mob turned their attention to the Constabulary, who retreated toward the barracks. The mob smashed windows in the barracks, the police keeping out of the way. Finding the road left in their possession the stone-throwers singled out traders' houses as good marks for attack and proceeded to wreck them and carry away property. This manifestation of loyalty was given within a stone-throw of the Constabulary where a strong body of the Constabulary were under arms, awaiting to sweep down upon the Nationalists and brain them with their weapons. This is a sample of the even-handed justice doled out to the Irish people by "the aliens."

On Aug. 15 was a red-letter day for the children of Lisburn Catholic schools. Under the management of Father Neeson, pupils of the Chapel Hill schools were driven in brakes to the banks of Lough Neagh. These little children, whose only crime was their religion, were made the victims of a cowardly and brutal assault worthy of the bigotry of the Orange ruffians. A large crowd of these uncivilized ruffians assembled on the outskirts of the town and the children were greeted with "To B— with the Pope," and similar expressions. The brave and gallant sons of William were not content with expressing their gallantry and heroism in words. As each brake passed the innocent and frightened occupants were treated to volley after volley of well directed missiles. Some of the children received ugly cuts about the head and face, and one little girl was so injured that she had to be carried from the brake. This treatment of children shows what the Catholics of Lisburn might expect if they dared to get up an excursion of a National character. The only way to stop these inhuman outrages of the Orange dog is for every Catholic man, old enough to bear arms, to obtain secretly a revolver and if assailed give the Orange ruffian a taste of his own medicine.

On Aug. 14 a public meeting was held in Avenue Hall, Garfield street, Belfast, under the auspices of the Gaelic League, for the purpose of aiding the cause and supporting the principles of the Gaelic movement. Mr. P. J. O'Shea presided and explained the objects of the meeting. In the first place, he would reiterate that the people of Ireland were not satisfied with the curriculum of Irish National school system. As had been proved, the system by which Irish children were taught was a failure. Mr. Timothy Ward proposed (1) That in all places where Irish is the home language, pupils shall be taught to read and write Irish from their first entrance into the school, and that a knowledge of English and other useful subjects shall be imparted through the medium of Irish. (2) That in places where Irish is not the home language it shall be lawful to teach Irish as a remunerated subject within school hours, and at the earliest stage at which pupils are capable of learning it. It is really pitiable to see and hear and read of the cringing manner in which the Irish are begging for their small installment of justice, when it should be demanded.

ARMAGH. On Aug. 17, Mr. Thomas George Peal, coroner for the mid-division of Armagh county held an inquest at League on the body of Samuel James M'Ken, aged 26 years, who met his death the previous night under painful circumstances. Deceased left home for Annaghmore station to see some friends off to America. After seeing them away deceased took the short cut home by the railway line, and was either knocked down or fell on the line and was run over. The body was discovered on the railway line in a mangled condition near his father's farm. The jury found a verdict of accidental death.

Deep and widespread regret was expressed by the announcement of the demise of Mr. James Aiken Carrigan, of Castle House, Camlough. The sad event took place on Aug. 12. A devoted Catholic and an ardent Nationalist he labored in the interests of Faith and Fatherland. For a long period he was a member of the old board of the Newry Union—a Tory body—and discharge his duties faithfully. The funeral to the local Church and cemetery was very numerously attended.

CAVAN. A terrific storm passed over Downa part of West Cavan on Aug. 7 and 8, causing great damage and the floods destroyed crops in general.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

children shows what the Catholics of Lisburn might expect if they dared to get up an excursion of a National character. The only way to stop these inhuman outrages of the Orange dog is for every Catholic man, old enough to bear arms, to obtain secretly a revolver and if assailed give the Orange ruffian a taste of his own medicine.

On Aug. 14 a public meeting was held in Avenue Hall, Garfield street, Belfast, under the auspices of the Gaelic League, for the purpose of aiding the cause and supporting the principles of the Gaelic movement. Mr. P. J. O'Shea presided and explained the objects of the meeting. In the first place, he would reiterate that the people of Ireland were not satisfied with the curriculum of Irish National school system. As had been proved, the system by which Irish children were taught was a failure. Mr. Timothy Ward proposed (1) That in all places where Irish is the home language, pupils shall be taught to read and write Irish from their first entrance into the school, and that a knowledge of English and other useful subjects shall be imparted through the medium of Irish. (2) That in places where Irish is not the home language it shall be lawful to teach Irish as a remunerated subject within school hours, and at the earliest stage at which pupils are capable of learning it. It is really pitiable to see and hear and read of the cringing manner in which the Irish are begging for their small installment of justice, when it should be demanded.

ARMAGH. On Aug. 17, Mr. Thomas George Peal, coroner for the mid-division of Armagh county held an inquest at League on the body of Samuel James M'Ken, aged 26 years, who met his death the previous night under painful circumstances. Deceased left home for Annaghmore station to see some friends off to America. After seeing them away deceased took the short cut home by the railway line, and was either knocked down or fell on the line and was run over. The body was discovered on the railway line in a mangled condition near his father's farm. The jury found a verdict of accidental death.

Deep and widespread regret was expressed by the announcement of the demise of Mr. James Aiken Carrigan, of Castle House, Camlough. The sad event took place on Aug. 12. A devoted Catholic and an ardent Nationalist he labored in the interests of Faith and Fatherland. For a long period he was a member of the old board of the Newry Union—a Tory body—and discharge his duties faithfully. The funeral to the local Church and cemetery was very numerously attended.

CAVAN. A terrific storm passed over Downa part of West Cavan on Aug. 7 and 8, causing great damage and the floods destroyed crops in general.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.

On Sunday Aug. 12 the remains of Miss Lizette Hara Rossett were interred in the burying ground of the old Catholic church, Aughaboy, Partrickane. The cortege was extremely large.