COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Historians have said that the last decade of every century is marked by great activity. Social upheavals, wars, strikes and other unusual things being bound to occur. This country has had its wars with the glorious results already known. The world is growing better, and only dyspeptic pessimists will attempt to maintain that it is not. Improvement is the order of the age. As it is in other walks of life, so it is in the amusement world. Rochester has one of the best high-class vaudeville theatres in America and Manager Moore has the reputation of conducting one of the cleanest and most wholesome entertainments ever given in any theatre. The star feature for the week beginning Monday, October 16th, is exceedingly great, on which occasion James O. Barrows will appear with his excellent company in his latest war comedy entitled "Tactics." It is a mimic reproduction on a scale of the civil war's greatest battle. The play abounds in stirring scenes, while a pretty love story is told during the action of the piece. A host of classic offerings are on the coming week's bill which embraces Miss Louise Gunning, the sweet-voiced singer of Scotch songs. Mason and Frances, refined comedy sketch artists. The latest novelty in vaudeville, "The Automobile Girl." The new musical, introducing Miss Bertha Darel, the Gilroy Brothers and Willie Thorn. The famous Navarros, acrobatic experts, whose astonishing feats are wholly new and the most daring on earth. The Doerge Sisters, clever comedians in a repertoire of merry comedy. Kelly and Violette, bright entertainers with a choice array of novelties and "top notches" in their line. Frank Whitman, of "The Man in the Moon" company. The Brothers Rossi in a pleasing sketch entitled "The mysterious Sweetheart." Prof. Joe Monk will play "The Dance of the Meteors." (dance characteristic) for an overture which is a choice selection. This will embrace all the features of a good show at Cook Opera House for next week. Two unabridged performances daily. Matinees at 2.15, evening 8.15. Secure your tickets in advance. No extra charge for reserved seats. Box office open 9 a. m. to 9.30 p. m.
