REV. T. C. MURPHY.

Again we are called upon to chronicle the death of one our beloved priests, Rev. T. C. Murphy, who only a short time ago was selected by our Rt. Rev. Bishop to take the place of the late Rev. J. P. Kiernan as rector of St. Mary's parish.

Father Murphy was a true priest in every sense of the word. He was one of God's chosen ministers, and worked indefatigably for the salvation of souls. He was ever to be found at his station working for the good of others and many are the prayers now offered up for the repose of his soul by those whom he, while in life consoled and assisted. He was a quiet, modest, unassuming priest of God, who followed closely into the footsteps of Jesus Christ, who now calls him to his eternal home. Father Murphy had rare executive ability as has been attested by the lasting monuments he has left behind him. Holy Apostles church which was built under his supervision in one of the finest Catholic churches in the city and will ever stand as a tribute to his memory.

The people of St. Mary's congregation who had just come to know him are to be consoled with. They have lost three pastors in three years. Rev. J. P. Stewart, Very Rev. J. P. Kiernan and Rev. T. C. Murphy. The sympathy of all Catholics of the diocese will go out to them for they have been sorely tried. The surviving family of the deceased priest who feel more keenly the great loss we have sustained should also be consoled with, and they will pray to God for strength to bear His holy will. May his soul find eternal rest.

Rev. Dr. Freri has filed with Cardinal Gibbons a roll of Catholic prelates, priests and religious sacrificed in the recent outbreak in China. His report covers only those missionaries who looked to the American society for the Propagation of the Faith for support. It does not include many martyrs of French, German, Italian, Spanish and other nationalities. According to this report five bishops, 28 priests, three brothers and twelve nuns, together with an unenumerated multitude of Chinese Christians, have been sacrificed.

Forty-eight Catholic missionaries were martyred between June 1 and September 25. Among the victims were five Chinese Catholic priests educated at seminaries founded in China.

The coal strike is off. President Mitchell has issued an order for the men to return to work with the exceptions of those employed by some individual operators who have not posted a notice or signed their willingness to pay the 10 per cent. advance in wages and to suspend the striking scale. This will be good news to the poor people who have not put in their winter's coal.

Election is drawing near and the politicians are busy rearing old

A Presbyterian minister in Allegheny, Pa., has much fault to find with secret societies. They work directly counter to the law of love, and seek to make the good things of the earth fall into the laps of their members. They cut into church attendance, and strive to point out a way of salvation "That is not based on the merits of Christ and a life of godliness. They are un-Christian in that, while they recognize God, they do not recognize the God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ." This is a novel way of making out a charge against proscribed orders. When Protestant ministers accuse the secret societies of bowing before "strange gods," Catholics ought to find it easy to forego their fellowship.

The Irish people, famished and famine-stricken, the Irish people, turning their face to the western ocean that they might flee from their own island home—it was they who carried the Word to America and Australia and India and through the whole of the world. The Irish have been the greatest apostles that the earth has ever seen and have carried out the noblest mission that God ever confided to a people.—Father Burke.

The Rosary said in common sweetly fosters the home life, which was one of the most beautiful features of the Christian family in the ages of faith, and the absence of which is one of the crying evils of our own time.—Cardinal McCloskey.

Victor J. Dowling, prominent as a C. B. L. member and a K. of C., has been nominated as Democratic candidate to represent the Eighteenth district—a New York city district in the same senate. He is a former assemblyman.

FIVE MINUTE SERMON.

SHORT INSTRUCTIONS ON THE GOSPEL BY A REVEREND FATHER.

Twenty-first Sunday after Pentecost.
"His lord called him, and said to him. Thou wicked servant! I forgave thee all the debt, because thou besoughtest me: shouldst not thou then have had compassion also on thy fellow-servant, even as I had compassion on thee? And his lord being angry, delivered him to the torturers until he paid all the debt. So also shall My Heavenly Father do to you, if you forgive not every one his brother from your hearts."—Gospel of the Day.

As in all other parables, so in this the king is a figure of God, master and judge of the universe; and the debtor represents sinful man, who must render an account of all his actions to the Divine Justice.

It is evident that the Divine Master thus represented him in order to express the enormity of sin and the immense debt contracted with God by him who commits it.
The servant who refused to have pity on his fellow-servant is a figure of those Christians who refuse to forgive their neighbor, while they themselves dare hope to obtain, or have even previously obtained the forgiveness of their sins, which are far more grievous.

Let us learn from this how angry the Lord will be with us if we exact satisfaction, knowing that He has strictly commanded us to forgive our neighbor from our heart, and that he had repeatedly assured us that we shall be treated by Him in the same manner as we have treated others.

The Divine Teacher said this in the parable to let us know that whoever does not sincerely forgive his enemies will be sentenced to the torments of hell.

In the first place, we are to learn to acknowledge before God our great debts, that is, our sins, with sincerity and humility of heart. Secondly, we are to learn to have a firm purpose of making good our great debt as far as we can with the assistance of divine grace, by receiving the holy sacraments, and by other good works. Lastly, we are to learn sincerely to pardon those who have offended us, and to fear the punishments with which God has threatened vindictive men.

Low Rate Excursion to New York.

On Saturday, Nov. 3rd, the West Shore Railroad will sell excursion tickets to New York at one single fare, plus one dollar for the round trip; tickets going on regular trains; good returning on or before Thursday, Nov. 8th. A good opportunity to spend election night in New York with the excitement attendant on such occasion. The metropolis is gay and over, and the theater season is at its height, and the choice of entertainment is varied enough to meet the taste of all classes. The great Automobile Show will be held at Madison Square Garden from Nov. 3rd to 10th, giving excursionists an opportunity to see the latest patterns in this new mode of travel. Call on West Shore ticket agents for tickets and all information.

The New County Branch of the A. O. H.

A special meeting of the county board, A. O. H. was held at the A. O. H. hall on October 21st for the purpose of reorganizing, and electing officers for the coming year who will hold office for one year of the two years' presidency of P. Cauley. The election resulted in the election of President W. H. McCarty of Div. No. 1, to the office of county vice-president. This is a mark of distinction and honor for Brother McCarty as he has only been elected a short time ago to succeed Ex-president John Murphy. As it is few new members ever are elected, that office speaks well for the popularity of President McCarty in the A. O. H. The officers elected are: J. M. McGuire, Div. 7, recording secretary; President Cullen, Div. 3, financial secretary; M. B. O'Neil, Div. 2, corresponding secretary, and Lawrence G. McGreal, treasurer, a position he has held for 7 years under County Presidents P. R. Murphy, W. H. McDonald and the present incumbent, P. Cauley, and has always proved the right man in the place. The completion of the County Board has seen many changes. Amongst the most prominent to return is Cornelius O'Neil who organized Div. No. 2, who succeeds Brother Cauley from Division 2. The returning members is, Dr. P. C. Guinan, Division 5; J. Murphy, Division 1; Michael Claffey, Division 1; S. J. McLoughlin 3; Thomas Summers, Division 4; J. Lynch, Division 4; P. Kelly, Division 7. The new members who will represent their divisions for the coming year are W. H. McCarty, Division 1; J. Cullen, Div. 8; Cornelius O'Neil, Division 2; M. McNamara, Division 6; John Rogan, Division 7; J. Galvin, Division 5; C. J. Dolan, Hibernian Rifles, J. Carney, Division 4. The county board has inaugurated a new plan of meeting, and decided to meet in each Division in the county one night commencing with Division No. 1. On the third Thursday of November. Also a grand reception is promised during the coming winter, possibly in Fitchburg hall.

Hibernian Rifles.

The company was drilled by Lieut. John Cullen, who was in command in the absence of Captain Quinlivan who had a night off, and the lieutenant proved himself as an able and efficient commander-in-chief in the absence of his superior. After drill the company held an informal meeting and accepted into the fold two new recruits, Michael Moore and P. McCann.

Comrades Muloney and Frawley from the annual reception committee on Thanksgiving evening submitted sample copies of programmes from THE JOURNAL office, one of which was accepted and it will prove its worth far more than its service as a programme as it will be a souvenir of a rare variety of raised national emblems and as the company makes a special effort each year to have a novel and artistic programme they expect to lead this year with the selection they made, and it is made much easier this year from the support the boys are receiving from the A. O. H. divisions and outside friends to make their ball and reception a grand success.

*Columbia hath a memory, generous, proud and keen.
That fondly holds remembrance of the boys who love the green."

A delegation of ladies from Auxiliary No. 4, D. of E., was present to see the drill and invited the members to their entertainment on November 19th, at Red Men's hall which was accepted. October 30th will be the next drill. All are ordered to be present at 8 p. m.

Knights of Columbus.

A number of Rochester Knights of Columbus went to Auburn Wednesday to assist in an initiation of third degree candidates that took place there that evening. The visitors also included Sir Knights from Buffalo, Syracuse, Geneva, Phelps, Waverly, Seneca Falls, New York and Hornesville. The initiatory ceremonies were conducted by District Deputy John W. Ward of New York, assisted by State Deputy John W. Hogan of Syracuse, District Deputy Eugene Mack of Syracuse, and Grand Knight Thomas H. O'Neill of Auburn.

After the ceremonies the 600 local and visiting knights sat down to a banquet in music hall. The after dinner speaking was in charge of Grand Knight O'Neill. Toasts were responded to as follows: "Our Order," John W. Hogan; "Future of the Order," Past Grand Knight James L. Whalen of Rochester; "The Clergy," Rev. Father Dougherty, of Syracuse; "Knighthood and Citizenship," Past State Deputy John J. Delaney, of New York; "Advice to New Members," Past Grand Knight, M. P. Conway, of Auburn.

Miss Annie O'Connor, grand secretary of the Women's Catholic Benefit Legion of New York, was in the city on an official visit this week. A hearty welcome was accorded her by the good Shepard Council at Scholtz's hall, at which all the councils of the city were present.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Great crowds and great shows are always in order at Cook opera house. For next week without a doubt the gigantic star programme offered is the strongest and most artistic and the most diversified of any ever exhibited in this or any other city. Six headline acts are enrolled on Manager Moore's prodigious program, augmented by other brand new novelties. The talented young character comedian, Charley Grapewin, is the pre-eminent star of the merry workers, who will appear in his uproariously funny farcical comedietta entitled, "Above the Limits" ably assisted by Miss Anna Chance and Co. These artists are decidedly popular and the Grapewin-Chance players are one of the half dozen that ever secured engagements covering two consecutive weeks in the Fifth avenue theatre, New York. Leon Morris has a troupe of marvelous performing ponies, a most pleasing feature especially devised for ladies and children. "The New Queen's Fair" as produced by The Three Hawaiian Queens, is a grand spectacular fantasia. "A Sunday with Aunt Martha" is the title of a one-act farce, which will be presented by Miss Mary Dupont and Charles Lothian. The Seven Sohke Troupe is a new importation and to be seen here for the first time the coming week. A real vaudeville innovation introducing five original little Archipelagians. Among the other artists on the long programme, Charles Leonard Fletcher. The greatest character impersonator of modern times. Jefferson Robson he is a gifted star in his line. Miss Mame Gehrue, is the ideal of all American girl dancers as well as a singer will be a prominent number on the big star bill. Rozaria, the European wire artist will perform many marvelous feats of balancing and strength on a fine wire. J. Gaffey Brown, eccentric comedian, promises a new budget of funnysims of his own manufacture. While Joe Monk will offer a repertoire of the newest selections. This fills out what Manager Moore positively says "the best show ever given in Rochester." Two performances, daily matinees and evening.

The Baker Theatre.

The world renowned author and naturalist, Ernest Seton-Thompson, comes to the Baker theatre on Monday, Oct. 30th lecturing in the afternoon at 2.30 on the "Personality of Wild Animals at Home." For originality and freshness his stories are resistable for in everything he does Mr. Thompson has a way peculiarly his own. Popular prices will be charged for these lectures.

On Tuesday and Wednesday night, with daily matinees, "A Lucky Coon" will be the attraction at the Baker theatre, and numerous specialties. Messrs. Benn Hun and Walter Dickson have been especially engaged to play the part of "Silver King" and "Dollar Bill," the characters made famous by Williams and Walker.

The last half of the week at the Baker Theatre the new scenic production "Lost in the Desert" by Owen Davis, will be the attraction. Two carloads of special scenery are carried by this company as well as a stable of thoroughbred runners, and a marvelous troupe of Araba. Matinees will be given on Thursday and Saturday.

Canada's Elitist Military Band.

The Government of Canada has at last, after repeated efforts, been prevailed upon to permit the celebrated 48th Highlanders' Regimental Band of Toronto to make an official concert tour of America, under their leader, Mr. John Slatter. The tour is under the direction of Mr. T. P. J. Power, who for two years was business manager in America of Godfrey's British Guards' Band. The band will appear in Fitchburg hall it is understood, on November 13th, afternoon and evening. Those who have heard the band in their regular concert program (to which is added some highland dancing and bag-piping by the regiments' own talent), say it is worth going many miles to hear their exquisite concert and military music, while their costumes which have led to their pet name of "The Kilties" are the most striking and unique worn by any military organizations on the continent. Rochester is to be congratulated in having secured them, as much public interest has been aroused.

Send your Party Printing to The Journal office.

Council 18, C. R. and B. A., will initiate seven candidates on Nov. 13th. A full attendance is requested.

SIBIEY, LINDSAY & CURR CO.

All That's Best In Underwear

People who know of Sibley, Lindsay & Curr Co. in no other capacity are acquainted with us as handlers of immense quantities of underwear—at wholesale and retail.

To you individually, the fact that we sell more underwear in the course of the year than the rest of Rochester thrice over, is interesting for just two reasons.

It means in the first place that at our retail counters you have selections from an immense variety—practically everything in underwear.

It means in the second place that buying underwear in such quantities we get it on such terms that the values our counters present are unmatched.

Here is sufficient list of resources to enable you to keep winter underwear and us in mind.
