PLATED WARE

Nice New Things on View.

Our Plated Ware Department is not a whit behind in the store's inviting show of new and choice merchandise. One of the most attractive displays is that of the reproduction of old Sheffield plate in grape and vine patterns. The plating is on copper, insuring wonderful durability. The assortment includes platters, entree dishes, open dishes, trays, sauceboats etc.

There is also a fine line of trays, platters covered dishes, kettles, tureens, butter dishes, etc., heavily plated on a hard nickel-silver body; and our regular lines are full of new and beautiful designs in tea sets, coffee sets, sugars and creams, baking dishes, bread trays and other table necessities—all from the best makers and all priced at satisfactory figures.

CITY PARISH NEWS.

Illustrating Subjects of Hesperian Catholicism by Our City Reporters.

ST. ANTHONY'S

A high mass of requiem was celebrated Monday morning at 7.30 by Father Gommenginger for the repose of the soul of his mother. At 8 o'clock Father Hendrick celebrated a requiem high mass for the departed members of the parish.

An anniversary mass of requiem was offered Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock for the repose of the soul of Mrs. Mary A. Stupp.

St. Anthony's society will meet next Sunday after vespers.

Henry Lomb has kindly offered a free course to the girls in the ninth grade in the cooking class in the Mechanics Institute, and to the boys in the same grade in manual training. He has also generously offered a free course of three years in mechanics' art to two pupils of the parochial schools of the city, subject to the selection of a committee, viz: Father Hickey, Father Hartley and Father Hendrick. This will be a fine opportunity for those who are fortunate in securing admission to the course. James Haveron has been selected from this parish.

The Cardinal Newman Reading Circle will meet next Monday evening. This will be the first meeting of the historical course they will take up for this season. Miss Bertie O'Rourke will read an article on "Father Jogues and the Iroquois Indian," a paper on "Current Topics" will be prepared by Miss Ella Geraghty, and Miss Josephine B. Preston will render an instrumental selection.

At the meeting of the "Fortnightly Pedro club," held at the residence of Mrs. T. W. Galvin last Monday evening, the prizes were won by Mrs. W. F. Rampe and Miss Ella Geraghty. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Rampe.

At the next meeting of Branch 27, L. C. B. A., Friday evening, Nov. 18th, a card party will be held. All the members and their friends are invited. Four prizes will be given.

COEPIUS CHRISTI.

There was a requiem high mass on Monday morning at 8 o'clock for Peter Ward.

The coal collection will be taken up at all the masses on Sunday (tomorrow).

On Tuesday morning a requiem high mass was offered for the souls of the deceased members of the Rosary society.

The novena for the souls in purgatory will close on Sunday. The devotions were well attended each evening. A large number approached the sacraments.

Miss Margaret Flynn has gone to Geneva.

ST. MARY'S

Masses for Father Murphy next week will be given by the Willing Helpers and the L. C. B. A.

At the regular meeting of the Santa Maria Reading Circle on Monday evening the following programme was rendered: Instrumental solo, Miss Kennedy; violin solo, Miss Foley, accompanied by her sister; vocal solo, Miss Marie Dorsey. Father Connors read a very interesting and instructive paper on the "History of the Church," and William Carey ably discussed "Democracy." Resolutions on the death of Father Murphy were read. At the next meeting of the Literary, which takes place on November 19, there will be a spelling match, James C. Connolly and John Hunt being the leaders of the respective sides. Miss Maude Croston will also render a musical selection. A pleasant time is anticipated.

The Willing Helpers will hold their first pedro party of the season on Friday, Nov. 16, from 2.30 to 5 p. m.

We are pleased to know that Mrs. James Kennedy is able to be out again after a severe illness.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Willing Helpers' society:

Inasmuch as it has pleased Almighty God to again call from us our esteemed pastor,

Resolved, That the society tender their sympathy to his bereaved parents and family, and have a requiem mass offered for the repose of his soul. Committee, Mrs. McAnally, Miss McCarthy, Miss Mayne.

At a meeting of the Father Kieran society held Oct. 28, 1909, the following resolutions were adopted on the death of Father Murphy:

Whereas, The people of St. Mary's church have once again had the sad news manifest to them that there is one all-powerful hand above us; and

Whereas, This all-powerful Hand has deemed it necessary to call our pastor from his flock; and

Whereas, The Young Men's society of St. Mary's parish deeply mourn the loss of its spiritual adviser, be it

Resolved, That we extend to his relatives and friends, especially his mother and father, our sincere sympathies in their bereavement, and be it further

Resolved, That in token of our respect for him, we have a mass offered for the repose of his soul.

Committee—Harry McAnally, Frank Schwab, James W. Dean and William J. Carey.

Miss Sarah McGuire and Mr. John McCarthy were united in marriage by Rev. Father Connors at Corpus Christi church on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Sadie Murphy, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Arthur Steinhart acted as best man. The bride wore a going-away gown of blue Venetian cloth with reverses of duchess lace trimmings. The bridesmaid was attired in a gray laceshowe with lace applique reverses. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy departed on an eastern trip. They will be at home after Dec. 1, at 173 Court street.

CATHEDRAL.

Mrs. Charles E. Cunningham of 130 Lake avenue has kindly allowed the use of her elegant home to the Ladies' Aid Society for a concert to be given Wednesday evening, Nov. 14th.

A most enjoyable pedro party was held at Chapel hall on last Thursday evening. In spite of the inclement weather there were about 400 people in attendance. The entertainment was under the auspices of the St. Thomas guild.

November 21st will be the centenary of the society of the Religious of the Sacred Heart, and the day will be appropriately celebrated at every house of that order. Invitations have been issued from the convent on Prince street, asking all former pupils to join with the Madames in celebrating this special anniversary. The tridium in preparation will be presided by Rev. Wm. O'B. Pardow, S. J., of New York.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The Ladies' Aid Society will give a card party at the school hall on Monday evening, Nov. 19th. Eight prizes will be given.

SS. PETER AND PAUL.

Anthony Vogt, aged 84 years, died Thursday morning at the family residence, 127 Ames street. He is survived by his wife and seven children; father and mother; three sisters, Mrs. George Mohr, Mrs. Joseph Knobel and Miss Pauline Vogt; and three brothers, Joseph, William and George Vogt. He was a member of St. Francis Xavier society, of SS. Peter and Paul's church, and Stein tent, K. O. T. M.

Seats for "The Killers" are going fast. But Fitzhugh hall is big and plenty of good seats can still be reserved at Colby & Ament's. The store will be open Saturday and Monday evenings.
