IRISH POINT PIECES.

Irish point pieces are very showy, they are inexpensive, and thoroughly serviceable. The list below, which includes doilies, commode and dresses scarfs, pillow shams and table covers, should suggest an immediate investment for your own use or another's. They are particularly good value.

At the Art department, of course.

6 in. doilies, round and square, 4c each.

9 inch doilies, square, 8c each.

12 inch doilies, square, 10c each.

18 inch center pieces, square, 20c.

24 inch center pieces, 45c, 50c and 65c.

Commode and dresser scarfs, 20c to $1.25 each.

Iris point pillow shams, 50c to $3 a pair.

CITY PARISH NEWS.

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters.

ST. DOMINIC.

The members of this congregation are earnestly working for the success of the bazaar to be held in the parish hall on the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th of December. If the bazaar is successful it will be continued on the 14th and 15th, 2.30 and 7.30 p. m. Contesters are: Portrait of Father Rauber, Miss Rose Ritz, Mrs. Heusinger, Mrs. Marx, and Mrs. Kloe; diamond ring, Misses Katie Hohman, Anna Temmerman, Mary Caseman and Theresa Effinger. Entertainment will be given each evening, and the booths will be as follows: Candy and fancy and art needlework, Young Ladies' Sedality; ice cream, C. W. B. L.; handkerchiefs, C. R. & B. A.; aprons, Sacred Heart Society; coffee and lunch, Sacred Heart Society; dolls, Ladies' Auxiliary. All our friends are cordially invited, and a pleasant time is promised to all.

The new convent, for the benefit of which the bazaar will be held, cost $10,500, of which $3,500 has been paid. It is a three story brick building, with basement. On the ground floor are parlor, music room, dining room, kitchen, community room and chapel. A wide stairway leads up to the second floor, on which are eight sleeping rooms and a large linen closet. The convent was open for the inspection of visitors on the Sunday after its completion. Everything in and about the building is of the best material and workmanship. The parishioners are all very well pleased with the convent, and are making every effort to liquidate all indebtedness.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

St. Anthony's society will meet next Sunday.

An anniversary requiem high mass was celebrated last Monday morning for Mrs. Catherine Hendrick, mother of Father Hendrick.

An anniversary requiem high mass was celebrated Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock for Mrs. O'Connor, mother of Rev. Arthur O'Connor of Brooklyn.

Father Bridges, S. J., of St. John's college, paid a brief visit to Father Hendrick recently.

Lawrence E. French of Brooklyn was a guest at the rectory last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kolb of Clinton avenue, north, who was buried from St. Joseph's church Monday morning, will be missed from this church where she attended daily mass.

A meeting was held at the rectory last Sunday evening, when it was decided to have a subscription instead of a fair this year. It is hoped each member of the parish will generously respond to this worthy cause.

Frank Moreland of Seattle, who was married last week to Miss Margaret Warren of the Cathedral parish, is a son of Mrs. J. Moreland of Payne street. Mr. and Mrs. Moreland will make their home in Seattle.

Miss Elizabeth Moriarty and Mr. Joseph E. Gliddon of Cleveland, O., were married Nov. 28th. Miss Moriarty was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Moriarty. Miss Moriarty was formerly a member of this parish.

ST. MARY'S.

There was a large attendance at the Literary meeting on Monday evening. Father Connors read his third paper on Church History, and Miss Keogh read a paper on "The Reign of Queen Elizabeth." A piano solo was rendered by Miss Connolly.

The Aid Society meets every Wednesday evening at the school house. There was a good attendance last Wednesday evening, and a large amount of work was accomplished.

There will be a meeting of the ladies of all the parishes of the city tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Home of the Aged, on Main street, to devise means of raising money to help the institution.

The attendance at our school is the largest it has ever been, the children numbering 641.

The school children will give an entertainment during Christmas week. Father Bush is Father Connors' assistant during the week, and Dr. Wirth assists on Saturdays and Sundays.

Miss Gertrude Garry of Law street, who has been seriously ill, is recovering.

Miss Bertha Tobia of Addison is the guest of her cousin, Miss Greenagie of James street.

Miss Ella Hayes of Hamilton street was in Lima last week, where she acted as bridesmaid at the wedding of her cousin.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

Mr. Joseph Hicks of Seio street, superintendent of the Rochester Railway company, has gone to New York and Boston.

There was a meeting of the Sacred Heart society after the devotion on Friday morning. It was largely attended.

Charles H. Crowley spent the present week in Corning on business.

The announcement of the nomination and election of officers for the ensuing year in last week's JOURNAL should have read Dec. 12th instead of Dec. 26th.

The grocery store of John Knapp was burglarized on Tuesday evening last. The cash drawer was forced open and some money taken, also a quantity of cigars.

A requiem high mass for the soul of Theresa Keating was celebrated on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock.

There was a requiem high mass on Monday morning for Mrs. Margaret Doran.

There will be a meeting at the Home for the Aged on Sunday afternoon to devise a plan to raise funds for this institution.

The annual election of officers of the Aid society was held on Friday last with the following result: President, Mrs. T. J. Sullivan; treasurer, Mrs. J. H. Lenahan; secretary, Mrs. Del Lay; purchasing committee, Mrs. M. Sullivan, Miss O'Connor. The final report of the retiring officers denote a great amount of good work accomplished during the past two years.

Mathias J. Garvey, aged 38 years, died Wednesday afternoon at the family residence, 4 Niagara street.

Besides the father the survivors are three sisters and four brothers. The funeral will take place Monday morning at 8.30 from the house, and at 9 o'clock from the church.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

On Thanksgiving eve the young people of the parish presented to a large audience a drama entitled "A Celebrated Case." The different characters were finely portrayed and the audience was very appreciative, each member of the cast receiving a liberal amount of applause.

Sunday afternoon the Rosary society held their regular monthly meeting.

Monday evening the C. R. & B. A. held their regular meeting. Nomination and election of officers took place.

Monday morning the funeral mass of Mrs. B. Jackson was held.

On Wednesday morning a requiem high mass was offered for the repose of the soul of Miss Annie Reardon, offering of the L. C. B. A.
