Auburn.

Mr. Richard Geraghty died Saturday evening, Dec 18, 1900, aged 60 years. The funeral took place from his late home and from Holy Family church, interment being in St. Joseph's cemetery. Mr. Geraghty was highly respected, being one of the pioneers of Fleming. He came here in early boyhood, and at an early age married and reared a large family. Sympathies are extended to the bereaved family.

It seems strange that so few people realize how hard our priests labor for their welfare. How often we hear of this person or that person calling on their priest and telling what somebody said about somebody else. Do they stop and think that perhaps he has just returned from a hard and tedious ride in the country after making a sudden sick call and has fasted for six or seven hours and came home tired and worn out, and expects to enjoy a little recreation and refreshment? Stop and consider it. It is certainly absurd to bother your priest with this nonsense. We have already sustained a severe and irreparable loss in the sudden demise of our beloved Revs. James P Kiernan and T. C. Murphy of Rochester and Rev. W. A. Morrison of Hornellsville, who, very dear friends, labored beyond their strength, and a great deal of their worriment was caused by jus what I have previously mentioned, gossip—idle gossip Don't annoy your pastor in this manner Make your visit as concise as possible, because you don't know how many engagements he may have to fill, and unless he invites you to stay you may res assured that by making your visit short and to the point you are not only helping to prolong the life of your priest, but you are also helping to lessen his daily burden.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

The coming attractions Christmas week as offered at Cook Opera House will certainly outsplendor all previous efforts at this popular playhouse, as the big bill on Monday next includes not less than five stars which have had the distinction of heading the greatest programmes, which will be notable for an entire novel and elaborate feature, to say nothing of the strongest kind of classic vaudeville entertainment. This quintette of stellar "acts" consists of the eminent inimitable comic opera comedian, Digby Bell, who needs no introduction, as his work in comic opera is well remembered by the theatre goers of Rochester. Mr. Bell has made his debut in the classic vaudeville, and last week in New York, to use an expression that counts for much in the theatrical world, that Digby Bell has emphatically "made good" in vaudeville in a degree seldom attained by new comers in this field from the legitimate stage In his forthcoming "act" this clever comedian will offer much merriment of new material, among which will be delightfully humorous stories, songs and other amusing accomplishments. Herbert Cawthorne and Susie Forrester were well known as farce comedy stars before attempting vaudeville. The two present a most laughable sketch entitled "A Damage Suit." The third (big) little star is the greatest of all juvenile wonders, Little Elsie. She displays an ability that if possessed by an actor twice her age would command the admiration of the knowing. In a mere child such attainments border on the miraculous. The fifth brilliant number is Rochester's favorite. In fact, a star card everywhere, in the person of Clarice Vance, the queen singer of coon songs and rag time melodies who made such a tremendous hit at this theatre last October, will offer a new budget of southern ditties. Frank and Don will offer a series of entertaining stunts termed "On the Spur of the Moment" .Marsh and Sartella, with their admixture of refined specialties, are said to be pleasing. Dewitt and Burns, eccentric comedy acrobats accomplish with ease and grace feat, that are almost incredible. W. H. Maxwell and Daisey Dudley have as singing comedy called "The Irish Lesson." W. F. Judge in unsupported ladder tricks are also featured on the superb bill. As usual two performances daily. Reserved seats can be secured one week in advance without extra charge.

BAKER THEATRE.

At this ever popular play house for the first three nights of next week, with grand Christmas matinee, will be presented the magnificent spectacular extravaganza of "Jack and the Bean Stalk," which will be produced with all the gorgeous paraphernalia incident to this fairy piece, with an exceptionally strong company and magnificent stage settings. This is a piece pleasing alike to old and young, and cannot fail to fill the house For the last half of the week, with the usual matinees, the patrons of this fine theatre will enjoy a genuine treat in "An African King," the first Boer war play to be presented to a Rochester public. This piece possesses more than usual interest and with its realistic and thrilling situations and truthful as well as elaborate stage settings, in conjunction with a company of acknowledged superiority, the lovers of the drama in Rochester cannot but be pleased with this great production. Popular prices will prevail, and nothing left undone to ensure the comfort and pleasure of the patrons of the Baker.

Rheumatism and Dyspepsia.

"I have used Medical Lake Salt in my family for rheumatism and dyspepsia and found it to be the best remedy we have ever used, as it effects quickly, and we consider it the best and cheapest medicine in the market and can thankfully say it is nature's great cure." Chicago, 1892. H. H. Armstrong. For sale by L. Lederer, sole agent, 519 Clinton avenue north, Rochester, N. Y. Price $1.00 per box, 300 doses. Ask your druggist for it.
