AUBURN.

The children of the Holy Family school assisted by other members of the congregasion will repeat the pretty operetta "Lalah" and the special numbers presented in conmection therewith. The performance will take place at the Burtls opera house on Monday night, the day on which St. Patrick's day will be observed A large number of people who purchased tickets for the pre-vious presentation were unable to gain admission to the house owing to the crowd and It is principally to accomodate these people who are auxious to see the production that it is to be presented.

A new clock of the large regulator pattern has recently been placed in a prominent position near the altar at St. Mary's church.

This is semething that will be appreciated by many and also it might form a good protection against the always present fellows with the new gold watches as they will now have no excuse to pull out that watch now.

The death of Mrs Mary Brannick occurred rather suddenly on Monday morning at the late home in Madison avenue. Mrs. Brannick was preparing breakfast when she was suddenly seized with a hemorrage from the effects of which she died in a few miautes. Mrs. Brannick was an estimable Christian woman, who had the respect and highest esteem of all who knew her. She was one of those women who have the faculty of creating a favorable impression wherever met and her model life and uncomplaining forbearance with sufferings made of her one who may truly be palated to us an exemplary woman. She is survived by an aged mother and two sons, Frank and Ei ward Brannick of this city. Her fumeral was held from St. Mary's church Wednes day morning and the barial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Penn Yan will experience some very sotable changes this spring, many business changes taking place.

The sermon on Sunday evening was delivered by Rev. Thomas Hendrick, and was listened to by a large and attentive audicace which completely filled the church. The text of the sermon was: "What brings me here among the children of men?" On Monday evening the sermon was delivered by Rev. Father O'Brien of Canandaigua, and was a fine one, being delivered in a clear and distinct voice. Tuesday evening the sermon was preached by Father McPadden of Geneva, and was listened to by a large and attentive audience.

Relics of 1798. While some workmen of Mr. John Graham, Jr., builder and contractor of Dromore, were excavating ground and uprooting a large tree on the property of Mr. David T. Martin of Tullindoney they came upon a small cavity formed of four upright slates underneath the roots of the tree. On opening the same the cavity was found to be full of leaden bullets which on examination proved to be for the old Queen Anne type of gun. They were probably hidden during 1798 or the preceding years.
