COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Manager J. H. Moore has for the coming week an unlimited array of star attractions which will open at Cook Opera house Monday mainee, April 8th, for the ensuing week, headed by the great and only Queen of Magic, Mme. Adelaide Herrmann, the widow of Herrmann the Great, who will present an original and bewildering element of amazement at Cook Opera House where she appears for the first time as a vaudeville star in Rochester.

Mrs. Herrmann herself is a prestidigitatrice of extraordinary knowledge and gift of penetration. she is thoroughly schooled and a more beautiful, unusual and graceful attraction has not found its way to impoverished vaudeville in many years. Mme. Herrmann is certainly preclamed the Queen of Magic. The next important feature on the extensive bill is Mr. J. W. Winton the greatest of all ventriloquists. He has thirty different figures, and can change his programme as frequently as even the most exacting manager could desire.

Another potent card among the many innovations is Mr. Edgar Atchison Ely, who recently returned from London, Monroe, Mack and Lawrence will introduce their amusing playlet, entitled "How to get rid of Your Mother-in-law." The Helen Reed Trio will offer a high class musical act that has gained decided favor in vaudeville. Frobel and Ruge will create a sensation with their serial novel act, and the work on a Japanese revolving pole, which is announced as a decidedly marvelous new.

Bertha Wagner, the sweet singer comedienne, and Brunne Annim, the clever baritone will present their dashing original operetta entitled "Opera in a Restaurant." Edward J. Boyle, the well known pianist, vocalist and whistler, who has not been seen in Rochester in several years, will be in evidence. Fogarty & Lavigne, comedians of the highest grade, will make things merry on this week's bill, while Joe Monk will offer "The Beekham." Frank P. Atherton's latest march and two-step, which completes the star bill for Easter Week, with two shows daily.

BAKER THEATRE.

A very warm welcome should be extended to the English melodrama, "Man's Enemy" when it comes to the Baker theatre the first three days of next week, with matinees on Tuesday and Wednesday. It was seen here last season for the first time, although it is now in its fourth year in England and there can be but little doubt that further popular success is in store for this masterly play of love, hate and jealousy.

For the last three days of next week, with matinees on Thursday and Saturday, the Baker theatre will offer as its attraction "The Tide of Life," a play which appeals to the heart. It is a melo-drama of modern life.

Sunday night, April 21st, the President's Marine Band of Washington, D. C., will give a grand gala concert at the Baker theatre.

Lenora Jackson, the distinguished violinist, will appear at the Baker theatre on Thursday evening, April 25th, under the auspices of the Tuesday musicale.

DEATH OF WILLIAM BASSETT.

The death of William Bassett, a well-known contractor of this city, occurred Thursday morning at the family residence, No. 64 William street. The deceased was well acquainted among the older residents of the city, and many will read of his death with sorrow. Mr. Bassett was born in Quebec, Canada, in 1827. After residing in Oswego for a short time he came to this city in 1850, and had lived here ever since. Up to three years ago Mr. Bassett was in active business, but retired at that time on account of ill health. He was a member of St. Mary's church, and was actively engaged in the charitable work of that parish. The deceased is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Harriet A. Beals, a son William T. Bassett, and a grand-niece, Nellie Bassett, all of this city. Mr. Bassett was one of the JOURNAL'S oldest subscribers, and our sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.
