The Easter Glee given by the Young Ladies' Aid Society at St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum on Easter Monday and Tuesday was a good success and a great help for the orphans. Although the weather being unfavorable a large crowd visited the asylum.

BAKER THEATRE.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the engagement of Mr. Frank Keenan in that thoroughly good play of Sol Smith Russell's "A Poor Relation," is announced. Mr. Keenan is said to possess the same great underlying qualities of naturalness, dryness of humor and quaint mannerism that have endeared Sol Smith Russell to the American public. The usual matinees will be given on Tuesday and Wednesday.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week the attraction at the Baker theatre will be a sumptuous revival of "M'liss." COOK OPERA HOUSE.

Manager Moore promises for this week a bill of superlative stars. It is significant of the higher development of modern vaudeville that some of the leading artists in that line now carry with them their own scenic outfit. The first to make this grateful break in the conventionality of vaudeville doings was that clever comedienne, Patricia, whose "New Year's Dream" and "Edna's Ghost" are remembered as excellent in their artistic quality. Another star, Mr. Homer Lind, late principle baritone of the Metropolitan English Grand Opera Company, who will give a new version of the French classic, "Gringoire," by Willard Holcomb, and with ballads and incidental music by Mr. Julian Edwards. Prolle's performing dogs are said to be the best ever seen in America. Torcat, the celebrated English clown. The program is filled throughout with comedy uncommonly strong and Pete Baker with his German dialect will keep the people laughing. Eddie Heron & Co. will present "A Friend of the Family." The Marinello will introduce the new school of physical development, while the Twin Sister Gebeut will accurately portray the ragged street urchin. The Avery will offer their latest specialty, and with the assistance of Prof. Monk the programme promises to be a great one. Two performances daily.

MUSICALS.

Miss Caroline Cramer, the well known vocalist, will hold a musicale at the Y. W. C. A. hall, Clinton avenue, North, Tuesday evening, April 23rd. Miss Cramer will be assisted by Miss Gertrude L. Hughes, reader, who is a graduate of the Toronto school of Elocution. Miss Alice Wyard will act as accompanist.

SHORT INSTRUCTIONS ON THE GOSPEL BY A REVEREND FATHER.

Gospel — St. John xx. 19-31. — Jesus Appears to his Disciples.

We must know, says St. Augustine, that God can do many things which we cannot understand. As Jesus as yet mortal could walk on the water without sinking, and as He was able without being seen or touched to pass among those who wished to cast Him from the precipice and to stone Him in the temple, so after His glorious resurrection He could pass through closed doors and enter the room without difficulty. All is explained by the power of Christ, true God and true man.

As our senses are the doors of the soul, we infer that when these senses are closed to things of the world Jesus will enter into souls and say: "Peace be to you." Let us then close our eyes in order not to see the vanities of the world, our ears not to hear them spoken of, and our lips in order not to speak useless and evil words, and Jesus will come into our hearts and announce peace to us.

We also can enjoy that peace if, with the grace of God obtained through Christ, we study to keep in peace with God, by avoiding sin; in peace with our neighbor, by loving him with true charity and suffering with patience his defects; and in peace with ourselves, by being contented with our condition in life, and limiting the desires of our heart.

Be it further Resolved, That our charter be draped for a period of thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the meeting, and that they be published in THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL.
