OUR AGENT,
Mr. A. Herman, will collect from subscribers in Geneva, Canandaigua next week.

PENN. VAN.

The funeral of Patrick Manley was held from St. Michael's church on Friday at 4 o'clock and was largely attended.

On Monday April 8, the Easter ball was held by the A. O. H. in their rooms and was largely attended, many out of town people being present.

There is said to be a well developed case of small pox in Geneva.

On Easter Sunday there was special music in the churches.

Rev. Father Hendrick has moved into his new home on Liberty street.

Wm. Bolan has secured a position with S. L. Pratt.

Miss Katherine H. Vland has entered Nazareth Normal school and will fit herself for a teacher after which it is her intention of joining the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Mr. T. W. Lynch received a letter from Father Angelo at Ceva Italy, and he stated he will be here next month. All wish a safe voyage to our former pastor.

Mr. Thomas Tunney and Miss Augusta Mehlbacher of Danville, will be married next Wednesday by Rev. James T. Dougherty in Danville. They will reside on Keuka street.

Mr. Edward Donahue and family have removed to Geneva, where Mr. D. is engaged in business.

Mr. T. S. Burns has moved into the Catholic parsonage on Keuka street.

DANVILLE.

The members of the C. R. B. A. received holy communion at St. Mary's last Sunday. The L. C. B. A. will receive to-morrow.

The L. C. B. A. will hold a card party next Wednesday evening in their rooms. Light refreshments will be served.

William J. Maloney succeeds J. C. Blum as trustee of St. Patrick's.

Misses Nellie Bacon, Nellie Brogan and Mr. John W. O'Connor of the Genesee Normal, and Miss Mary E. Rowan of Tonawanda, came home for Easter.

Mr. Jerry Mahoney of Horonellville was an Easter visitor on Adams street, and Mrs. Larkie of Cohocton on Franklin street.

A very interesting entertainment was given by the children of St. Patrick's school last Thursday evening.

Thomas E. Tunney of Penn Van, and Augusta Mehlbacher of Danville, were married Wednesday at St. Patrick's rectory. They will reside in Penn Van.

Cassius Fritzy and Catherine L. O'Hara were married on Thursday. They will live in North Tonawanda.

SENECA FALLS.

St. Patrick's choir rendered an unusual programme Sunday at the 10-30 mass. The altar was handsomely decorated with lights, roses, lilies, and plants. Vespers was celebrated at 7-45 o'clock.

Michael Woods, a well known resident of this place, died Friday at 2 a. m., at his home on Garden street after a brief illness of pneumonia. Deceased was born in Ireland 25 years ago. He was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He is survived by his wife, two sons and three daughters. The funeral was held Sunday at 2 p. m. from St. Patrick's church, Rev. Father Dwyer officiating.

John Ryan of this place was killed by the cars Saturday at Frankport. The remains were brought here Monday afternoon. Deceased was a machinist, well known and highly respected. His death was a great shock to the community. He is survived by his mother, one brother, and one sister. Aged 35 years. The funeral was held Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church, Rev. Father Dwyer officiating.

The Knights of Columbus held their annual dance Monday evening in Johnson Opera house.

The marriage of Miss Emma T. Cook of this place and Herbert Maxon of Gloverville, was solemnized Sunday evening at the parental residence, Rev. Father Dwyer officiating.

Thomas Reagan of New York, son of Patrick Reagan of Seneca Falls, and Miss Ann Reynolds of Waterloo, were united in marriage Wednesday. The bride and groom are both well known in this place.

Miss Elizabeth Rafferty of this place, entered into the congregation of Sisters of St. Joseph, Rochester, Tuesday. A large circle of friends witnessed the impressive ceremonies.

F. P. Carraber of Buffalo, was in town Sunday.

EAST BLOOMFIELD.

The people of Father Neville's parish here as well as all those with whom he has become acquainted are glad to hear of his rapid recovery. All have been anxious inquirers regarding his condition since he was first taken ill. Although the parish has not felt the need of a priest to any extent during his absence, having been supplied from St. Bernard's Seminary and other parishes, yet it is the earnest wish of the entire congregation that the time is near at hand when his health will be such as to enable him to resume his duties among them well and happily.

Miss Julia Peer of Rochester, spent Easter at her home here, the guest of her parents.

Miss Lillian C. O'Neil of New York, is spending a week at her home here.

Miss Ella Neville, Miss Mae Creedon and Miss Mamie Smith of Rochester, spent Sunday at their homes here.

Mr. T. Creedon of Buffalo, spent a few days in town last week.

Mr. Wm. Sweeney of Canandaigua, visited at his home in town last Sunday.

Rev. Father Ryan of Rochester, celebrated the two masses here Easter Sunday. Father Ryan delivered a very interesting sermon at each mass on the gospel of the day. The usual Easter collection was taken by him to which all contributed very generously.

The remains of Fred Hartz, the unfortunate man who was drowned in a creek in the south part of the town about a week ago, were interred in that part of the cemetery known as Potter's field, last Friday, the remains of any relatives not having been found.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cummings, Jr., of this place have moved recently to Waterloo, where Mr. Cummings is engaged in business.

GENESECO.

Father Hughes has services at the County house, on Saturday afternoons at 3 o'clock, during this month.

The sales at the auction of James B. Costello's livery on Saturday last, amounted to nearly $1,400.00.

Wm. Crystal has rented the Frank Mann blacksmith shop at Wadsworth. Mr. Crystal is a good workman and we wish him success.

Terrence McDonald has purchased the old Green home-stand on Seneca street, and is tearing it down. Chas. N. H. will erect a dwelling on the old site this summer.

Mrs. M. Hendrick has moved into the Hagerty house on Court street, which she recently purchased. Consideration $300.

The services during Lent was well attended, and good opportunities given to all to make their Easter communion. Father Hughes preached very interesting and instructive sermons on the four marks of the church. (On the 20th ult., Rev. Father Bustin of Rochester, preached, and on the 27th ult., Rev. Father Malley of Craig Colony, Sooyes, preached.)

Bora, on Monday last, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones, a daughter.

The Jolly Pedro Club after a rest during Lent, were pleasantly entertained by the Misses Cahill and Eleanor Thompson, Tuesday evening, and all present had an enjoyable time. The first prize was won by Mrs. P. Carragher, and the second by Miss Mae Hughes of Rochester. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. M. Cahill on Thursday evening next, April 18 h.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Winsifred Egan of this town and Frank Finnigan of Avon, to take place at St. Mary's church Wednesday, April 17th last.

Easter services were held at St. Mary's church at 11 o'clock, a. m. The altar was handsomely decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Father Hughes preached an interesting sermon, appropriate to the day. The choir which had been under the direction of Prof. M. Hughes of Rochester, rendered the following program: Vidi Aquam, Gregorian; Kyrie, Leonard's in B flat; Gloria, Leonard's in B flat; Credo, Leonard's in B flat; O'Herity—Haec Dies Webbe; Sanctus, Leonard's; Agnus Dei, Leonard's.

The singing at both morning and evening services was excellent, the choir was assisted by Miss Mae Hughes and Messrs. M. and A. Hughes of Rochester. Special mention is due to the solo sang by Miss Mary Toole.

LIMA.

The services of holy week were conducted here with much solemnity, and though the weather was unfavorable a good attendance was seen at the several devotions.

The altars were beautifully decorated for Easter Sunday with lilies carnations, and potted plants, which with the many lights made a striking contrast to the gloom of the previous week.

On Monday the infant daughter of John O'Brien was interred in St. Rose's cemetery. Our school opened on Wednesday 9th after a short vacation.

The Easter festival under the auspices of the united bands was not a financial success owing to the weather and very bad roads. Fagan's orchestra furnished excellent music for the dancers. A sumptuous supper was served in fine style by the ladies in attendance.

Our former townman, J. E. Emmons, has taken up his residence among us again. He will build a cold storage of large capacity near the trolley depot.

The foundry buildings are growing and promises to be quite an industry for the town.

The debate at the last lyceum public was between our young townsmen, Peter McMannis and Joseph McSwaney, each handling his side of the question with much ability.

WHEN BABY IS SICK.

Crying the best index to its physical condition.

A baby's cry should be to the intelligent mother the best index to its physical condition. The healthy baby cries very loudly and in a lusty, explosive, angry manner, and the tears flow freely. The sick baby, or the one on the verge of sickness, cries peevishly or whines in a low tone.

Watch the manner in which the baby takes its food. If it is perfectly well it will attack the bottle greedily, and will express its satisfaction much in the same manner as any other young suckling animal—that is, by soft and inarticulate noises or grunts. If, on the other hand, the baby contemplates its food before touching it, or, after tasting, turns from it, be sure there is something wrong.

Watch the baby closely while it sleeps. If it is in perfect health the skin will be moist, the lips damp and scarlet, the palms of the hands and the soles of the feet pink. The eyelids will be completely closed and there will be no twitching of the muscles about the mouth or nose or eyes. Save for a faint rhythmic sound of breathing the healthy baby when asleep will be as still as a piece of carved marble.

If the baby smiles in its sleep, if it throws out its little hands and feet with swift, spasmodic motions, if the eyes are only half closed, the corners of the mouth drawn down, the breathing irregular or labored, the face flushed and the head hot, then lose no time in calling in the family physician.

THE VALLEY SHADOWS.

The Shadows in the valley,
They gather grim and grey;
We need not pass their darkness through.

It waits on every way;
But from the heights descending,
O soul, be brave and strong,
And make the valley shadows ring

Unto the hilltop song!
The shadows in the valley,
They gather grey and grim,
But all the darkened roads go straight

From mountain brain to brim;
And now the heights ascending,
The way behind you long,
How steadfast sounds your faithful chant.

The valley's hilltop song!
Ripley D. Saunders.

A Word About the Bathroom

The bath itself must, of course, always be kept spotlessly clean and the taps brilliantly polished, and the linoleum covering the floor always carefully swept and washed, but even more than this is needed to make a really comfortable bathroom. A cork or rubber mat should be kept in every bathroom.

Woolen mats are useless; they absorb the moisture and become unhygienic. A place should be found on the wall for a mirror—a plain one with a black frame will answer the purpose admirably; the longer it is the better, and it should be placed where there is a good light. Two wire trays should also be fastened to the wall beside the bath, and low enough to be within easy reach of the person using it.

These are to hold the sponge and flannel and soap when not in use during the bath. Also shelves should be made and placed upon the walls of every bathroom. These may be of plain deal, enamelled any color that is liked.

Plenty of soap should always be provided and towels in abundance, and with all these little comforts the daily bath will be indeed an unmixed pleasure.

Proper Manners at the Table.

There is no place where a person's good breeding and careful training, says a writer in The Delineator, are more clearly shown than at the table. Peculiarities of manner which might elsewhere pass without criticism are not there allowable. Conduct must be marked by serenity, and there must be no uncertainty of manner, but an easy knowledge of the use of all the belongings of the table. Customs which may seem insignificant are in reality of sufficient importance to show the difference between refinement and the lack of it, between a familiarity with social conventionalities or the reverse.

Whether a dinner is ceremonious or informal, certain customs remain the same. We will suppose that a lady is taking her seat at a dinner party. She immediately removes her gloves, places them in her lap, unfolds the napkin, takes the roll or bread from within it and places it at the left hand, on the table, and lays the napkin across her lap. At each place there may be on the right two large knives, a small silver fish knife and a tablespoon, and on the left three or four silver forks, one of them a fish fork and one an oyster fork.

The oysters are served on the shell and must be eaten whole, not cut in half.

Soup is taken with a tablespoon and from the side of the spoon; one must never tilt an soup plate to secure the last spoonful, and must never be served twice to soup.

For the fish course, the silver fish fork and knife are used. Butter is not served at dinner. It is not good form to eat bread between the courses, as if one were hungry.

Some entrees, such as cutlets or sweetbreads, may require the knife and fork; for others, such as patties, timbales or croquette, a fork only is used. Meat is cut as required, a small piece at a time. When eating vegetables the knife is laid on the plate, the blade resting near the center. The knife must not be placed across the edge of the plate, nor with the handle resting on the table. The fork is then taken up in the right hand, the handle of the fork resting easily on the hand between the first finger and the thumb.

Small birds, such as quail and quab, are served whole, one for each person, and one cuts the meat from the breast and eats each piece at the time of cutting it.

THEIR ONLY MEDICINE

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Marie Stuart and Clayton E. White, leading vaudeville artists, who have been entertaining thousands at the Cook Opera House last week, and whose clever sketch "Dickey," has met with such enthusiastic approval, unite in commending—

Miss Stuart, who has played roles for several years, writes.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 2, 1900.
Duffy Malt Whiskey Co.
Gentlemen—I have never used another medicine since I discovered the value of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

MARIE STUART.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

It is because DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY wards off sickness, soothes unsettled nerves, and invigorates and nourishes the whole being, that actors and actresses, and in fact all who are subject to severe mental or physical strains, use it.

Mr. Clayton E. White, accounted one of the cleverest comedians of the day, states:

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 26, 1900.
Duffy Malt Whiskey Co.
Gentlemen—After having had Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey recommended for various ailments by a score of physicians, from Maine to California, I decided to be my own physician (saving the expense of the doctor's advice) and have not been without it for the past five years.

CLAYTON E. WHITE.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey stimulates the organs to increased action, enabling them to throw off disease, and smoothens away trials and anxieties that burden and exhaust. It is the only whiskey taxed by the government as a medicine—this in itself is a guarantee. Ask for free medical booklet when ordering. Sold only in our patent bottle.
