RECEIVED THE VEIL.

Miss Mary M. Lavin received the veil at Sacred Heart Chapel on Prince Marie's death, and in the present state street last Friday. The convent and chapel were beautifully decorated with flowers and there was a large attendance. Rev. J. 'J. Leary, pastor of Corpus Christi church, offici ated at the ceremony, and Rev. M. J. Nolan, D. D., chaplain of the convent, preached the sermon. The music was especially prepared for the occasion, the mass being sung by the pupils of the convent, with Miss Jessie B. Minges as soloist.

The veil is given after six months' probation in the convent. Miss Lavin will soon go to the convent of the will spend two years in the novitiate. congenial roles, and the magnificent Sacred Heart at Albany, where she to her who had not only never known
