CITY PARISH NEWS.

Interesting Budget of Happenings Gathered by Our City Reporters

ST. ANTHONY'S

Despite the rain of last Sunday the members of this parish turned out in great numbers to make the first pilgrimage, the second will be made next Sunday. Those who were unable to attend last Sunday can add the missing link by joining in the children's pilgrimage next fall.

A requiem mass was celebrated by Father Hendrick, Monday at 8 a. m. for the repose of the soul of Thomas Mulry of New York. Mr. Mulry, though a young man, was active in charity organizations.

The feast of Corpus Christi will be celebrated next Sunday.

A meeting was held Tuesday evening at the rectory to make final arrangements for the summer festival, which will be held upon the evenings of June 26th and 27th. The members of St. Anthony's society will take charge of the ice cream table. Several married ladies will take charge of a refreshment table and a third table will be in the hands of the men. The tickets of admission will entitle the holder to ice cream and cake. Two prizes will be given away, a hand painted sofa pillow worth fifty dollars and a Morris chair, to the persons holding the lucky number ticket.

Our novena services are well attended.

Father Kenny who was ordained for Hartford diocese Thursday, celebrated his first mass in this church Friday morning at 8 o'clock.

The Cardinal Newman Reading Circle will meet next Monday evening. This will be the last meeting of the season. The members will read selections from Gilmory Shea's history. A paper on Current Topics will be prepared by Miss S. R. Quinn.

The children will receive their first communion June 16th, being enrolled in the scapular and renewing their baptismal vows the same day.

The Advisory Senate, L. C. B. A., met at St. Michael's hall last Monday evening. Through the kindness of the recorder of the branch, Mrs. Dr. N. F. Kiefer, a quartette from St. Francis Xavier's choir, L. Schafer, F. Limpert, M. J. Kolb and J. Teichler favored us with several vocal selections. The first, "Lead Kindly Light," was set to music by Mrs. Kiefer and dedicated to our Sup. Pres. Mrs. E. B. McGowan. It will be sung at the convention in Detroit next month. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Past Pres. Mrs. Staub. The next meeting of the Senate will be held at the hall of Br. 27, June 21st.

Mrs. M. A. Skinner of Elmira, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Love of Marietta street.

Miss Margaret Rauber of Gorham street, is spending the week with friends in Buffalo. She will visit the Pan-American.

HOLY APOSTLES.

To-morrow, about forty children will receive their first holy communion.

Monday mass was said for the living and deceased members of the Rosary Society.

Miss Clunen of Austria street, has just returned from a visit to friends in Geneseo.

ST. BONIFACE.

The members of this congregation consider themselves fortunate in securing an able assistant for their pastor, Rev. Rauber, in the person of Rev. Leopold Hofschneider. The duties are so arduous, and Father Rauber has performed them alone for several years, our Rt. Rev. Bishop has appointed a curate.

St. Michael and Holy Redeemer parishes and comes to St. Boniface to assist our pastor in the many labors attendant to such a large congregation, amid a cordial welcome from the members.

The school children are preparing a grand entertainment for the closing exercises, to be given in the latter part of June.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

The marriage of Miss Anna Weigand to Mr. Frank Kastner took place at St. Michael's church at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The bridesmaids were Miss Marie Kesseland and Miss Hannah Quartz. Mr. William Kastner and Frank Webster acted as groomsmen. Miss Hedwig Kastner, little sister of the groom and his cousin, Loretta Foery, acted as flower girls. The ushers were Mr. Martin Schirmer and Mr. John O'Brien.

After the ceremony solemn mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Hargather with Rev. Father Staub as deacon, and Rev. Father Shellhorn as sub-deacon. After the wedding breakfast which was served at the home of the bride's mother, 43 Rauber street, the happy couple left for an extended Eastern trip. They will be at home after July 1st at No. 311 Joseph avenue.

The funeral of Michael Brown took place from this church at 9 o'clock. A mass of requiem was offered up this week for Julia Gregson, John Sweeney and Mrs. Catherine Lynch.

The Ladies Aid Society held a very enjoyable pedro and euchre party.

The Young Men's Society held their regular meeting Sunday at 2.30.

Vespers was held in this church at 7.45 on Sunday evening.

Miss Josephine Quinn and Mr. William Blackwood were married on Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 by Rev. Augustine O'Neil.

The members of this congregation made the pilgrimage in procession on last Sunday.

Miss Jennie Kavanaugh, Mrs. Jas. Powell, and Miss Margaret Powell will leave on Monday for Norwich.

ST. MARY'S

John Sheehan and Helen Cough were united in marriage on Tuesday morning.

The funeral of Catherine Carey took place on Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

John Esgar and Elizabeth Kelly were married on Wednesday morning.

Novenas in honor of St. Anthony and the Sacred Heart began this week. They will close on the feast of St. Anthony, Thursday, and the Sacred Heart Friday morning. The attendance every evening is very large.

On Tuesday afternoon Charles Houllhan and Helen Howland were united in marriage by Rev. Father Leary.

We were pleased to greet our new pastor, Father Leary, last Sunday. In his remarks Father Leary spoke very feelingly of his predecessors and of the good work Father Connors had done during the time he had been acting pastor.

The altar was very prettily decorated last Sunday.

James Hoey and Emma Metz were married on Wednesday last.

The Sisters of Mercy tendered a reception to Father Leary on Sunday evening.

A reception by the school children was also tendered to Father Leary on Wednesday morning in the hall.

Despite the rain on last Sunday the parishioners of St. Mary's turned out in large numbers and made their first jubilee pilgrimage. The second will be made to-morrow, (Sunday).

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Marie Agnes Mullanphy to Mr. Bernard Joseph Kennedy on Wednesday of next week.

Miss Mary Greenagle is confined to her home by illness.

We are pleased to learn that Father Connors will accompany us.

Richard Schooley has again taken his position as postmaster of Station A, after several months spent in Denver, Col.

Mr. Charles P. Houllhan and Miss Helen Howland were united in marriage at 5 p. m. on Tuesday of this week, Rev. J. J. Leary officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret Howland, and the best man was Michael Houllhan, brother of the groom. The bride was arrayed in a charming suit of fallard satin and the bridesmaid wore nun's veiling. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served by the bride's mother, Mrs. Richard Howland, at her home, 93 Manhattan street. The house was prettily decorated in honor of the affair, and the presents were many and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Houllhan left on the midnight train for New York, and will be at home after June 15th at 72 Plymouth avenue. Guests were present from Canandaigua, Victor, Fairport and Buffalo.

FRENCH CHURCH.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Thursday night at the Church of our Lady of Victory on Pleasant street, when Joseph Henry Stoffel and Miss Georgiana L. Krank, eldest daughter of Mrs. C. Bauerlein, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Notesteer, pastor of the church. A wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's mother, No. 10 Ke'chum street, only the immediate relatives being present. The newly married couple left on the Pan-American Express for Montreal, and will be at home after June 20th at No. 709 Clinton avenue North.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hudson of Wald street, are rejoicing over the advent of a young daughter.

ORPHAN'S ENTERTAINMENT.

The boys of St. Mary's Orphan asylum gave a very pleasant entertainment at their hall upon the evening of Decoration day. Every one taking part deserves great credit for the manner in which they performed the part assigned them, showing the great care given them by their teachers. At the close of the program Father Gafel, chaplain of the asylum made a brief address to the boys.

Wire Grass Matting.

The latest, the best, and most durable matting ever made of piassas, cottages and summer houses.

It is not a China matting or a Japanese matting. It is an American fabric, an admixture of the virgin products of the Prairie and Southern Cotton fields, woven in beautiful striped and figured. This is without question the most popular matting in the markets, filling as it does a long felt want for something at once cool, dressy and durable.

These goods are also made in Rug form. In all cases, small Mat to 9 feet by 12 feet. They are handsome. Everyone should see them. The price, like the goods, is also popular.
